Orphans' Court.—Tuesday, September 3. Present, Judges Beck and Scott.

The Court passed a number of claims against the estates of deceased parties.

Richard H Corballey and Stephen Boyer returned their report of the annual rental value of the real estate of George H., Joseph W., and Anna B. Hazell, minors, in the hands of Benjamin M. Hazell, their acting guardian: received, and ordered to be recorded.

On application of the parties, the indentures of Rachel A. Coleman, an indentured apprentice to John A. Schwatka, were ordered to be cancelled.

On application of A. W. Sparks and the mother of the apprentice, ordered that the indentures of Alice Clark, (colored) an indentured apprentice to A. W. Sparks, be and the same is hereby cancelled.

George Vickers, administrator C. T. A. of John L. Deputy, late of New Castle county, Del., deceased, returned his second and final administration account: passed, and ordered to be recorded.

TRIAL BEFORE THE ORPHANS' COURT.—A trial of an unusual character for our county is now in progress before our Orphans' Court. Some time during last Spring, Samuel W. Canady, long a resident of this town, died intestate leaving a considerable personal and some real estate, and leaving no direct heirs, only sister's children, who claim his estate. Recently a Mrs. Sarah E. Warner, of Baltimore city, by her counsel, Henry Stockbridge, Esq., has petitioned the Orphans' Court to distribute to her one third of the personal estate of said deceased, claiming to be the surviving representative of one William Yardley Pearce, the reputed half brother of the said Samuel W. Canady. The evidence on the part of the petitioner shows that some seventy-odd years ago, the mother of the said Samuel W. Canady was living at or near Belair, in this county, when upon the death of her husband, Samuel Canady, she married a Mr. Pearce. That Pearce soon after died, leaving as the reputed issue of this marriage, William Y. Pearce, the father of the petitioner, and the half-brother, by the mother's side, of Samuel W. Canady.

These facts substantially have been testified to by Major Richard Smyth, an old gentleman of eighty-one years, whose recollection seems clear, and who was a school boy with Samuel W. Canady at or near Belair.

The petition is resisted by Senator Vickers and C. T. Westcott in behalf of the representatives of the sisters of Samuel W. Canady, on the ground, we are informed, that William Y. Pearce was the son of the Mr. Pearce, who intermarried with the widow Canady, by a former marriage, and was brought to Mrs. Canady's house by his father at the time of his marriage.

There seems to be little doubt but that William Y. Pearce, was in this town, where he formerly lived, recognized as the half-brother of the said Samuel W. Canady.

Should the petitioner, Mrs. Warner, establish the relationship of her father to the deceased, she will be entitled to one third part of Samuel W. Canady's personal estate.

KENT COUNTY AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—The First Annual Fair and Exhibition of the Worton, Kent County, Agricultural Club will be held near Hanesville, on Tuesday and Wednesday, the first and second days of October.

Starting from a small beginning the progress of the Association has been onward until now it has assumed a county influence, and feels strong enough to undertake a Fair and Exhibition which promises to compare with the best county exhibitions in any part of the country. The lists of premiums offered, though not of very large value separately, are comprehensive, and include all the classes of premiums offered at our State exhibition. The accommodations for stock and the various articles brought for exhibition will be carefully looked after by the committee of arrangements, who are practical farmers, and gentlemen well acquainted with the duties of their position. The site for the Fair can be easily reached by the Buck Neck or Worton Creek steamers, and the Kent Co. Railroad.

The Hawkins Park Trotting Association will hold a Horse Fair adjoining the Fair Grounds, on the same days. The list of premiums will be found in our columns. The trials of speed and the exhibition of fine horses will be a most interesting and attractive feature of the Fair and add largely to the number of visitors. It is to be regretted that the difference among members as to the propriety of the trials of speed should have culminated in a newspaper controversy. The exhibition of trotters will take place, and these newspaper debates will only tend to impair the usefulness of the organization.

It is to be hoped that every section of our county will be represented in the Fair, and so contribute to its success that each succeeding year may see its sphere of usefulness extended.

Mr. Editor—Tuesday last we rode from Chestertown through Queen Anne's county to Centreville, the shire-town. From your town to Church Hill the country is pretty and open, reminding one of our own old Kent. Beyond that to Centreville the road is dreary enough, and the spirits are not enlivened by the town. We entered by the back street to avoid the reported crowds which impede the front streets on the public day, and wheeling cautiously into the grand plazza found it nearly deserted. There was a deadness and dreariness which was fitly typified by the black burnt walls and chimneys of the old hotel. The town had literally gone to dinner, and feeling somewhat that way inclined we looked for old friend Chambers' hotel and found his guests already at table. Among them was Judge Carmichael, the Democratic nominee of the recent Congressional convention, who in the course of conversation expressed his determination to decline the honors. Friend Chambers' dinner was very good, though he apologized for the unexpected crowd of five, and we recommend his board to low spirited travelers.

After dinner, business took us to the "Citizen" office, where we surprised the editor in the midst of a Republican caucus or County Convention. Of course we beat a hasty retreat, but deem it no breach of hospitality to say that we noticed a lack of representatives from the "man and brother" portion of his party. In fact, from a single glance, we should say it was a most aristocratic gathering, representing the office holding part of the Republican party. There does not appear to be the same familiar relations between the white and black Radicals in Centreville that there is in your town. The influential and representative men of the party in Kent, both in Church and State, are colored men; but the white Radicals of Chestertown, as elsewhere, manage to possess the offices.

From the "Citizen" office we went to the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court. A more agreeable and ready public officer we have never met, and old Queen Anne's will do well to retain his services. The stranger is always sure of attention and information.

After the lapse of some time a thick-set man commenced ringing a bell and calling upon the good people of the town to come out of their beds, or wherever else they were hidden, and give heed. After much ringing the town was assembled in the public square. Lawyers, doctors, merchants, clerks, magistrates, constables, and four or five strangers. The occasion we soon learned was a public sale of a house in the town limits, formerly the property of Phil. B. Hopper, Esq., which the bell-man aforesaid, in the most stereotyped, humdrum, nonsensical style called, for nearly an hour, when the property was withdrawn at a price far above what it will ever reach again, according to the way real estate (as I was informed) sells in Centreville. During the auction, two adopted citizens, who had been taking too much water in their whiskey, broke the monotony by engaging in a fisticuff. The eloquence of the bell-man was eclipsed by the fight, and the sale for a time suspended. The crowd was, however, well represented by magistrates and constables, the combatants immediately arraigned before one of the dignitaries of the law, and the offender punished, after which the bell-man proceeded.

Major Harry Gilmore, of Confederate fame, who is on a visit to some friends, was pointed out to us in the crowd.

To invalids seeking quiet and repose of mind and body we would recommend the shire-town of Queen Anne's county.

KENT.

Publication of the Lists of Registered Voters.

Attorney Gen. A. K. Syester, whose business it is to interpret the laws of our State when they are not properly understood, has decided that Officers of Registration must have their lists of qualified voters published immediately after their last sitting, and in compliance with this decision the Officers of Registration in Baltimore city will publish their lists.—Officers of Registration in the other counties of the State will be obliged to do likewise, under this opinion, the law and their oath of Office.

"Persons not heretofore registerd who possess the requisite consititutional qualifications, and all those who have arrived at the age of twenty one since last election, and those who will attain that age before the 5th of November next, and all who were previously registered, and changed their residence, all who have been naturalized and whose papers have matured, must be properly registered, or they will lose their votes at the November Election."

Teachers' Salaries.

THE following scale of Salaries was adopted by the School Board at a regular meeting, and ordered to be published: the same to take effect on and after Monday, September 2d, 1872.

Where the School's average for a Term is 10 pupils or less, the Teacher shall receive the sum of	$95 00
More than 10, and not exceeding 15 scholars,	$100 00
More than 15 and not exceeding 30 scholars,	$110 00
For more than 30 scholars the Teacher shall receive	$115 00
In schools where an Assistant is employed the Principal shall not be paid more, per quarter, than	$110 00

For each and every day lost by the Teacher he shall be subject to a deduction of $3, except when the time is lost from sickness, when the deduction shall be in proportion to the salary paid for that quarter.

By order of the Board.

THE EUREKA
FANNING MILL.
The Greatest Invention
OF THE 19th CENTURY!

FARMERS, LOOK TO YOUR INTEREST.

THE attention of Farmers and Mechanics is particularly directed to the combined economy, utility and practicability of the Eureka Mill, and to the many other advantages it possesses over every other Fanning Mill which has been introduced to the public. It is the fruit of long and patient investigation by the inventor, who has made it his constant study for over twenty years. He has secured several patents for Mills, and has always been rewarded with the best of success. But not feeling satisfied with his former attainments, he determined to reach the climax, and he now believes that his new invention will warrant him in exclaiming in the joy of his heart, like the philosopher, Phythagoras, EUREKA, signifying in the Grecian language, "I have found it." This has given the name to this new Mill.

In this Mill are all the former improvements, to which have been added several more, adding still greater advantages than were at first anticipated, or even thought possible by the inventor himself. It embraces the three great essentials necessary in every invention.

It combines Utility, Economy and Practicability!

THE EUREKA MILL

Is small and lighter, and is capable of doing more and better work in a given time than any other Mill ever invented. It is the only Mill that will successfully remove from wheat such pests as Cockle, Garlic, Oats, Rye, &c.

Should an extra quality of grain for seed or gristing purposes be required, it can be so arranged as to catch in one box perfect grain, and in the other, grain fit for market or mill. Here is made a great saving usually lost sight of; for nearly one-quarter of the grain cleaned in the common Mills is lost when sown, on account of shrunken kernels and inferior grain. The Eureka Mill saves all this, and gives seed every kernel of which will grow when put into the ground, and this saving will, in a short time, pay for the Mill.

HINES & BURCHINAL,
Chestertown, Md.,

Owners of the Mill, are having them manufactured at the Sash Factory and Planing Mill of NOLAND & Co., Port Deposit, Md., which is a guarantee they will be put up in the very best manner.
