Selected Poetry.

LIVE AND LET LIVE.

A FARM BALLAD.

Well! Farmer Smith has lost his wheat, his sheds and mammoth barn;
His little boy, with one small match, burnt up the whole concern;
I tell you, wife, he'll feel it sore; a man on money bent
Can't stand up under such a load, when not insured a cent.

I don't know as I pity him; I call it a great sin
To hoard the harvest of three years in spacious barn and bin;
I can't feel pity for a man who double locks his door,
And stops his ears to all the cries that come up from the poor.

I like to see economy, I like to see men save,
And lay up something for their kin when they are in the grave:
But you and I know very well, from what we both have seen,
There is a line which, when 'tis crossed, a man gets to be mean.

When wheat was sixteen shillings—a price that paid us well—
Smith said, "I'll wait for twenty, I vow, before I'll sell;"
Then, when it reached the figure, he said to me one noon,
"I guess I'll hold it longer; 'twill be three dollars soon."

He held it, and he ran in debt for things to wear and eat;
When merchants dunned him, he would say "wait till I sell my wheat:"
Soon that old tune got fiddled out, and men began to sue,
And he began to borrow to pay accounts long due.

When Smith goes off to buy a thing, he spins around the town,
And tries with all his might and main the price to banter down;
When he has anything to sell 'tis priceless in his eyes,
And he must have the highest mark—the lowest when he buys.

"Live and let live," are golden words; this other motto too—
"Do unto others as you'd wish that they would do to you;"
If Smith had done as they command, he would not have, to-day,
The ashes of three harvests to load and cart away.

Wife! if you take a berry and dry it in the sun,
'Twill shrivel up till it takes two to make the size of one;
So may a man, in grasping gain, so shrivel up his soul,
That it will ne'er expand again, while life's years o'er him roll.

God bless the farmers of our land! They are not all like him,
Who walks around that smouldering pile now in the twilight dim;
Living on God's broad acres, their souls expand and grow.
Their ears are ever open to tales of want and woe.

God bless the men, where'er they be, in country or in town,
Who do not think it life's great work to crowd their neighbors down;
This world would be the better, this life would pleasure give,
If every man who toils to live would let his brother live.

Col. Fisk and the Newsboy.

Whatever were his foibles and faults, there were traits in Col. Fisk's character creditable in the highest degree to his head and heart. His unostentatious charities and generous sympathies, as illustrated by many kind acts to the unfortunate, are worthy of emulation. A little incident which occurred a few months before his death is perhaps one of the most touching that has ever been given to the public. This one Mrs. Fisk takes especial pleasure in recalling, illustrating, as it does, her husband's kindness of heart and readiness of sympathy and help to those who needed aid.

Col. Fisk had often noticed in Twenty-third street a little crippled newsboy, and one day he spoke to him in his bluff, off-hand manner:

"Well, my boy, how is business?"

"Not very good, sir," was the reply.

"What is the matter?"

"Why, you see, I'm lame, and I can't run, and the other boys get ahead of me, and I can't sell my papers very well."

"Not a very good look out for you, is it? I say, my boy, how would you like to go into business with me?"

The boy looked perplexed and eyed the Colonel curiously.

"I think we might strike up a bargain. You come to the opera house at 11 this morning; I've got a plan for you. Now be on time."

At 11 o'clock the boy was there, quite curious to know what the Col. wanted.

"Hallo, boy, you're a good one. Now see here, do you know a good place for a paper stand?"

"Yes, sir, tip top."

"Where is it?"

"Down here at the corner."

"How much will a stand cost?"

"Lots of money; much as fifty or a hundred dollars."

"You don't say so; why that's a fortune. Do you think that money can be made there?"

"Yes, I do. It's a first rate place."

"Well, I'll get a carpenter to make the stand, and I'll stock it; then you shall take care of it, and we'll be partners. You and I will go into the paper business."

Col. Fisk then arranged with the boy what part of the profit he should receive, and told him when the stand would be ready, and sent him on his way rejoicing. The plan was very successful. Trade was good, and every week the boy carried his share of the money to his partner. Seeing the boy's determination, Col. Fisk quietly put aside the money, and one day gave it to the boy, releasing him from his contract to pay any part of the money to himself.

When Col. Fisk died there was nowhere a more sincere mourner than this little newsboy, and a stand on the corner was heavily draped on the day of the burial.

VINEGAR BITTERS

VEGETABLE — FREE FROM — PURELY — CALIFORNIA — ALCOHOL — DR. WALKER'S — VINEGAR BITTERS

R. WALKER, Proprietor. R. H. McDONALD & Co., Druggists & Gen. Agents, San Francisco, Cal., and 34 Commerce St., N.Y.

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

Vinegar Bitters are not a vile Fancy Drink, Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and A LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing, also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and of all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE, and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed.

Ayer's
Sarsaparilla

Is widely known as one of the most effectual remedies ever discovered for cleansing the system and purifying the blood. It has stood the test of years, with a constantly growing reputation, based on its intrinsic virtues, and sustained by its remarkable cures. So mild as to be safe and beneficial to children, and yet so searching as to effectually purge out the great corruptions of the blood, such as the scrofulous and syphilitic contamination. Impurities, or diseases that have lurked in the system for years, soon yield to this powerful antidote and disappear. Hence its wonderful cures, many of which are publicly known, of Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases, Ulcers, Eruptions, and eruptive disorders of the skin, Tumors, Blotches, Boils, Pimples, Pustules, Sores, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, and internal Ulcerations of the Uterus, Stomach, and Liver. It also cures other complaints, to which it would not seem especially adapted, such as Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Fits, Neuralgia, Heart Disease, Female Weakness, Debility, and Leucorrhœa, when they are manifestations of the scrofulous poisons.

It is an excellent restorer of health and strength in the Spring. By renewing the appetite and vigor of the digestive organs, it dissipates the depression and listless languor of the season. Even when no disorder appears, people feel better, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. The system moves on with renewed vigor and a new lease of life.

Ayer's
Hair Vigor,

For restoring to Gray Hair its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. It soon restores faded or gray hair to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, fallen hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed; but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning grey or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. The restoration of vitality it gives to the scalp arrests and prevents the formation of dandruff, which is often so uncleanly and offensive. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre, and a grateful perfume.

FANNING MILL.
The Greatest Invention
OF THE 19th CENTURY!

FARMERS, LOOK TO YOUR INTEREST.

THE attention of Farmers and Mechanics is particularly directed to the combined economy, utility and practicability of the Eureka Mill, and to the many other advantages it possesses over every other Fanning Mill which has been introduced to the public. It is the fruit of long and patient investigation by the inventor, who has made it his constant study for over twenty years. He has secured several patents for Mills, and has always been rewarded with the best of success. But not feeling satisfied with his former attainments, he determined to reach the climax, and he now believes that his new invention will warrant him in exclaiming in the joy of his heart, like the philosopher, Phythagoras, EUREKA, signifying in the Grecian language, "I have found it." This has given the name to this new Mill.

In this Mill are all the former improvements, to which have been added several more, adding still greater advantages than were at first anticipated, or even thought possible by the inventor himself. It embraces the three great essentials necessary in every invention.

It combines Utility, Economy and Practicability!

THE EUREKA MILL

Is small and lighter, and is capable of doing more and better work in a given time than any other Mill ever invented. It is the only Mill that will successfully remove from wheat such pests as Cockle, Garlic, Oats, Rye, &c.

Should an extra quality of grain for seed or gristing purposes be required, it can be so arranged as to catch in one box perfect grain, and in the other, grain fit for market or mill. Here is made a great saving usually lost sight of: for nearly one-quarter of the grain cleaned in the common Mills is lost when sown, on account of shrunken kernels and inferior grain. The Eureka Mill saves all this, and gives seed every kernel of which will grow when put into the ground, and this saving will, in a short time, pay for the Mill.

HINES & BURCHINAL,

Chestertown, Md.,

Owners of the Mill, are having them manufactured at the Sash Factory and Planing Mill of NOLAND & Co., Port Deposit, Md., which is a guarantee they will be put up in the very best manner.
