George Smith
Robert Handy

On the back of the foregoing Will were these written Vizt

I concede that Clause of this Will wrote (as for the Remainder of my Estate after my Just debts be paid I leave to be equally divided amongst my Children to them and for their only Proper use) may seem to exclude me from my third Part of the Estate which if it does I dissent from that Clause of the Will and Claim my third Part of the Estate which I know was the design of my loving Husband the Testator

June the 4th 1746 came George Smith and Robert Handy two of the Subscribing Witnesses to the within Will and made Oath on the Holy Evangels of Almighty God that they Saw Levin Disharoon the Testator Sign, Seal, and heard him Publish Pronounce and declare this to be his last Will and Testament and that at the time of his so doing he was to the best of their Apprehension of a sound disposing mind and memory and that they subscribed their Names respectively in the Presence of the Testator and at his Request and that they Saw Benjamin Handy the other Subscribing witness to the within Will, sign his name to the said Will in the Presence of the Testator and at his Request
