LOCAL ITEMS

The Rumor that an eruptive disease has made its appearance at the College is entirely without foundation, one of the students having a threatened attack of Pneumonia.

Constable Appointed.—The Commissioners last Tuesday filled the vacancy existing in this district, by the appointment of Mr. S. L. Rawleigh, of this town.

Protracted Meetings have been going on every night this week at both the Methodist Churches in [illegible]n. So far, we learn, no special interest has been awakened. They will continue next week.

U. S. Senator.—The Legislature commenced balloting on Tuesday for a United States Senator. Senator Vickers received 23 votes on Tuesday, and 23 the last ballot on Wednesday. We have no further result up to the time of going to press.

Mr. John H. Burchinal, we learn, has been appointed Railroad and Express Agent for the Chestertown station. Our citizens will now not only enjoy the convenience of an Express Agency and office in the town, but their transactions will be with a polite gentleman, who has had experience in the express business.

Maryland Agricultural College.—We take pleasure in inviting attention to this valuable institution, and are glad to learn that it is now in a high state of prosperity, under the able management of its learned President, REV. SAMUEL REGESTER. The Spring Term will commence on February 1st; and there is a limited number of "State Scholarships," which may be secured by an immediate application. See advertisement in regard thereto.

Improvement at the Steamboat wharf.—The Chester River Steamboat Company are having a neat freight and passenger room erected on their wharf at Chestertown. The building will be divided into separate apartments, and will afford a long-needed convenience for the storing of freight and the accommodation of passengers. This Company has become established on our river, and seems determined to accommodate the traveling public.

The Sabbath School Exhibition at St. James', Worton, took place Thursday evening of last week, and was a success, so much so that the managers have been requested to repeat it, which request will be complied with, as will be seen by advertisement. The Church was tastefully and handsomely decorated with evergreens, and a stage with rising and falling curtain, footlights, &c., was erected. We are indebted to a friend for a long account of the performance, which seems to have been exceedingly creditable to the indefatigable SAM. VANNORT, under whose management the Exhibition was conducted but we are obliged to condense. A full house will doubtless be the reward of the repetition.

Personal.—We noticed in a late number of Savannah (Georgia) Daily Advertiser, a very complimentary notice of our fair, young townswoman, MISS ROSA DOWLING, who is at present residing in that distant city, in charge of a department of one of its leading millinery houses. We give the extract, feeling confidant that its perusal will be very gratifying to her many friends and acquaintances here:

"Miss Rosa Dowling, late of Baltimore, Md., is an artiste in her profession, who has but few equals and no superiors on this continent. Her taste is, indeed, exquisite, as all our fair friends admit who have examined her more than beautiful workmanship."

I. O. O. F.—The following officers were installed for the present term, in Kent Lodge I. O. O. F., No. 47, located at Galena:

John B. Webb, N. G.: George W. Sutton, V. G.:-Henry Parr, Secretary: G. W. Jacoby, Treasurer: Geo. W. Walls, R. S. to N. G.: C. H. J. Sparks, L. S. to N. G.: Wm. Rogers, R. S. to V. G.: Edward Peacock, L. S. to V. G.: A. Chrisfield, O. G.: J. C. Hurtt, I. G.: B. F. J. Sparks, R. S. S.: S. W. Boyer, L. S. S.: George M Beasten, Marshal: Henry Parr Representative to the Grand Lodge of Maryland: Jos. P. Ireland, Thos. H. Horsey, Henry Parr, Trustees.

After the close of the installation exercises the officers and members were sumptuously regaled with cake and wine by the newly-elected N. G. and V. G.

Amicable Lodge, No. 117, I. O. O. F., of Chestertown, has installed, for the present term, the following officers;

E F. Perkins, N. G.: Howard Jefferson, V. G.: E. C. Reiche, Secretary: H. O. Payne, Treasurer: R. B. Russell and A. J. Fiddis, S. to N. G.: John W. Carroll and Sir Walter Rawleigh, S. to V. G.: A. L. Usilton, O. G.: George Biddle, I. G.: John McKenzie, W.: Dr. W. T. Urie, C.: W. T. Sutton and Geo. H. Bennett, S. S. E. C. Reiche, Representative to the Grand Lodge of Maryland.

Thomas Wildey Encampment, No. 27, I. O. O. F., of Chestertown, has installed, for the present term, the following officers:

John H. Willis, C. P.; S. E. Sullivan, H. P.; A. J. Fiddis, S.; John McKenzie, J. W.; J. M. Vandyke, T.; J. W. Carroll and Jacob Ball, R. & L. G. to T.; E. F. Perkins, G.; R. B. Russell, 1st W., S. L. Rawleigh, 2nd W., J. M. Vandyke, 3d W., E. C. Reiche, 4th W.; A. L. Usilton, S.

Another Railroad.—We learn that the surveyors of the New York and Baltimore Railroad this week commenced running a line from Clayton station, on the Delaware road to Massey's in this county. This road crosses the State of New Jersey to the shore of the Delaware Bay, opposite Bombay Hook, to which point it is now running. The bay will be crossed by powerful steam ferry boats, conveying the loaded cars, thus making the connection without the trouble and expense of loading and unloading. The distance to Clayton station from the Delaware bay, is we are told, about eight mile, and the road between the two points is in course of construction. To growers of peaches, particularly, the new route to New York must be very advantageous. It will not only render them independent of the present route, but reduce the freight charges, it is thought, fully one half.

Workingmen's Library.—This Association seems to be in a flourishing condition, and constantly progressing. The Managers take an interest in its affairs, and its shelves are now supplying abundant reading matter for its increasing number of stockholders and subscribers.

Any of our citizens who have books to dispose of would do well to donate them to the Library in the way of stock.

The following officers have been elected for 1872:

J. K. Aldridge, President: Prof. J. T. Carr, Vice President: M. deK. Smith, Secretary: Colin F. Stam, Treasurer: T. W. Eliason, Col. Edw. Wilkins, C. Tylden Westcott, Directors.

The following reports are published by authority of the Secretary:

PUBLIC LEDGER ALMANAC.—We are indebted to Geo. W. Childs, Esq., for a copy of the Ledger Almanac for 1872. It is handsomely printed, with an illustrated title page and a splendid view of the Ledger building, and containing a mass of valuable and useful information for the public generally, and Philadelphians particularly. This Almanac is not sold, but is a present from Mr. Childs to all subscribers to the Ledger, and it takes an edition of 95,000 to supply Mr. Childs' friends. The liberality of Mr. Childs in presenting each of his many thousand subscribers with a New Year's present, evinces a public spirit, will secure the retention of the esteem of the public, and continued prosperity.

We should be pleased to receive the LEDGER in exchange:
