Miscellaneous.

Fate of Marriageable Young Women

To those who are bent on matrimony, but have not found a suitable partner, we offer urgent advice. Let them pack up all their property and start immediately for the mountainous districts to the extreme East of Hungary. They will find that at this season of the year a fair is held of marriageable young men and women. From all quarters, long trains of chariots wind their way to the plain of Kalinosa. They are laden with household furniture, and followed by the cattle of the family. In the midst of these goods may be seen the young lady whom her father has brought to seek a husband at the fair. She is dressed in her best, with brilliant silk scarf and scarlet petticoat. These caravans take up their position one after the other on one side of the plain, while on the other side a cavalcade of young men approaches and deploys along the whole line. The men Young Wallachians, for the most part—are dressed in their best goatskins and make what show of horsemanship they can. After both parties are opposite each other, the father steps forward and begin to negotiate marriages for their children.—The questions asked on these occasions are, we fear, of a somewhat morbid character.—"How many bullocks?" "How much money?" "Your daughter's furniture looks rather old; that chest of drawers does not shut properly. I must find something better than that for my son." Such would doubtless, be a correct report of the conversation held in this primitive if not poetical Arcadia previous to clinching the matrimonial bargain. The business is, however carried out with a promptitude equal to its frankness. As soon as the parents are agreed a priest, who is always ready at hand, is summoned. He chants a hymn, and gives his benediction, the bride then kisses her parents, mounts the chariot, and starts for some unknown village with a husband she has never seen before, the furniture and cattle which her parents have allowed her as a marriage portion follows in the rear.—Thus every year many unions are contracted by this primitive people, and there is we must confess, a plain honesty and absence of sham in this style of proceeding. One is apt to compare it with the deceptions and artifices employed in civilized society, by those who pretending to love, only seek to marry fortunes.—Pall Mall Budget.

All Hands Below.

A good story is told of a parrot who had always lived on board a ship, but who escaped at one of the southern ports, and took refuge in a church. Soon afterwards the congregation assembled, and the minister began preaching to them in his earnest fashion, saying there was no virtue in them, that every one of them would go to hell, unless they speedily repented. Just as he spoke the sentence, up spoke the parrot from his hiding place:

"All hands below!"

To say that "all hands" were startled, would be a mild way of putting it. The peculiar voice, and its unknown source, had much more effect on them than the parson's voice ever had. He waited a moment, and then, a shade or two paler, he repeated the warning.

"All hands below!" again rang out from somewhere.

The preacher started from his pulpit, and looked anxiously around, inquiring if anybody had spoken.

"All hands below!" was the only reply, at which the entire panic-stricken congregation got up, and a moment after they all bolted for the doors, the preacher trying his best to be first, and during the time the mischievous bird kept up his yelling.

"All hands below!"

There was one old woman there who was lame, and could not get out as fast as the rest, and in a very short time she was left entirely alone. Just as she was about to hobble out, the parrot flew down, and alighting on her shoulder, again yelled in her ear:

"All hands below!"

"No, no, Mister Devil," shrieked the old woman, "you can't mean me. I don't belong here. I go to the other church across the way!"

The Green Countryman.

Years ago, into a wholesale grocery in Boston, walked a tall musular-looking rawboned man, evidently a fresh comer from some back town in Maine or New Hampshire.—Accosting the first person he met, who appeared to be the merchant himself, he asked:

"You don't want to hire a man in your store, do you?"

"Well," said the merchant, "I don't know what can you do?"

"Do!" said the man, "I rather guess I can turn my hand to almost anything.—What do you want done?"

"Well if I was to hire a man it would be one that could lift well, a strong, wiry fellow—one for instance that could shoulder a sack of coffee, like that yonder, and carry it across the store and never lay it down."

"There now, captin," said our countryman, 'that's just me. What will you give a man that can suit you?"

"I tell you," said the merchant, "if you will shoulder that sack of coffee and carry it across the store twice, and never lay it down, I will hire you for a year at $100 per month."

"Done," said the stranger; and by this time every clerk in the store had gathered around, and were waiting to join in the laugh against the man, who walking to the sack, threw it across his shoulder with perfect ease, as it was not extremely heavy, and walking with it twice across the store, went quietly to a large hook which was fastened in the wall, and hanging his sack upon it turned to the merchant and said:

"There, now, it may hang there till doomsday; I shan't never lay it down. What shall I go about, Mister? Just give me a plenty to do, and $100 a month and its all right."

The clerks broke out in a laugh, but it was out of the other side of their mouths; and the merchant, discomfitted, yet satisfied kept to his agreement, and to-day the green-countryman is the senior partner in the firm, and worth a half million dollars.

The Gleam of a Supposed Pistol.

The scene of this item is laid in San Francisco, on Washington street, near Leavenworth. The hour was late—past midnight. A gentleman was wending his way homeward, thoughtfully calculating how much was left of the money he collected during the day. "Fifty cents for cigars; theater and extras, treats counted in, four dollars; new hat ten dollars; fourteen dollars and fifty cents—yes, fifty cents for those extra car tickets. That just makes fifteen dollars. Eighty dollars collected—yes here are two twenties and a five in this pocket—here's a roll of half dollars in the other—that's just right—sixty-five dollars. I'll just give——"

"Sixty-five dollars. Well, sir hand over the cash, sir, and don't be long about it."

The capitalist was startled from his reverie by these words uttered in a sort of growling and determined manner by the midnight stranger. It was like a night mare. He trembled from head to foot—stood stock stil and looked with terror at the robber.

"Come, now, hurry up! Fork over the cash! No fooling! Now you can't leave here till you pass in the check."

This second appeal to his pocket and his life, awoke the victim to a consciousness of his dreadful situation.

Ah-h, lemme go! I—you—what do you want?" he murmured, while trying to pass on. One hand was clutching the dear twenties and the five; the other was fast to the roll of silver.

"Come, now! out with your pocket.—Come down with your cash!"

It was evidently a case of life and death. Cash would appease the villain. A lucky thought: "Yes, that's it. I'll give him the roll of silver and he won't think I've got any more."

Then to the robber with excited tones:—"The right arm was suddenly drawn from the pocket, and the roll of silver was extended toward the robber, while the unfortunate man shrunk into an attitude of holy terror and hope only.

The roll was pointed at the robber's breast—the poor fellow who was yielding his earnings looked desperate in the dim light. One look and that was enough,

"Oh! Don't shoot! Don't shoot! I don't want your money." The brave road agent was skedaddling down the street and was soon round the corner before the gentleman could realize the altered position that affairs had taken. With the muzzle of that ominous roll or silver extended before him, he safely reached his home, and has since concluded that his presence of mind was wonderful, and that it was a bright idea to frighten of his assailant by good strategy.

VINEGAR BITTERS

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

Vinegar Bitters are not a vile Fancy Drink, Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and A LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing, also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and of all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE, and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed.

Ayer's

Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Among the great discoveries of modern science, few are of more real value to mankind than the effectual remedy for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. A vast trial of its virtues, throughout this and other countries, has shown that it does surely and effectually control them. The testimony of our best citizens, of all classes, establishes the fact, that CHERRY PECTORAL will and does relieve and cure the afflicting disorders of the Throat and Lungs beyond any other medicine. The most dangerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs yield to its power; and cases of Consumption, cured by this preparation, are publicly known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed, were they not proven beyond dispute. As a remedy it is adequate, on which the public may rely for full protection. By curing Coughs, the forerunners of more serious disease, it saves unnumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attack of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Tender lungs need this defence; and it is unwise to be without it. As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of Childhood, CHERRY PECTORAL is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on them. It acts speedily and surely against ordinary colds, securing sound and health-restoring sleep. No one will suffer troublesome Influenza and painful Bronchitis, when they know how easily they can be cured.

Originally the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, no cost or toil is spared in making every bottle in the utmost possible perfection. It may be confidently relied upon as possessing all the virtues it has ever exhibited, and capable of producing cures as memorable as the greatest it has ever effected.

Ayer's

Hair Vigor,

For restoring to Gray Hair its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. It soon restores faded or gray hair to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, fallen hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed; but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning grey or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. The restoration of vitality it gives to the scalp arrests and prevents the formation of dandruff, which is often so uncleanly and offensive. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre, and a grateful perfume.

FANNING MILL.

The Greatest Invention

OF THE 19th CENTURY!

FARMERS, LOOK TO YOUR INTEREST.

THE attention of Farmers and Mechanics is particularly directed to the combined economy, utility and practicability of the Eureka Mill, and to the many other advantages it possesses over every other Fanning Mill which has been introduced to the public. It is the fruit of long and patient investigation by the inventor, who has made it his constant study for over twenty years. He has secured several patents for Mills, and has always been rewarded with the best of success. But not feeling satisfied with his former attainments, he determined to reach the climax, and he now believes that his new invention will warrant him in exclaiming in the joy of his heart, like the philosopher, Phythagoras, EUREKA, signifying in the Grecian language, "I have found it." This has given the name to this new Mill.

In this Mill are all the former improvements, to which have been added several more, adding still greater advantages than were at first anticipated, or even thought possible by the inventor himself. It embraces the three great essentials necessary in every invention.

It combines Utility, Economy and Practicability!

THE EUREKA MILL

Is small and lighter, and is capable of doing more and better work in a given time than any other Mill ever invented. It is the only Mill that will successfully remove from wheat such pests as Cockle, Garlic, Oats, Rye, &c.

Should an extra quality of grain for seed or gristing purposes be required, it can be so arranged as to catch in one box perfect grain, and in the other, grain fit for market or mill. Here is made a great saving usually lost sight of; for nearly one-quarter of the grain cleaned in the common Mills is lost when sown, on account of shrunken kernels and inferior grain. The Eureka Mill saves all this, and gives seed every kernel of which will grow when put into the ground, and this saving will, in a short time, pay for the Mill.

HINES & BURCHINAL,

Chestertown, Md.,

Owners of the Mill, are having them manufactured at the Sash Factory and Planing Mill of NOLAND & Co., Port Deposit, Md., which is a guarantee they will be put up in the very best manner.

PEACH BASKETS.

PEACH Growers and Shippers are respectfully informed that we are now manufacturing the justly celebrated "Mitchell Patent Peach Basket." This Basket is constructed on a principle which prevents the fruit from settling or crushing, and is positively endorsed and recommended by all the leading Commission Houses in New York and Philadelphia as the best Basket in use. Our Baskets are made of the choicest material, and none but the best experienced workmen will be employed in their construction; and we desire to call special attention to the fact that we are using in the basket this season a malleable nail, manufactured expressly for our use, and which adds materially to its firmness, strength and durability.

Having purchased the newest and most improved basket machinery, we are prepared to sell the best basket in the market, at a price that will defy competition. Our facilities are such that we can make 5000 baskets daily, all of which will be thoroughly inspected before leaving the factory. Orders may be sent to
