State Senator Spencer.—Mr. Spencer, we learn, fell from his carriage one day last week, while leaning out to look after his own carriage which was in the rear, and broke several of his ribs.

The 22d. Washington's birthday, passed in our town without any public recognition, except the closing of the bank and public offices.

The Railroad.—The cars came down from Worton to the terminus of the road at Chestown on Monday night last, with Senator Vickers the President, and Mr. Jackson the contractor, and have been running since, reaching here between half-past one and two o'clock. We learn that the turn-table and engine-house are being removed from Kennedyville, and that trains will now run regularly to our town, the road having been accepted by the Board of Directors.

We also learn that a recent survey has been made from Belair to Rees' Wharf, and the probabilities are, that the road will be completed to the Bay.

The Court passed a number of claims against the estates of deceased parties.

James A. Roseberry and William Hepbron returned the report of the appraised value of the real estate of Deborah Turner, late of Kent county, dec'd., which was received and ordered to be recorded.

On application, letters of administration on the personal estate of Robert Ruth, late of Kent county, deceased, were granted to John T. Smyth, (the parties entitled having first renounced,) who gave bond with Anna Smith and T. D. Ruth as sureties, in the penalty of one thousand dollars, which was approved, and ordered to be recorded; and the usual notice to creditors ordered.

On application, ordered that the Register of Wills issue citation to James A. Burgess and Jeremiah Nicols, admrs. of Thomas D. Burgess, to settle the estate of said deceased.

On application, ordered that the indentures of apprenticeship binding Samuel Wesley Comegys (colored) to James Beck of George, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

On application of Robert J. Lusby, executor of John Lusby, and acting guardian for the minor children, Benj. F. Beck and W. W. Stephens were appointed to appraise the rental value of the real estate of deceased.

On application, ordered that citation issue for Thomas Blanchfield and wife, to answer in the matter of binding out their minor children.

County Commissioners.—Present, Messrs. Roseberry and Wilson.

John H. Greenwood, recently appointed Constable for the fourth district, presented his bond, which was approved.

John F. Melvin was appointed keeper of Morgan's Creek Bridge.

Senator Vickers.—The Democrat and News, of last Saturday, published at Cambridge, Maryland, contains the following editorial complimentary notice of Senator Vickers:

Hon. George Vickers' Senatorial term closes with the present Congress; and we suppose with it his political career. His life has been one of usefulness, if not very eventful. His reputation for virtue, honor and love of justice has long been second to no one in Maryland. Associated with many corrupt Congressmen, only so far as duty compelled him to be, his integrity has always been above suspicion. Chosen under unfavorable circumstances, after the Senate had rejected Hon. Philip F. Thomas, it was not to be expected that the latter gentleman's friends should very heartily support the accepted Senator. But soon the people of the Eastern Shore began to feel how providential the events contrary to many of their wishes had proven to be. Hon. George Vickers' conservative political course gave him an influence in the U. S. Senate that Hon. Philip F. Thomas could never have wielded, even if he had been a hundred times more talented than Mr. V. And here is a most excellent lesson for the people of the Eastern Shore of Maryland. Let us in future send such men to Congress whose conservative course in the past will enable them to use an influence for the future good of their constituents. It may be all very well, to the liking of some people, to send a representative to Congress who can fiercely denounce the radical party for their wrongs committed during the recent war, but we (who are looking forward to the development of wealth and industry in this section of our State, and are anxious to obtain aid and appropriations from Congress to accomplish this laudable purpose.) had rather see a man whose conservative course had won an influence there that could secure us these appropriations when needed. But we are wandering from our subject. We said that even the warm adherents of Mr. Thomas soon saw how providential the selection of Mr. Vickers proved to be. Pressing demands for various measures, deemed beneficial for this Congressional district, as well as appropriations prayed for by the various counties, somehow or other always found their way to the hands of Mr. Vickers either before or after others had failed to secure the success sought, and by his perseverance and energy, aided by the influence won by his past conservative course, he succeeded in every instance in securing both the laws and the appropriations desired. And as Mr. Vickers' term is drawing to a close, and will and in March, 1873, we can truly say, with all the people of this shore, "well done, good and faithful servant;" for the measures he has succeeded in getting through both houses of Congress are worth more to the Eastern Shore than all the good achieved by the other Senators who have preceded him.

M. P. Conference.—The forty-second session of the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church will commence in Washington on the 13th of March, Rev. D. E. Reese, D. D., president. There are on the roll 81 stationed and 55 unstationed preachers. The present membership may be stated at 13,600, besides 350 colored members in Charleston, S. C., 190 Sabbath schools, 1,860 teachers, and nearly 11,000 scholars. They have 190 churches and 34 parsonages, at an aggregate value of $678,400. The conference year has been highly prosperous.

John T. Dodd is the delegate and J. K. Aldridge alternate, from Kent Circuit.

Wilmington Methodist Episcopal Conference.

The fourth annual meeting of the Wilmington (Del.) Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church commenced its sessions in the town of Laurel, Sussex county, Del., Wednesday, 21st inst., and will continue each day (Sunday excepted) until all the business of the Conference is transacted. The Conference includes the area lying South of Pennsylvania, and having the Delaware bay and Atlantic ocean for its eastern boundary, and the Chesapeake bay for its western boundary. It includes the whole of Delaware, the Eastern Shore of Maryland and two counties of Virginia, on the extreme Southern end of the Peninsula The Conference is subdivided into four districts, each under the control of a Presiding Elder. The Wilmington District, of which Rev. John D. Curtis is Presiding Elder, embraces all of Cecil county, Maryland, lying north of Elk river, and all of New Castle county, Delaware, north of Appoquinimink creek. The Dover district, of which Rev. T. J. Thompson is Presiding Elder, embraces nearly all of Delaware south of Appoquinimink creek. The Easton district, of which Rev. J. B. Quigg is Presiding Elder, embraces all the territory on the Eastern Shore of Maryland between Elk river on the north and Nanticoke river on the south, except portions of Marydel, Galesburg and Federalsburg circuits, which are in the Dover district. The Snow Hill district, of which Rev. J. L. Taft is presiding elder, comprising the territory on the Eastern Shore of Maryland and the two counties of Virginia, all lying south of the Nanticoke river, and the southern line of Delaware.

For the first time in the history of Methodism, lay delegates are admitted to participate in the proceedings of the Conference, so far as the election of delegates to the general conference is concerned. This new feature brings 71 new delegates into the annual Conference. The number of accredited delegates to the convention will be about 250.—Wilmington (Del.) Commercial.

THE

EUREKA

FANNING MILL.

The Greatest Invention

OF THE 19th CENTURY!

FARMERS, LOOK TO YOUR INTEREST.

THE attention of Farmers and Mechanics is particularly directed to the combined economy, utility and practicability of the Eureka Mill, and to the many other advantages it possesses over every other Fanning Mill which has been introduced to the public. It is the fruit of long and patient investigation by the inventor, who has made it his constant study for over twenty years. He has secured several patents for Mills, and has always been rewarded with the best of success. But not feeling satisfied with his former attainments, he determined to reach the climax, and he now believes that his new invention will warrant him in exclaiming in the joy of his heart, like the philosopher, Phythagoras, EUREKA, signifying in the Grecian language, "I have found it." This has given the name to this new Mill.

In this Mill are all the former improvements, to which have been added several more, adding still greater advantages than were at first anticipated, or even thought possible by the inventor himself. It embraces the three great essentials necessary in every invention.

It combines Utility, Economy and Practicability!

THE EUREKA MILL

Is small and lightly, and is capable of doing more and better work in a given time than any other Mill ever invented. It is the only Mill that will successfully remove from wheat such pests as Cockle, Garlic, Oats, Rye, &c.

Should an extra quality of grain for seed or gristing purposes be required, it can be so arranged as to catch in one box perfect grain, and in the other, grain fit for market or mill. Here is made a great saving usually lost sight of; for nearly one-quarter of the grain cleaned in the common Mills is lost when sown, on account of shrunken kernels and inferior grain. The Eureka Mill saves all this, and gives seed every kernel of which will grow when put into the ground, and this saving will, in a short time, pay for the Mill.

HINES & BURCHINAL,

Chestertown, Md.,

Owners of the Mill, are having them manufactured at the Sash Factory and Planing Mill of NOLAND & Co., Port Deposit, Md., which is a guarantee they will be put up in the very best manner.
