SANITARY MEASURES.—Two cases of small pox having occurred in our town during the past two weeks, has turned the serious attention of the corporate authorities to the adoption of means to prevent its spread; and they have invited the earnest co-operation of the citizens. Without power to levy a tax for this purpose they have appealed to our citizens for voluntary contributions, their means being limited. It is proposed to procure a suitable house, at some distance from the corporate limits, to remove such cases as may hereafter arise among the indigent colored people. We hope these efforts of the Commissioners will be heartily seconded. Warm weather is approaching, when this dread disease generally abates; and there is no need, with prudence, that there should be any additional cases in our midst.

We observe that in all our large cities and towns the authorities are giving special attention to the cleansing of premises. We think it would be well if the Commissioners would make a thorough inspection of the town before growing vegetation covers up much filth which will not be discovered at a later day. The annual inspection is generally deferred to the latter part of June, when the suns have already become hot. A little extra precaution at this time may save untold trouble hereafter.

DISAPPEARANCE.—We are informed that several weeks since Mr. Louis F. Newsome, residing in Still Pond, left his home to go into the Kent Forest near Massey's X Roads, and has not since been heard from. There is no apparent reason for his continued absence, and his friends begin to fear some foul play.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mr. James D. Gooding, formerly of this county, residing a few miles from town (says the Centreville Observer of Tuesday) was stricken on Wednesday night with apoplexy and paralysis, and died on Friday afternoon. The deceased was a good citizen, and much esteemed by those who knew him.

CORONER'S INQUEST.—On Saturday last Mr. Daniel W. Dewees held an inquest, at Barnard's Wharf, over the body of Isaac B. Hazel, found floating in Chesapeake Bay, off the mouth of Sassafras River, by Alexander Bostic. On his person was found $49.21, a watch and chain, memorandum book, &c. A verdict of accidental drowning was rendered.

Orphans' Court.—Tuesday, April 23d. Present, Judges Beck, Scott, and Hepbron.

The Court passed a number of claims against the estates of deceased parties.

Samuel Burgess, admr. C. T. A. of Lambert Wickes, returned a list of sales of the personal estate of said dec'd.: received, and ordered for record.

Henrietta E. Howard, executrix of Jos. J Howard, returned a list of sales of the personal estate of dec'd.: received, and ordered for record.

The release of Mary A. Masten to George W. Crossley, admr. C. T. A. of Henry Masten, was received and ordered to be recorded.

James A. Burgess and Jeremiah Nicols, admrs. of Thomas D. Burgess, were directed to give notice of a dividend on Tuesday, May 21st, 1872

Richard Hynson, admr. of Samuel W. Canady, returned an inventory of the personal estate of dec'd.: ordered to be recorded. He also obtained an order for the sale thereof.

Letters of administration on the personal estate of John B. Voshell, dec'd., were granted to Owen Connelly, with Morgan Brown and A. B. Wheatley as sureties. I. C. Taylor and S. C. Brannock were appointed to appraise the personal estate of dec'd., and the usual notice to creditors ordered.

Hanson Crew, on application, was appointed new administrator of the personal estate of Martin L. Newsome, with J. W. Howard and James S. Harris as sureties; and the usual notice to creditors ordered.

Isaac Holly, guardian to Louis M., Isaac E., and Eugene Holly (colored) returned guardian accounts for the year 1871: passed and ordered to be recorded.

County Commissioners.—Present, Messrs. Roseberry, Griffith, and Wilson.

The bond of C. W. Warren was received and approved.

The Annual Report of the Trustees of the Alms House was also received and approved.

A number of transfers and abatements were made, and accounts filed for levy.

COURT.—The following cases have been disposed of since last week's report was published:

State vs. Charles Moore, presented for an assault with a knife upon Charles Granger. Not guilty.

State vs. Garrett M. Hart, presented for taking illegal fees as a Justice of the Peace. Not guilty.

State vs. Eliza Johnson, indicted for stealing money from Ann R. Hemsley. Guilty, and sentenced to the penitentiary for three years from April 22, 1872

State vs. Edw. Mathers, presented for resisting the Bailiff of Chestertown. Fined $1 and costs and to be confined in Jail for one month from April 22, 1872.

State vs. Robert Gentry, under recognizance to appear to a charge of resisting an officer in the discharge of his duty. Recognizance forfeited.

State vs. John W. Hall and John Armstrong, presented for keeping a gaming table and allowing gambling. Verdict not guilty.

☞ The chair in which John Adams was sitting when he signed the declaration of Independence will be sent from the city of New York to Cincinnati, to be occupied by the presiding officer of the Liberal Convention.

STRAWBERRIES.—Mr. Slater, of Alexandria, Va., sold in Washington, a few days ago some strawberries, raised in his own garden, at the rate of $7 per quart. Alexandria (Va.) Gazette.

The Liberal Republican Movement.

The parties who a few weeks since inaugurated the Liberal Republican movement at a meeting at Barnum's City Hotel, Baltimore, design holding another meeting at the same place at noon tomorrow. It is expected that a number of leading Republicans of the State will be present, and that some definite movement will be made in order to have the new party in the State of Maryland fully represented in the Cincinnati Convention. Among the leaders in the movement are ex-Governor Bradford, and ex-Postmasters Shriver and Maddox. The party is represented as daily gaining strength, and it is not improbable that a State Convention may be called to name delegates to Cincinnati.—Balto. Sun, of Tuesday.

A CURIOUS TROPHY.—The Smithsonian Institute has just received a curiosity of great novelty and value for the national museum. It is a battle trophy of a race of natives living near the head waters of the Amazon river, and is the head of a captive condensed by some unknown process to a size not more than three inches in diameter, the original proportions of the features being preserved. It looks like the head of some pigmy. These trophies are esteemed highly by the natives, and they are difficult to obtain. Only one other is known to have been brought to this country. This one was a present to the Institute by Raymond de Feiger, of Ecuador, through E. Rumsey Wing, our Minister at Quito.

☞ At Barton, Lincolnshire, England, a dinner was given the other day to twenty of the old men who worked on the parish roads, and a local journal supplied a report of the proceedings. When the health of "The Ladies of Barton" was proposed the old fellows exhibited a shocking want of gallantry by taking no notice of the toast. The vice chairman, when requested to respond to it, said he "should do now't of the sort, as he wasn't over and above fond on 'em." Thomas Potts and William Hewson likewise successively declined to do honor to the fair sex. At length the youngest of them, a mere boy, only 69, acknowledged the toast.

FELONS.—A felon is easily known by a sharp pain near the bone. Fill a pint tin cup one-fourth full of woodashes, then fill the cup up with warm water and place it in the stove. Hold the finger or the affected part in the cup until the pain is removed. The contents of the cup must be kept as hot as the hand can bear. If the pain returns repeat the process. In the more advanced stages a poultice made of slippery elm, flaxseed, or even bread and milk, is good; but the best thing to draw a felon to a head is to apply a slave made of the yolk of an egg thickened with wheat flour. —Germantown Telegraph.

☞ Of the two colored cadets at West Point, Smith, the original bone of contention, stands tenth in his class, while young Napier, for whom a better feeling has been entertained of late, stands at the foot of a class of sixty-six members. His friends fear that he may be pronounced deficient at the coming examination in June.

The Thorough-bred Stallion,
LEGATEE,

Is now making the Season in this county, and it is desirable that he shall not travel much, and as his list is well nigh filled, (having a limited number of mares,) those who wish to breed to him had better communicate at once with Mr. A. L. Vannort, Post Master at Hanesville, who will notify his owner of the same.

Governor Bowie says this horse has no equal in the country, and is breeding his choicest stock to him.

The Turf, Field and Farm, in speaking of LEGATEE, long before he was thought of traveling here, states that "he is the finest bred horse in America, and should make a superior stallion."

LEGATEE has won a number of races, among the rest, the "Restoration Stakes," at Long Branch, purse $5,000, easily beating several celebrated and frequent winners upon other occasions. See handbills.
