LOCAL ITEMS

SALE.—On Tuesday next at 2½ o'clock, at the Court House door, C. W. Ridgely, Att'y., will sell a valuable dwelling house in Chestertown. See advertisement.

ACCIDENT.—John Fowler, a bright little fellow of 14 years, a nephew of Mr. James Fowler residing on the "Kennard Farm," Worton, was thrown from his horse last Sunday afternoon while riding to Union Church. He was conveyed to the residence of his uncle, Mr. George Fowler, near the scene of the accident, when medical assistance was procured at once in the person of Dr. Vannort, who attended his case and pronounces him improving rapidly.

NATIONAL PROGRESS.—The Great American Institute announces its Forty-first Annual Exhibition, to be opened in the city of New York, on the fourth of September next. Applications for space to exhibit the best Agricultural Productions, Mechanical Inventions, Artistic devices, and valuable articles of American manufacture, are now in order. It is intended to make this the most extensive, useful and meritorious exhibitions ever held in America.

LITERARY ENTERTAINMENT.—Tuesday next, at the Methodist Protestant Church, in Chestertown, the Rev. Thos O. Crouse will give a reading of selections from some of the standard English and American authors. Admission 25 cts. Proceeds for Church purposes. Mr. Crouse has read in several of the Eastern Shore towns, and the comments of the press were very flattering.

The entertainment is something new in our midst, and will doubtless be patronized by the intellectual people of the town and vicinity.

FOURTH OF JULY EXCURSION.—Thomas Wildey Encampment, I. O. O. F., of Chestertown, have chartered the steamer LAW for an afternoon excursion on the fourth of July, down the river to the bay, and return at a seasonable hour, stopping only at the river landings. The boat will not go into Corsica, Queenstown, or Grey's Inn Creeks. There will be cotillion music on board for the benefit of those who enjoy dancing. Supper, ice-cream and refreshments will be supplied by an experienced caterer. This promises to be a pleasant excursion, and will be largely patronized by the members of the Order in this and the adjoining county. Those who do not desire to go down the river can make the up-river excursion. Tickets for the whole 50 cents.

BROKEN SKULL.—Saturday night, the 15th inst., a negro party was held at the house of Robert Touson, near Buck Neck, Worton. Towards morning his son Robert, a young man got into a spree with another negro named Jake Hopkins, who struck him with a stick, knocking him down insensible in the road and fracturing his skull just above the left eye. He remained in an insensible condition until 10 o'clock next morning, by Dr. E. A. Vannort, who cut down upon the fractured bone and elevated the depressed portion. He has since been in a very critical position, but will probably get well.

We understand riots often occur among the negroes thereabouts, and the good people of Worton will have to look after them. Whiskey is the supposed cause.

LAND SALES.—A large quantity of Kent county land was offered at public sale, on Wednesday last, and the tracts sold brought low prices:

"Huntingfield," a valuable farm of 410 acres, on Chesapeake Bay, sold for $35 per acre.

The Nicols Farm, of 457 acres, on Chester river and Langford's Bay, brought $20 per acre, subject to a lien of $2,700. Both purchased by Dr Thomas Brown, of Baltimore city.

The Carrow Farm, in the second election district, 325 acres, sold to John N. Usilton for $12,600.

The Camp Farm, 115 acres, was purchased by Bennett Willson for $2,400.

The Strong Farm, C. H. Baker, Trustee, was withdrawn at $33.40 per acre, and the Thomas Farm at $45.08 per acre.

The Spencer Farm was purchased by W. D. Burchinal for $14,000.

The Jarman Farm was sold at private sale by C. T. Westcott, Attorney, to Edward Woodall, for $7,000.

DIRT AND RUBBISH.—It does not appear to be generally understood that it is a violation of the ordinances to place manure, dirt or rubbish in the streets of the town, at least we judge so from the frequency of its occurrence; such, however, is the fact, and the present Board of Commissioners desire to enforce this ordinance equally with all others. Some persons make a habit of placing every sort of rubbish from their gardens, yards and cellars, in the streets. If those interested, in the immediate neighborhood, will second the efforts of the Commissioners by giving notice to the Bailiff, all such nuisances will be speedily abated. All dirty and offensive localities, and ill-kept pens should be reported to the town officer, whose duty it is, and who will cheerfully look after all such cases and have the nuisance removed or the party fined according to the law. By a proper co-operation on the part of the citizens of the town our streets can be brought into a condition much more pleasing to the eye, and conducive to health. The practice of sweeping the pavements and also the GUTTER, in front of each one's premises, would render the drainage of the town less difficult. The practice of keeping piles of goods boxes on the pavements is in violation of the law of the town.

A Stubborn Party.

[From the St. Louis Republican.]

Democracy is a stubborn animal. It is sometimes right, sometimes wrong, and always unmanageable. The more you try to make it do a certain thing, the more it won't do it. The Democracy used to be addicted to the habit of going for Democratic candidates: in this particular fight, however, it persists in not going for a Democratic candidate. It is just as hard-headed and determined in this business as it ever was in its old habits. Ten, five, three, two years ago, Horace Greeley was the last man the Democracy thought it would ever go for—and it may be added that the Democracy was the last party that Mr. Greeley thought would ever go for him. Yet the Democracy is now for Greeley, and against everybody else. The Adams men, the straight Democratic ticket people and the Grant men have found out, at last, that it does mean Greeley, and they have concluded to let it have its own way. The fight at Baltimore is already virtually ended.

☞ State Conventions of the Democratic and Liberal Republican parties of Illinois met on the 26th inst., and nominated a joint State ticket. Of the nominees the Governor, Secretary of State and Attorney General are Liberal Republicans; the Lieut. Governor, Auditor and Treasurer, also the Clerks of the Supreme Court are Democrats.

A committee from the democratic convention was appointed to invite the liberal republican convention to join them, and soon reported that the liberal convention were on the way to the hall.

Immediately after Governor Palmer, President of the Liberal Convention, appeared arm-in-arm with Governor Koerner, and admidst the wildest enthusiasm on the part of the delegates and spectators, advanced to the platform, where he was met by Governor Allen, President of the Democratic Convention.

Governor Palmer then announced that the Liberal Republican Convention had heartily endorsed the nominations reported by the joint conference committee, and gladly joined hands with the Democracy in their support.

Governor Allen said that he desired to meet the advnces of the Chairman of the Liberal Republican Convention in the spirit in which they were made, and, like Paul, forgetting things that are behind, strike hands with him in the common cause.

As the chairman of the two Conventions advanced and clasped hands another scene of wild excitement ensued, the delegates cheering frantically for several minutes

Governor Koener then, in a brief speech, returned thanks for the honor conferred upon him, and pledged his best efforts for the success of the ticket, and the cause it represented.

Political Notes.

Col. Hendrick B. Wright, democratic candidate for Congressman at large from Pennsylvania, expresses the opinion that in the great coal-mining county of Luzerne, where he resides, one-third of the republicans are for Greeley, and that fully one-half will be for him in case he is nominated at Baltimore.

Declaring its belief that Greeley and Grant are to be the only candidates, the Troy Press reluctantly gives up its preference for a straight ticket at Baltimore, confessing that it is useless to deny the fact that seven-eights of the democratic party are in favor of endorsing the Cincinnati ticket.

The Hon. H. H. Hoeg, mayor of Jacksonville, Florida, writes that "Florida's white vote and some of the colored is for Greeley and Brown."

THE BALLOT IN ENGLAND.—The bill providing for voting by ballot in England, which has been before Parliament for a long time, has at length passed its third reading in the House of Lords. It is amended, however, and amendments to such a measure by English Peers are very likely to mar its first value in the eyes of the people. But the entertainment of a ballot bill in any shape by the aristocrats is in itself a solid evidence of political reform in Great Britain, and as such the vote of the Peers on Tuesday night may be accepted.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

James Myer & Co., and John McCauley, vs. John B. Kilpatrick, and others.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County. In Equity. Petition, &c.

THE object of this Petition is to procure a Decree directing the application of the proceeds of the Real Estate of John Kilpatrick, deceased, sold by Richard Hynson, Trustee, to the payment of the debts of the said John Kilpatrick.

The Petition states that heretofore a certain John Kilpatrick, late of Kent county, deceased, was in his life time seized and possessed of certain Real Estate in said county, called the "Trulock Farm, containing two hundred and eighty acres of land, more or less, and being so thereof seized and possessed, some time in the year 1868, departed this life intestate, leaving John B. Kilpatrick and Mary J. Kilpatrick, of the city of Philadelphia and State of Pennsylvania, and Catharine Long, formerly Catharine Kilpatrick, and Margaret Kilpatrick, of the same city and State, his only children and heirs-at-law.

The Petition further states that on the 15th day of July, 1868, the said John B. and Mary J. Kilpatrick filed their Bill of Complaint in the Equity side of the Circuit Court for Kent county, against the said James Long, Catharine Long, and Margaret Kilpatrick, praying for the sale of said Real Estate, and for the division of the proceeds thereof among the parties entitled upon which Bill of Complaint, after due process of law, the said Court, on the 28th day of April, 1870, passed a Decree for the sale of said Real Estate, and appointed Richard Hynson, Trustee, who, on the 9th day of February, 1872, reported that he did, on the 20th day of June, 1871, sell said Real Estate to Andrew Woodall and John Z. Clark, for the sum of four thousand, five hundred, and forty-seven dollars and five cents, payable in four equal instalments of six, twelve, eighteen, and twenty-four months from the day of sale.

The Petition further charges that John Kilpatrick was, at the time of his death, indebted to James Myer & Co., in the sum of one hundred and fourteen dollars and twenty cents, with interest from April 14, 1868, upon a promissory note dated April 17th, 1867, and for the sum of two hundred and four dollars, payable to James Myer & Co., sixty days after date, on which was endorsed a credit, April 14, 1858, of $100.00. The Bill further charges that the said John Kilpatrick was in his lifetime indebted to John McCauley, in the sum of two hundred and sixteen dollars and twenty cents, with interest thereon from July 8, 1868, upon an open account.

The Bill further states that Letters of Administration upon the Personal Estate of said John Kilpatrick, were granted by the Orphans' Court of Kent County, to John B. Kilpatrick, who has since duly and fully administered the same.

The Bill further charges that the said Personal Estate was insufficient to pay all debts due and owing by said intestate, and that upon a full administration thereof, James Myer & Co. received a dividend of $17.66, which has been duly credited upon the note aforesaid, and still leaves a balance of $117.09, with interest from April 14, 1871. And John McCauley received a dividend of thirty-two dollars and ninety-six cents, which has been duly credited, and still leaves a balance of $208.08, with interest from April 14, 1871.

It is thereupon, this 10th day of June, 1872, ordered that the complainants, by causing a copy of this Order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Kent county, once in each of three successive weeks, prior to the 15th day of July next, give notice to said absent defendants of the object and substance of this petition, and warn them to appear in this Court, in person or by solicitor, on or before the 10th day of October next, to answer the premises and show cause, if any they have, why a Decree ought not to pass as prayed.

TO THE

Peach Growers OF THE PENINSULA.

YOU can now have your Peach Trees budded to order, in such varieties as you desire. I am prepared, by a new method of cultivation, to bud to order, during the month of June, Peach Trees for next Fall and Spring planting. The superior location of my Nursery enables me, by this new mode, to furnish trees of good size and with better roots than those from any other Nursery.

In addition to the varieties that are cultivated by the nurserymen, I imported from Mr. Rivers, the great Orchardist, near London, three new varieties—Early Beatrice, Early Louise, and Early Rivers. These Peaches have all been fruited in my orchard, and ripen in the order in which they are named, beginning about the 20th of June. They are hardy, and bear transportation as well as Troth's Early. Last season I shipped a few crates to New York, and will have this year a very considerable quantity; quite enough to demonstrate their value to the Peach Growers of this Peninsula, whose patronage I respectfully solicit, as I feel assured that my trees will give entire satisfaction.

COL. EDWARD WILKINS, of Riverside, Kent Co., Md., has planted this season 5000 trees from my Nursery, and I confidently refer to him as to the quality of my trees.

PEACH BASKETS.

PEACH Growers and Shippers are respectfully informed that we are now manufacturing the justly celebrated "Mitchell Patent Peach Basket." This Basket is constructed on a principle which prevents the fruit from settling or crushing, and is positively endorsed and recommended by all the leading Commission Houses in New York and Philadelphia as the best Basket in use. Our Baskets are made of the choicest material, and none but the best experienced workmen will be employed in their construction; and we desire to call special attention to the fact that we are using in the basket this season a malleable nail, manufactured expressly for our use, and which adds materially to its firmness, strength and durability.

Having purchased the newest and most improved basket machinery, we are prepared to sell the best basket in the market, at a price that will defy competition. Our facilities are such that we can make 5000 baskets daily, all of which will be thoroughly inspected before leaving the factory. Orders may be sent to
