LOCAL ITEMS

Scarce.—We have found it an exceedingly difficult matter, this week, to get hold of anything of a local character to publish. In fact, it has always been very hard to find sufficient material to fill out even one column under the local head. Our community is a singularly blessed one in regard to accidents to either person or property. By exchanges in adjoining counties, almost every week, we see it recorded that this man met with a serious accident, another suffered the loss of his dwelling or out-buildings by fire, and still another was by depredations of thieves, and so on, running up quite a lengthy "chapter of accidents." Providentially, by good management,—or both combined—our citizens are mercifully spared these afflictions, for which we are truly thankful, and are content with a scant local column, which, uninteresting though it be, records none of the calamities to which we have referred as almost weekly occurrences elsewhere.

Navigation, as far as Chestertown is concerned, is again closed, the ice in the river being so hard as to prevent the "Law" from getting any farther up the river than Rolph's on her Thursday trip. The Captain thought it best after landing the passengers and freight, to return at once to Baltimore. As soon as the weather moderates sufficiently the boat will resume her trips.

Ice.—The present cold spell, we presume, will be availed of by our citizens to secure a supply of ice. We believe none has yet been housed, and it would be wise on the part of those having houses to go to work at once; particularly in view of the fact that the winter is now so far advanced that another opportunity may not be afforded.

Pleasant Affair.—At the Hall occupied by Kent Division, Sons of Temperance, of this town, last Saturday evening, a very pleasant entertainment was given, which was partaken of by the members and a number of invited guests. The ladies trimmed the room beautifully for the occasion, exhibiting their skill and taste in a manner which called forth many complimentary remarks. The Division, we learn, is not making much progress, which is much to be regretted.

The Protrated Meetings have been in progress this week at both the Methodist Churches in this town, but no special interest has yet been awakened.

The New Building Association project, (as will be seen by advertisement in our columns to-day,) is about to assume a tangible form. The Constitution, we learn, will be ready for adoption Thursday evening, after which the Association will be ready, in a few days, to commence operations.

The Good Templars.—We have heard it intimated recently that an effort will be made by some of the old members of Resolute Lodge, to revive the order here, either by a renewal of the old or application for a new charter. We hope the design may be put into execution.

Orphans' Court.—Present, James Beck, of George, Cornelius J. Scott, and William T. Hepbron.

The Court passed a number of claims against the estates of deceased parties.

James H. Baker, admr of Harriet Gordon, (colored) returned an inventory of personal estate, and obtained an order for the sale thereof.

Hyland P. Smith, admr. of George W. Thomas, returned a list of sales of effects of deceased.

William N. E. Wickes, admr. of Simon Wickes, returned his first administration account, which was passed, and ordered to be recorded.

Henry Urie, admr. D. B. N. of Wm. Parker, returned an additional account and second dividend, which was passed and ordered to be recorded.

Edwin Smith, executor of the last will and testament of John P. Smith, returned his first administration account, which was passed and ordered to be recorded.

County Commissioners.—Present, Messrs. Roseberry and Wilson.

No business of any importance was transacted.

Samuel L. Rawleigh and W. K. Ayres, recently appointed Constables, filed their bonds, which were approved.

We subjoin the following Reports, which were omitted at the proper time:

W. V. Lucas, collector of tax for the third district, reports that he has collected the full amount of tax for 1870, $12,000, and paid out the same. From the Levy of 1871, for the quarter ending December 31, he has collected the sum of $3,208.12.

C. W. Warren, collector of the second district, reports collections of the State tax, $1,317.93: paid, $526.31: balance $791.62. County tax collected $4,942.55: paid $3,243.46: balance, $1,[illegible].
