Orphans' Court.—Tuesday, May 21st. Present, Judges Beck and Hepbron.

The Court passed a number of claims against the estates of deceased parties.

The legatees under the will of the late Mrs. Elizabeth C. Wickes, abtained an order authorizing her executor either to sell or remove the personal effects of said deceased.

William Stevens was appointed new guardian to Christopher Strong, who gave bond with B. B. Adkinson and David Jones as sureties.

C. H. Baker, admr. of James H. Parsons, returned a list of sales of personal estate of deceased: received, and ordered to be recorded.

B. B. Adkinson, executor of W. T. Adkinson, late guardian to Adolphus Strong, returned a guardian account for the year 1871, which was passed and ordered to be recorded.

A. L. Vannort, admr. of Jos. Walraven, Jr., returned his first and final administration account, which was passed and ordered to be recorded.

County Commissioners.—Tuesday, the 21st of May. Present, Messrs. Griffith, Roseberry and Wilson.

A large number of transfers and abatements were made and bills filed for levy. The supervisors of the public roads were appointed.

A Town Hall.—A Hall, large enough and fitted up for public purposes, such as Lectures, Concerts and Exhibitions, is desideratum in every town. The inconvenience of having no such room is greatly felt in our community. The room over the Market House, which is sometimes used, but poorly supplies the want in this particular. Besides, it is fitted with no conveniences, such as seats, stage, lamps. Resort is often had to the Court Room. This should not be, but necessity compels it; and it, too, is but poorly adopted to such purposes.

There is a way out of the difficulty, and the remedy is not very dear. The room over the Market House is nothing but an expense and trouble to the county; it does not pay the current expenses of keeping it in repair. Let the county donate it to a Stock Company to be raised, who will add ten or fifteen feet to it, fit it up in a proper manner, and build an additional story. Or let the county put a moderate valuation on it, as unprofitable, and subscribe it in the way of stock. With ten or fifteen feet added to the rear of this building and the front entrance taken out, it would make a Hall admirably adapted for all purposes of a public character; and the rent could be placed within the reach of all who might wish to use it. And the basement of the addition would make an admirable room for our Town Commissioners. The third story might be profitably rented out to one or more of the several beneficial societies in the town.

We believe this scheme is practicable, and would not cost over three or four thousand dollars. We suggest the effort to raise a Stock Company for the purpose, placing the shares at ten or twenty dollars, so that all might subscribe; and, if requested by any considerable number, will publish a call of those interested.

Explanation.—In referring, in last week's paper, to the recent Confirmation in the Protestant Episcopal Church in our town, we said that "wax candles appeared for the first time on the altar."

The announcement, simple as it was, has given rise to some comment, and it has been suggested that we refer to the matter again. Now we desire to state in the first place that the Transcript is a purely secular paper and takes no part, directly or indirectly, in the denominational controversies of the day. The fact was stated in the same manner we should do, as if one of the Judges of our Court were to appear in Court arrayed in the gown and wig, or a Minister of one of the Methodist denominations were to adopt the gown and surplice. Being the only candles in the body of the Church and placed on the table in the chancel, we confess to the inference that they were wax and symbolical of something, though we did not say so. The Rector, previous to his sermon last Sunday, said the candles were not wax but parafine, and were put there at his suggestion, simply for the purpose of giving light, the Bishop having complained when last here that there was a deficiency of that essential, and were symbolical of nothing. The Rector also said that the candles were not on the altar, but on the table, that they had no altar. On this point we were misled by Webster's Unabridged, which defines altar thus: "In Christian Churches, the communion table."

Curious Ring.—Some weeks since Mr. E. T. Willis, Watchmaker and Jeweler in Chestertown, purchased some old gold from a lady, who said it was found among the effects of her brother who died in the West, and was a soldier in the Federal army. One of the articles proved to be a curious and apparently antique ring of eighteen carat gold, weighing eight penny-weights. The ring is composed of four rings, curiously interlaced, forming, when on the finger, a large handsome ring, when taken off dropping into pieces. To put it together is equal to a Chinese puzzle, and taxed the ingenuity of many of our citizens for a long time. It was finally put up by Dr. Twilley, but Mr. Willis has since discovered the proper method of arranging it, which is so simple that one, who has puzzled his brain over it, is vexed to see it done.

Rev. Dr. Murray, for the last two weeks absent from home, has returned, and will preach in the Methodist Protestant Church to-morrow (Sunday) morning and evening, at the usual hours.

☞ An ill-natured, fussy man is like a tallow candle. He always splutters and smokes when he is put out.

Gen. George E. Pickett, of Virginia leader of the famous Confederate brigade which bore his name, is in favor of Greeley for President in preference to Grant.

The Amnesty Bill signed by the President.

Washington, May 22.

The President this afternoon signed the bill to remove the political disabilities imposed by the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.—This proves that no person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress or elector of President or Vice President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States or under any State, who having previously taken the oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States shall have been engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid and comfort to the enemies thereof.

Congress has, by the bill just passed, which obtained the requisite two thirds vote in each House, removed the disabilities from all persons whomsoever, except Senators and Representatives of the Thirty-Sixth and Thirty-seventh Congress, and officers in the judicial, military and naval service of the United States, heads of departments and Foreign Ministers of the United States.

The exceptions will, it is supposed, cover less than two hundred cases, including Jefferson Davis and John C. Breckinridge.

Judge Jere. Black has been interviewed at Washington on the political situation. He disapproves of Mr. Greeley as a candidate for democrats, "but (he says) I'll tell you what we are going to do. The platform put forth at Cincinnati is a broad, fair, democratic platform. There is nothing passive in that. Now, if the convention that meets at Baltimore finds in its wisdom that Greeley fits the platform, we will make the best fight for him we can. I have no question but when the canvass warms up, and men take sides as men are want to do, that the entire democratic party will be striving for the right."

THE EUREKA FANNING MILL.

The Greatest Invention OF THE 19th CENTURY!

FARMERS, LOOK TO YOUR INTEREST.

The attention of Farmers and Mechanics is particularly directed to the combined economy, utility and practicability of the Eureka Mill, and to the many other advantages it possesses over every other Fanning Mill which has been introduced to the public. It is the fruit of long and patient investigation by the inventor, who has made it his constant study for over twenty years. He has secured several patents for Mills, and has always been rewarded with the best of success. But not feeling satisfied with his former attainments, he determined to reach the climax, and he now believes that his new invention will warrant him in exclaiming in the joy of his heart, like the philosopher, Phythagoras, EUREKA, signifying in the Grecian language, "I have found it." This has given the name to this new Mill.

In this Mill are all the former improvements, to which have been added several more, adding still greater advantages than were at first anticipated, or even thought possible by the inventor himself. It embraces the three great essentials necessary in every invention.

It combines Utility, Economy and Practicability!

THE EUREKA MILL

Is small and lighter, and is capable of doing more and better work in a given time than any other Mill ever invented. It is the only Mill that will successfully remove from wheat such pests as Cockle, Garlic, Oats, Rye, &c.

Should an extra quality of grain for seed or gristing purposes be required, it can be so arranged as to catch in one box perfect grain, and in the other, grain fit for market or mill. Here is made a great saving usually lost sight of; for nearly one-quarter of the grain cleaned in the common Mills is lost when sown, on account of shrunken kernels and inferior grain. The Eureka Mill saves all this, and gives seed every kernel of which will grow when put into the ground, and this saving will, in a short time, pay for the Mill.

HINES & BURCHINAL,

Chestertown, Md.,

Owners of the Mill, are having them manufactured at the Sash Factory and Planing Mill of Noland & Co., Port Deposit, Md., which is a guarantee they will be put up in the very best manner.
