. B. Wheatley, Esq.,

The newly elected Sheriff, qualified on Friday of last week, and gave bond with the following sureties: William B. Wilmer, Richard B. Willson, John Brice and Comegys Cosden.

Small Pox.

A case of this disease was reported in Chestertown last week. After careful inquiry we feel authorized to say that the report was without foundation, and our town remains, as yet, exempt from this loathsome disease.

The Rev. S. C. Roberts,

Of Norfolk, Va., has accepted the call of the Vestry of Chester Parish, Chestertown, and will fill the pulpit to-morrow week. This Parish has been without a minister since January 1st last.

The Railroad.

We have the satisfaction to announce that the rails of the Kent road have at length reached the station at our town. The ballasting will doubtless be speedily completed, and regular trains run from this point.

Mr. Jennings Hood, the superintendent of the Queen Anne's road, has received the same appointment on our road, in the place of J. K. Hines, resigned.

The New Building Association.

We learn that the effort now being made to establish another Building Association in Chestertown promises to be successful. The list of names at C. F. Stam & Bro.'s store has reached between forty and fifty, and a preliminary meeting will be held at the office of C. H. Baker, Esq., next Tuesday evening.

Sales Next Week.

Thursday next, the 14th inst., Mr. David Biddle will sell a large amount of farm stock and implements, at his residence, near Chestertown.

Tuesday, the 12th instant, Mr. H. V. B. Crawford will sell at his residence, horses, cattle, farming implements, &c.

Friday, the 15th inst., Mrs. H. E. Howard, as Executrix, will sell the personal estate of said deceased, at his late residence near Turner's creek.

Henry W. Archer, Esq., as Trustee, will sell at the Court House door, on Friday the 15th of December, the "Walker's Manor Farm," in Worton District, containing 250 acres.

Inhuman Treatment.

Philip and Caroline Hackett, negroes, arrested last week for cruelly treating a negro girl named Cornelia Dent, and causing her death, had a hearing before Justice Russell on Thursday last, and were fully committed for the action of the Grand Jury. Some of the testimony developed the most inhuman treatment.

This is the second case of this character in our county in the past few years. It is well known that negroes treat the children of their colored friends with much less consideration than their white employers do, yet they are being educated to place them anywhere to service except with white persons.

County Commissioners.

Tuesday, Dec'r. 5th.—The new Board of Commissioners, James A. Roseberry, Robert S. Griffith and Richard B. Willson, having qualified, were present, and organized by appointing Mr Roseberry President, and re-electing John Russell, Clerk, by a unanimous vote, being the third time he has been unanimously elected to this position But little business was transacted. Miss Redue obtained permission to use the Court room for a school exhibition. The Clerk was directed to advertise that appointments of Constables will be made on Tuesday, the 19th instant.

A Dutch Lease.

The following Lease was prepared by a prominent German of our town, for two of his countrymen, in German. It came into the hands of one of our Attorney's, who had it literally translated by an educated German of the lower district. One word he was unable to render into English:

Chestertown, January 4th. 1871.

Contract between Lewis Zeizel and Peter Von Hans I here undersigned Lewis Zeizel, rent to Peter Von Hans my 50 acre of ground in Quaker Neck, gm for 5 years, should I Zeizel die, Von Hans' got to move. The vegetable garden belongs to Von Hans so long as he remain on the farm. Also I Lewis Zeizel acknowledge of all what will be made the half. I give him my two brown horses for the land he overtaken of me to till, should one or the other die, so must Peter Von Hans the half of them pay the value of them, as one as the other $75.00. My 2 cows I give him for his own use, and the half of the butter he got to deliver to me. 2 young steers I give him for $35.00, what this kind bring more get one the half. Another steer worth $25,00, what more will be made of it, belong each one half—a red calf $12 00—a buffalo calf $15.00—7 hogs $6.00 the piece which should be made each one, the half 12 chickens the half of them eggs he must deliver. What break on the wagon each party has got to pay one half. I Peter Von Hans obligate myself to Lewis Zeizel all wood to draw what he needs in Chestertown without pay. All the hay stacked, Also the storks must be left on the farm. The farm must be worked right, as it belongs to a good farmer. The farm be tilled as I want. If there should be a new fence made so I Lewis Zeizel will find the wood for it, and I Von Hans do the work for nothing.

Rabena, the old fence what must be done have I Von Hans to do. What horses, cows in the lump above all stock belong, have I Von Hans no right any thing of what to sell without Zeizel's permission, I Peter Von Hans obligate myself to stay 5 years on that farm, and to build on the same as it suits a good farmer. Five plows give I to him to plow this farm. The same he has to deliver in as good condition I give him 50 bu corn—the same he has to return be he leaves the farm—Hans has to find 25 bu. wheat and him to sow before he leaves farm. I Lewis Zeizel find all the time half of them seeds which shall be sowed, I Lewis Zeizel and Peter Von Hans, none of us has a right to break this contract without death should take place.

This signs and puts in power

LEWIS ZEIZEL.

Orphans' Court.

Dec. 1st, 1871.—Present, James Beck, of George, Thos. Lusby and William Stevens.

The Court passed a number of accounts against the estates of deceased parties.

The release of the heirs of J. C. Wilson to R. B. Wilson, Administrator, was received and ordered to be recorded.

The release of P. W. Ruth and Sarah Ruth and Susan M. Medders, to Margaret Boyd, admirx. of G. W. Medders was received and ordered to be recorded.

George Vickers and Ellen Spry, executrix of C. W. Spry, returned an additional list of sales; also a list of debts; first and final guardian account for C. W. Spry jr., as acting guardian. S. Ellen Spry, guardian to C. W. Spry, returned guardian account for 1870 and 1871, which was passed and ordered to be recorded.

George Vickers and Ellen Spry Executors of C. W. Spry, returned their third administration account.

Executors of C. W. Spry, obtained an order to assign certain judgments to Ellen Spry guardian.

The last will and testament of Joseph J. Howard having been admitted to probat during the recess was received and ordered to be recorded. Letters testamentary were granted Henrietta E. Howard, the Executrix, with Geo. W. Howard, James Haman and C. H. Baker as sureties. John Willson and and George W. Dayis were appointed to appraise the personal estate; and the usual notice to creditors ordered.

On applications, ordered that Mary M. Hodges, admrx. of R. F. Hodges, execute a release to Howard Meeks, administrator of Robert Hodges, for all the said Richard Hodges' interest in the personal estate of Robert Hodges.

W. F. Massey and John Russell were appointed to estimate the annual rental value of the real estate of Emma Greenwood, minor, in the hands of J. A. Pearce and George Greenwood, administrators.

Samuel Comegys, executor of Mary Pearce, returned his fourth and final account which was passed and ordered to be recorded.

TUESDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

On application, C. J. Scott was appointed Trustee to sell the undivided two-third interest of John Clark, dec'd. in certain real estate.

Wm. Welch, guardian to Samuel J. Moffett, returned his final guardian account, and filed his release.

Wm. Welch, guardian to Charles, Wm. C. and Mary L. Moffett, returned his guardian account for 1870.

W. F. Massey and John Russell, returned their estimate of annual rental value of the real estate of Emma Greenwood.

H. E. Howard, executor of J. J. Howard, returned an inventory of Dec'd's personalty, and obtained an order of sale.

Bartus Trew was appointed administrator of Benjamin Lindsey, col'd.; parties entitled having first filed a renunciation, who gave bond with P. E. Trew and W. H. Hamilton as sureties. P. E. Trew and E. B. Jones were appointed to appraise the personal estate.

COLORED CITIZENS AND THE GRAND DUKE.—Thomas Chester, colored, of Harrisburg, Pa., who has figured in the newspapers before as a barrister, &c., applied to the committee in Philadelphia to to purchase a ticket to the ball in that city to the Grand duke Alexis, but was refused. Chester, it seems, had an interview with the Emperor of Russia a year or two ago, and is well acquainted with the fair-haired Alexis. This refusal has not only greatly disappointed Mr. Chester, but has created considerable talk among certain newspapers. Chester is reported to have said: "I have the right to attend the funerals of dead white men, as I did attend the fuperal of General Gregory, but it seems I cannot be permitted to go to a living white man's ball." He did not get his ticket. Another colored man, named Dorsey, why lives in Locust st. Philadelphia, was refused in the same way, which, in a published letter to the Grand Duke, he attributes "to that flunkey spirit in certain poor souled republican Americans, who, while they are ever so ready to fawn upon the great, are also ever ready to insult the humble and friendless."

FIRE AT HAGERSTOWN—Court House Destroyed—Fearful Loss of Life.—On Wednesday evening, at 10 o'clock a fire broke out in the business house of Rollins & Barbanks, agricultural implement dealers, located on Antietam street, opposite the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad depot, and rapidly spread to the adjacent buildings. The flames soon reached the Episcopal Church and the Court House, and both were burned to the ground. All the public records were saved. Several lives were lost by the falling of the Court House dome. The names of the killed are unknown. Others were severely injured—one, it is thought, fatally. The fire is still raging, with a heavy wind from southeast. The origin of the fire is unknown. The Court House was not insured.

CABINET CHANGES.—The New York Tribune believes there is no longer a doubt that Secretary of State Fish has practically and finally withdrawn from the Cabinet, and that Edwards Pierrepont, Esq., of New York, has been chosen to succeed him. It is understood, also, that Mr. Akerman will retire from the Attorney Generalship, but his successor is not yet publicly known.

TRUSTEE'S SALE

BY virtue of a Decree of the Circuit Court of Kent county, as a Court of Equity, the undersigned, as Trustee, will expose to Public Sale, to the highest bidder, on

THURSDAY,
The Twenty-eighth day of December, eighteen hundred and seventy-one, at one o'clock, P. M., at the Hotel Porch of the Voshell House in Chestertown, all that lying in Kent county, owned and occupied by Mr. Albert Medders. This property adjoins lands owned by William Welch, Esq., Mrs. Polk and Mr. A. C. Nowland, and lies immediately on the railroad. It is about two miles and a half from Kennedyville, and is convenient to Churches, Schools, &c.

It is divided into Fields and Lots, and is productive, having been much improved. It is supposed that one of the fields will yield fifty bushels of corn to the acre the present year. This land is called "McComas Meadows," "Bennett's Ridge," and "Black's Watering Ground," and contains

Two Hundred and Eighty-two Acres and Eleven Perches, more or less.

The Dwelling and other Buildings, though not large, are sufficient for the farm, which is under good fencing. There is on the farm, of the best varieties, productive, and which yields handsomely, being well attended to.

This farm has been much improved, is in a healthy locality, and is desirable property, either for a residence or investment.

THE TERMS OF SALE ARE—Cash on the day of sale, or at such other time as the Trustee may designate.
