Vendue.—On Wednesday next, at his farm near Kennedyville, Mr. P. F. Rasin will sell at public sale his large farm stock, embracing seven head of horses and ten head of cattle. See advertisement.

Episcopal Services.—The Bishop of the Diocese proposes to officiate on next Sunday, the 11th inst., at St. Paul's Church 10:30 A. M., and at I. U. Church 3:30 P. M.

The Northern Convocation of the Diocese of Easton has been in session in Chestertown during the week. Bishop Lay has preached at morning and evening service on each of the three days of its session to well filled seats.

Small Pox.—We learn that there are a number of cases of this disease in Quaker Neck; also, that the disease is spreading somewhat in Still Pond.

Persons who have not been vaccinated should delay no longer, and every precautionary measure should be taken to prevent its introduction in our town.

Fixed.—We congratulate our citizens, who are obliged to walk at night, on the boarding up, at last, of the open cellar-way below Mr. Bacchus' corner, in the tenement house of Mr. H. W. Earnest.

Narrow Escape.—Monday last two colored men attempted to cross Chester river on the ice, starting from the foot of Fish street. When near the channel the ice gave way and they both went in. One of them succeeded in climbing to the firm ice, but the other was with great difficulty rescued through the extions of Emory Staten, a colored hostler in the emply of Dr. Meetter, who deserves commendation for saving the life of a fellow being while others of his race looked on with apparent indifference.

Robert J. Brent, a prominent member of the Baltimore Bar, died from typhoid fever on Sunday last, in the sixty-first year of his age. Mr. Brent was at one time Attorney General of the State.

Death of a Magistrate.—Jas. Graves, Esq., for a number of years past a Justice of the Peace, died at his residence in this place last Sunday morning. Mr. Graves was, in his youth and mature age, one of the most powerful men, physically, in this section; but for some years his health and strength failed rapidly. He had reached his 68th year.

"Fairlee's" letter is received, and the smoothness with which it reads, indicates a degree of intelligence in its author that ought to have suggested to him the propriety of furnishing his name when he attacks a corporation. If "Fairlee" wishes to ventilate any public matter our columns are open to him, when he furnishes his name, with the understanding that it is to be given if the necessity arrives.

Entertaiment.—At the close of proceedings in Thomas Wildey Encampment, No. 27, I. O. O. F., last Wednesday night, an invitation was extended to the membership to partake of a supper prepared and then awaiting them, at the residence of E. C. Reische, P. C. P. It is needless to say that there was no disposition displayed to "back out," on the part of any, and soon the entire party were seated at the table, where ample justice was done the "turkey and fixins" and other good things, provided in great abundance, and nicely served up. During the evening, in response to calls, several appropriate impromptu little speeches were made, and every thing passed off very pleasantly.

Surprise Visit.—Monday evening last some fifteen sleigh loads of the members of St. James' Meth. Protestant Church drove up to the residence of the Rev. Mr. Cushing, their pastor, in Chestertown, bringing with them a bountiful supply of delicacies and substantials for the inner man. Dr. Vannort stated to the minister the object of their visit and their continued desire for the promotion of his happiness and comfort. Mr. Cushing replied in a short speech, acknowledging his appreciation of their kindness and remembrance of his temporal comfort, and said that nothing which they could bring would be more acceptable than themselves. After an agreeable chat the party left.

The short notice of the surprise lessened the number of guests considerably.

The Bridge over Chester River.—The citizens of Queen Anne's are agitating the question of a free bridge for the citizens of Kent and Queen Anne's counties, at Chestertown. Some years since the Legislature authorized the people of the two counties, by their County Commissioners, to rent the bridge for the citizens of their counties, at the annual sum of six hundred dollars each. The Bridge Company at the time were anxious to make the arrangement, and Kent county, by her Commissioners, agreed—but the arrangement failed in the Queen Anne's board. Wednesday last a number of the citizens of Queen Anne's county met in Chestertown and addressed a communication to the Directors of the Bridge Company with a view to re-opening the matter. We do not know whether the Company are still favorable to the arrangement. We believe it could still be made so far as Kent is concerned, and we learn that the opposition which once previled in the other county has ceased to exist.

Orphans' Court.—Present, Judges Beck, Scott, and Hepbron.

The Court passed a number of claims against the estates of deceased parties.

Benjamin M. Hazell, admr. of Benjamin Hazell, returned a list of sales of the personal estate of said deceased, which was passed and ordered to be recorded.

Wm. H. H. Lusby, admr. of Thos. Lusby, returned a list of sales of the personal estate of said deceased; received, and ordered to be recorded.

James H. Baker, admr. of Harriet Gordon, (colored) returned a list of sales of the personal estate of deceased, which was received and ordered to be recorded.

Lydia A. and A. L. Gooding, admrs. of Wm. Gooding, deceased, returned their first administration account, which was passed and ordered to be recorded.

Levinus C. Graves, admr. of Wm. Graves, returned his third administration account—passed and ordered to be recorded.

Elias Deputy, guardian to John L. Deputy and Nora Deputy, returned his guardian accounts for the year 1871, which were passed and ordered to be recorded.

The last will and testament of John W. Hadaway, late of Kent county, was admitted to probate and ordered to be recorded. Letters testamentary were granted to Ann Hadaway, the executrix, who entered into a bond with Henry C. Hadaway and Jos. B. Hadaway as sureties in the penalty of five thousand dollars, and the usual notice to creditors ordered.

Letters testamentary on the personal estate of John Lusby, late of Kent county, deceased, were granted to Robert J. Lusby, one of the executors, Sarah E. Lusby, the executrix, having renounced her claim; who entered into a bond with William Welch and Josiah Lusby as sureties, in the penalty of seven thousand dollars. Robert Nicholson and Benjamin F. Beck were appointed to appraise the said personal estate, and the usual notice to creditors ordered.

On application, letters of administration on the personal estate of Catharine A. Crawford, late of Kent county, deceased, were granted to H. V. B. Crawford, who entered into a bond with Benjamin M. Hazell and James R. Jones as sureties, in the penalty of one thousand dollars, and the usual notice to creditors ordered.

SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN
For 1872.

TWENTY-SEVENTH YEAR.

THIS splendid weekly, greatly enlarged and improved, is one of the most useful and interesting journals ever published. Every number is beautifully printed on fine paper, and elegantly illustrated with original engravings, representing New Inventions; novelties in Mechanics, Manufactures, Chemistry, Photography, Architecture, Engineering, Science and Art.

Farmers, Mechanics, Inventors, Engineers, Chemists, Manufacturers, and people of all professions or trades will find the

of great value and interest.

Its practical suggestions will save hundreds of dollars to every Household, Workshop and Factory in the land, besides affording a continual source of valuable instruction. The Editors are assisted by many of the ablest American and European writers, and having access to all the leading Scientific and Mechanical Journals of the world, the columns of the Scientific American are constantly enriched with the choicest information.

An official list of all the Patents issued is published weekly.

The yearly numbers of the Scientific American make two splendid volumes of nearly one thousand pages, equivalent in size to four thousand ordinary book pages.

SPECIMEN COPIES SENT FREE.

TERMS.—$3 a year; $1.50 half year; Clubs often copies for one year, $25.00 each, $25.00, with a Splendid Premium to the person who forms the Club, consisting of a copy of the celebrated Steel-Plate Engraving, "Men of Progress."

In connection with the publication of the Scientific American, the undersigned conduct the most extensive Agency in the world for procuring PATENTS.

The best way to obtain an answer to the question—Can I obtain a Patent? is to write to MUNN & CO., 37 PARK ROW, New York, who have had over Twenty-five Years' Experience in the business. No charge is made for opinion and advice. A pen-and-ink sketch, or full written description of the invention, should be sent.

For instructions concerning American and European Patents—Caveats—Re-issues—Interferences—Rejected Cases—Hints on Selling Patents—Rules and Proceedings of the Patent Office—The New Patent Laws—Examinations—Extensions—Infringements, etc etc., send for INSTRUCTION BOOK, which will be mailed free, on application. All business strictly confidential.
