LOCAL ITEMS

KENT COUNTY COURT.—The April Term of the Circuit Court for Kent county, commences on Monday next. The indications are that the session will be a short one.

RELIGIOUS.—Rev. Mr. Roberts, of Chestertown, will preach in Still Pond X Roads, at 7½ o'clock, on Friday evening the 19th of April.

P. T. BARNUM's great traveling Museum, Menagerie, Hippodrome, and International Zoological Garden will exhibit in Wilmington, Del., April 30th—in Baltimore May 1st, 2d, 3d, 4th and 5th. Every one should see this exhibition.

ATTENTION, BAILIFFS.—Near the Queen street pump the pavement has caved by the giving away of an under-drain, making an exceedingly dangerous place for pedestrians at night. The Bailiffs should report this matter to the town authorities at once.

BASE BALL.—As soon as Spring suns draw the frost out of the hands of the idle boys and half-grown men who loaf about our streets, the nuisance of throwing base balls about our thoroughfares—to the terror of ladies and small children—commences. The persistence with which this nuisance is repeated every year, in defiance of the ordinance against it, is remarkable. Will our town Bailiffs look after the bats and balls, and banish them beyond the town limits?

County Commissioners.—Present, Messrs. Roseberry, Griffith, and Wilson.

William A. Thomas, collector of tax for the fourth district, reported for the quarter ending March 31, 1872:

County tax collected,	$1,845.86
Paid levies and orders,	1,694.08
Balance in hand,	$251.78
State tax collected and paid treas.,	$369.85

Ordered, that one hundred dollars be levied in the hands of the Town Commissioners, to be applied by them for the relief of families now suffering with small pox in Chestertown.

Ordered, that the old board of Trustees of the Alms House, viz: Samuel A. Merritt, William A. Vickers and William W. Stephens, be and they are hereby re-appointed.

Ordered, that five hundred dollars be levied, 1872, to finish the public road in the first district, known as the Geo. M. Moffitt road.

After making some transfers the Court adjourned.

Orphans' Court.—Tuesday, April 9th. Present, Judges Beck, Scott, and Hepbron.

The Court passed a number of claims against the estates of deceased parties.

Samuel Burgess, admr. of Sarah A. Burgess, returned a list of sales of the personal property of deceased: ordered to be recorded.

The release of Mary E. M. Gamble and Mary L. Gamble to Ann C. Gamble, their late guardian, was received and ordered to be recorded.

Benjamin F. Beck and William W. Stephens returned their report of the annual rental value of the real estate of the minor children of John Lusby, deceased.

On application, letters of administration D. B. N. C. T. A., on the personal estate of Jacob Caulk, late of Kent county, deceased, were granted to Benjamin H. F. Caulk, who gave bond with Alexander Wilson and Robert S. Griffith as sureties, and Richard A. Frazier and Thomas A. Jacobs were appointed to appraise said estate; and the usual notice to creditors ordered.

On application, letters of administration on the personal estate of Samuel W. Canady, dec'd., were granted to Richard Hynson, (the parties entitled having first renounced,) who gave bond with William Welch, William B. Wilmer and George B. Westcott as sureties, in the sum of sixty thousand dollars; and Wm. N. E. Wickes and T. W. Eliason were appointed to appraise said estate, and the usual notice to creditors ordered.

Mary A. Staats, trustee under the will of Julia W. Caulk, late of Kent county, executed her bond for the faithful performance of said trust, with B. F. H. Caulk and Alexander Willson as sureties: approved, and ordered to be recorded.

On application, ordered that Thomas Rasin, executor of the last will and testament of James H. Gale, be allowed a deduction in State collateral tax. Also, returned his first and final administration account.

General Conference of the M. E. Church.

The Brooklyn Academy of Music has been hired for four weeks, commencing May 6th, for the use of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, which assembles on that date. The time will be extended, if desired, and if the academy is used at night $200 per night additional is to be paid. There are expected to be present fully four hundred and fifty delegates, who will come hither from all portions of the United States. Delegates from representative bodies of Methodism in Germany, England, France and Canada, and from other bodies throughout the world, will also be present. The Brooklyn Eagle says: "This body—the General Conference—is composed of delegates from the annual conferences of the church, about two hundred and fifty, according to the ratio of ministers in the conference. The body is the supreme court of the church. It is the highest legislative and executive body of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States. It elects and ordains the bishops, it appoints the missionary agents, the book room agents, the editors of all the magazines and papers in connection with the denomination. It finally and inevitably decides all disputes of any and every description in the church. From its decisions there is no appeal whatever. It can make or unmake everything in connection with the organization save the "articles of the church." Lay representation will be introduced at this conference for the first time in the history of the church, and will constitute one of the greatest features of the occasion. It is also expected that the affair of the 'book concern' in New York, which has been so prominently before the people for so long a time, will come before the body for final action, and this, together with the other features already recounted, will conspire to render the convention the greatest and most intensely interesting ever held."

Terrible Severity.

A Russian communist was tried at St. Petersburg on the 28th ult. for publishing proclamations with the object of overthrowing the Government. The accused, an artisan in an oilcloth manufactory, named Gortcheroff, printed his proclamations on a handpress which he had procured for the purpose. Each proclamation was entitled "Wiselnitza" (the gallows), and signed "A Communist;" and ninety copies of it were printed, though only about a dozen were clearly legible. The first contained a warm eulogy of the Parisian Commune, and expressed a conviction that the 'strong-willed Russian youth, panting for freedom, would follow its example, by suppressing the Government and making all men equal.' The second proclamation stigmatized M Katkoff, the well-known editor of the Moscow Gazette, as a traitor to his country, and called upon the people to begin the revolution by hanging him; and the third and fourth urged "all honest men" to rise "against the robbers" who surround them, and to assist "unhappy Paris in renewing her revolution." The poor man was not shut up in a lunatic asylum, as he probably would have been in any other country, but he was banished to Siberia for life, and "deprived of all his rights as a citizen."
