We Call Attention

To the Concert to be given at the Court House, on Thursday evening next, and feel authorized to say to the lovers of good music, that this Concert will excell any musical entertainment which has been given our town for years. It will be a rare treat for our people, and the proceeds will be for church purposes.

Maryland Legislature.

The legislature of our State assembled on Wednesday last, the new members were sworn in, in the Senate.

At the democratic caucus on Wednesday evening, A. P. Gorman was nominated for Speaker of the House; Henry Snyder, for President of the Senate; A. Gassaway, Secretary, and Wm. H. Hiss, reading clerk, Journal Clerk, Solomon E. Smith, of Dorchester; Doorkeeper, George Harriss, of Harford, Sergeant-at-arms, W. F. Blackiston, of St. Mary's, and Page, W. N. Pennington, of Kent

Orphans' Court.

The Court met on Friday of last week, and adjourned in respect to their fellow, Thos. Lusby, Esq., the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

Inasmuch, as it hath pleased Almighty God in his providence, to remove suddenly from our midst, our beloved associate and friend THOMAS LUSBY, therefore

Resolved, That in his death we feel that this Court has been bereft of a wise counselor, whose integrity, sagacity, and gentlemanly deportment was always exhibited on the side of justice to the widows and orphans', and to all others having business before us.

Resolved, That the community at large have lost a kind friend, an honest man, whose character for charity and uprightness was well worthy of emulation.

Resolved, "That the Lord hath done it," we bow in humble submission to His will, knowing that "he is too wise to err, and too good to be unkind."

Resolved, That the above resolutions be entered upon the minutes of the Orphans' Court, and published in the Transcript and Kent News.

On Tuesday last, there was no quorum, and the Court adjourned to Thursday, and Mr. Scott still being absent adjourned to Tuesday.

Brigham Young Answers the Indictment for Murder.

SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 2.—Brigham Young, in custody of the United States Marshal, and accompanied by George A. Smith, Daniel Wells, H. B Clawson and other high church dignitaries, appeared before Chief Justice McKean this afternoon under indictment for murder. The Court room was crowded to suffocation.—Much anxiety exists among the Mormons, but there is no show of disorder or disrespect to the Court. Hon. C. H. Hempstead and Thomas Fitch are counsel for the prisoner, and United States Attorney Bates prosecutes for the people. Mr. Hempstead moved that the prisoner be admitted to bail on the ground that he was an old man, seventy-one years of age, and in feeble health. He had come 400 miles to meet this and all other charges, and his physician certified that the imprisonment would imperil his life. Mr. Bates had no opposition to bail, but suggested it be fixed at $500,000. Judge McKean said the Government of the United States has no jail in this city for holding prisoners arrested on process issued from United States Courts, and the Marshal is is required to exercise the discretion which the law vests in him. Sometimes such prisoners are kept at Camp Douglass, the Commander of that fort was not obliged to receive them. The prisoner is reported to be the owner of several houses in the city. If he chose to put under the control of the Marshal some suitable building in which to be detained it will be for the Marshal to say whether he will accept it. It is the option of the prisoner to make such offer. In any event the Marshal will look to it that every comfort of the prisoner be provided remembering that he is an old man. I decline to admit him to bail.

On leaving Court Brigham tendered the Marshal his residence in South Female street, which was accepted, and Brigham is now a prisoner in his own house. He seemed perfectly cool and unconcerned.

SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN
For 1872.
TWENTY-SEVENTH YEAR.

THIS splendid weekly, greatly enlarged and improved, is one of the most useful and interesting journals ever published. Every number is beautifully printed on fine paper, and elegantly illustrated with original engravings, representing New Inventions; novelties in Mechanics, Manufactures, Chemistry, Photography, Architecture, Engineering, Science and Art.

Farmers, Mechanics, Inventors, Engineers, Chemists, Manufacturers, and people of all professions or trades will find the

of great value and interest.

Its practical suggestions will save hundreds of dollars to every Household, Workshop and Factory in the land, besides affording a continual source of valuable instruction. The Editors are assisted by many of the ablest American and European writers, and having access to all the leading Scientific and Mechanical Journals of the world, the columns of the Scientific American are constantly enriched with the choicest information.

An official list of all the Patents issued is published weekly.

The yearly numbers of the Scientific American make two splendid volumes of nearly one thousand pages, equivalent in size to four thousand ordinary book pages.

SPECIMEN COPIES SENT FREE.

TERMS.—$3 a year; $1.50 half year; Clubs of ten copies for one year, $2.50 each, $25.00, with a Splendid Premium to the person who forms the Club, consisting of a copy of the celebrated Steel-Plate Engraving, "Men of Progress."

In connection with the publication of the Scientific American, the undersigned conduct the most extensive Agency in the world for procuring PATENTS.

The best way to obtain an answer to the question—Can I obtain a Patent? is to write to MUNN & CO., 37 PARK ROW, New York, who have had over Twenty-five Years' Experience in the business. No charge is made for opinion and advice. A pen-and-ink sketch, or full written description of the invention, should be sent.

For instructions concerning American and European Patents—Caveats—Re-issues—Interferences—Rejected Cases—Hints on Selling Patents—Rules and Proceedings of the Patent Office—The New Patent Laws—Examinations—Extensions—Infringements, etc etc., send for INSTRUCTION BOOK, which will be mailed free, on application. All business strictly confidential.
