LOCAL ITEMS.

SALE OF TOWN PROPERTY.—We learn that Col. John N. Denning has sold his residence, corner of Cannon and Mill streets, to William Welch, Esq., for the sum of $6,000. Mr. Welch purchased, we believe, with the intention of making Chestertown his place of residence.

LOSS BY FIRE.—The barn, straw stacks, about 40 bushels of wheat, lot of corn, and some farming implements, on the "Cedar Dale" farm, in Queen Anne's county, belonging to Mr. Thomas W. Eliason, of this town, were destroyed by fire on Sunday night last. The fire was discovered about 12 o'clock, and is believed to have been the work of an icendiary. Amount of loss unknown.

THE TOURNAMENT at Kennedyville, on Thursday last, came off as advertised, and although not largely attended, was a most remarkable exhibition of daring and horsemanship, many of the Knights riding standing erect upon the top of their saddles. The contest between young Willson and Tayman was undecided, each taking the three rings every time they rode.

The Knights were addressed by Mr. Wm. Galligher, of Still Pond, in a very admirable speech.

CATTLE SHOW.—We take the last opportunity to call attention to the Agricultural Fair and Show, which commences on Tuesday next, near Hanesville. We are informed that every arrangement for the convenience of Exhibitos and visitors has been made. Farmers and others owning fine stock need have no fear of comfort for their animals. Gentlemen who have been appointed on committees are requestsd to be punctual in their attendance. The exhibition of fine stock, horses and every thing exhibited at such fairs, promises to the very attraction, and we hope the citizens of the county will feel it a duty to patronize this first effort of our Kent County Exhibition.

Orphans' Court.—Tuesday, September 24. Present, Judges Beck and Scott.

The Court passed a number of claims against the estates of deceased parties.

The release of Indiana M. Lusby, (formerly Indiana M. Sutton,) and John R. Lusby, to John C Sutton, the late guardian of the said Indiana M. Lusby, was read and ordered to be recorded.

William Perkins, admr. of William E. Anderson, (colored), returned a list of sales of the personal estate of deceased. David Clements and Robert J. Lusby were appointed to view, and estimate the rental value of, the real estate of said Wm. E. Anderson.

Charles H. Baker, admr. of William B. Hewitt, returned a list of sales of the personal estate of deceased.

Philena C. A. Clements, (formerly Philena C. A. Warren,) guardian to Augevine Warren, returned her guardian account for the year 1872, and the said guardian was authorized to expend a sum not exceeding $350 for her ward.

Isaac M. Jones, admr. of Thomas E. McLaughlin, returned his first administration account. The said administrator, upon his petition, was ordered to convey two lots in fee to Samuel Hines and Henry Bishop, according to the agreement of deceased in his lifetime.

John C. Sutton applied for letters of administration on the personal estate of Samuel Riley, (colored). A notice to parties interested in the estate of said Riley was ordered to be published.

Ordered, that the Court meet on Monday next, instead of Tuesday.

A special session, to hear evidence in the case of S. E. Warner, against Samuel W. Canady's estate, will be held on Thursday, the 3d of October.

AMONG the various business enterprises of our town none gives greater evidence of permanence and success than the Riverbank Garden and Greenhouses of Messrs. Massey & Hudson. From a very small beginning, a few years ago, there has been built up a flower business that promises to become in a few years, one of the leading establishments of the kind in the country. This firm informs us that they have now in use 15,000 square feet of glass. They have just completed a fine large greenhouse, covering an area of 23 by 70 feet. This is quite an ornamental structure, and will give them the needed room for the prospective increase in business of the coming season. Messrs. M. & H. inform us that during last season they shipped plants to every State in the Union and some of the Territories. They have been growing in pots during the summer a large lot of plants specially adapted to the production of flowers in winter. Many of these they will keep for their own trade in cut flowers during the winter. From the first of November to the beginning of Lent, all kinds of flowers command a high price in the cities, and during this time Messrs. M. & H. deliver many boxes of cut flowers to the boquet makers in Philadelphia. One firm in that city takes all the blossoms they can produce.

The success of enterprises of this kind is of the greatest benefit to the community, in giving employment to men and in bringing money from abroad to circulate in our midst. We need more establishments whose sales are mainly abroad and whose productions are the result of home labor. Success, we say, to all such.

We refer the ladies to Messrs. M. & H.'s advertisement in another column.

Order of Publication.

John A. Benson,
vs.
Annie E. Benson.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County. In Equity.

The object of this Bill is to procure a Divorce a Vinculo Matrimonii of the complainant from the defendant.

The Bill alleges that the complainant and defendant were married on or about the fifteenth day of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, and from that date until the twenty-fourth day of December, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, complainant and defendant lived as man and wife: that on the twenty-eighth of December, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, the defendant abandoned the complainant's home and protection, and removed to her father's home in the city of Wilmington, and State of Delaware, where she has ever since continued to reside; and that the abandonment aforesaid has continued uninterruptedly since the twenty-fourth of December, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight; that it is deliberate and final and beyond any reasonable hope of reconciliation. The Bill further charges that the complainant and defendant have three children by said marriage, namely: Edwin, aged seven years; Temperance, aged five years; and Lena, aged three; all of whom are now living with the said Annie E. Benson, at Wilmington, Delaware. The Bill further charges that the defendant is a non-resident of the State of Maryland, and prays the usual Order of Publication.

It is thereupon ordered by the Court, this 12th day of September, 1872, that the complainant cause a copy of this Order, together with the object and substance of the Bill, to be inserted in some newspaper published in Chestertown, once a week for four successive weeks before the 9th day of November next, giving notice to the defendant in said Bill, and warning her to appear in this Court in person or by Solicitor, on or before the 4th day of January next, to show cause, if any she has, why a Decree shall not pass as prayed.

STATE SCHOLARS TO ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE.

A COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION, for filling of vacant scholarships in St. John's College, will be held at the School Room in Chestertown, on Tuesday, September 24th, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

The Act recently passed by the General Assembly, provides that six students from each Senatorial District in the State, shall be educated free of charge for tuition, room rent, and use of text-books; and that three students shall pay $200 each for board, fuel, lights and washing.

The Act furnishes board, fuel, lights and washing, to two of the number of students, who are to be appointed by the Board of School Commissioners, after a competitive examination of the candidates; the appointments being subject to the approval or disapproval of the State Senator.

Special attention is called to the fact that the Act requires that these students be prepared for the Collegiate course, and that they will not be received free of charge into the Preparatory Department of the College.

That they will be required to pursue the regular Academic course as specified in the Catalogue of the College, and will be examined for entrance into the Freshman Class upon the following studies: "English Grammar, U. S. History, Ancient and Modern Geography, Arithmetic, Algebra to Quadratic Equation, Geometry, first book; Hadley's or Kuhner's Greek Grammar, Greek Reader, Xenophon's Analysis, Harkness' or Allen's Latin Grammar, Cæsar's Commentaries, or some equivalent; Sallust, Virgil, Latin and Greek Composition."

That they must give bond to the amount of $750. This bond must be executed by the successful candidate, with at least two sureties, (one of whom is to be the parent or guardian, if any,) and is to the effect that he will teach school within this State for not less than two years after leaving College, and should any student neglect or refuse to teach the length of time required by this section, his bond shall be liable.

That he will present himself at College for examination, on Monday, September 30th, and Tuesday, October 1st.
