Talbot County Sct. The Deposition of Sarah Rose aged sixty seven years taken before me the subscriber one of the Justices of the peace for Talbot County. Being sworn on the holy Evangills of God deposeth & saith that about forty five years ago Morris Drew wanted her father William Rid away to settle a boundary at the end of the division fence at a point called patricks point — to which her father replyed. No morris I never will give any more of my land away for you now hold a great deal more than belongs to you — If thou wo'n I leave my land to Choose to fix a boundary they may, but I never will, further that Arthur Rigby offered her father fifty pounds for land that he did not know belonged to him — to which he replyed he never would sell any of his land — Rigby encouring lands then held by Morris Drew, belonging to her father — her father said he did not want to have any disturbance — as he had land enough for him — and further this deponent saith not — sworn to before me this 13th day of October at five o'clock 1789 — before David Kerr
