Sworn before me Wm Seighman Dep. Regr James Henderson Heir at Law said to be beyond Sea of Talbot County

I Jacob Hendman of the County of Talbot and Province of Maryland. having made and executed a will of this date. which I do hereby ratify and Confirm. think it Proper to Subjoin this Codicil to it and to make the following alteration and additions Imprimis Whereas I have Directed my Executors in Case my Sons James Williams and Jacob Hendersons Hendmans decline the devise on the terms Mentioned in my Will to make an Offer of my Dwelling Plantation being two Tracts of Land the one called Harrington, the other Hickham, with the appurtenances to Edward Lloyd Esq. for and in Consideration of the Sum of Sixteen Hundred pounds Sterling Sterling money of Great Brittain, to which Sum I had Limitted them from a full Persuasion that the Lands were Truly worth so much. Now upon more mature Deliberation, I judge (it)

better to remove and to take off that Limitation, and to give full Power and authority to my Executors to make such offer to the said Edward Lloyd. or in case of his refusal to otherwise to dispose of the said Lands as their own Judgment and Prudence may direct them And it is my will that in case the Lands should be sold all my Just and Lawful Debts due as well to the said Edward — Lloyd as to any others. be paid out of the money arising on the sale thereof. and that one Hundred pounds sterling money of Great Brittain be paid out of the money that may remain after paying my aforesd Debts. to my Son James — Hendman, and the Residue to be equally devided — among my other Children. viz. William Jacob Henderson Edward John Mary Elizabeth and Sarah Hendmans —

2dly I give and Bequeath to my Son James Hendman the Twelve Walnut Chairs in the Hall being two Elbow and Ten plain Chairs also I give to my Son James one Good Bed and Furniture —

3dly I give and Bequeath to my Son Jacob Henderson — Hendman three young Cows and Calves in lieu and in full Satisfaction of a Cow and Calf given him by his
