THE KENT COUNTY AGRICULTURAL FAIR was held on Tuesday and Wednesday last at "Hawkins Park," near Hanesville. The ground selected could not have been better, the course for trials of speed is almost as level as a barn floor and the horses' feet can be seen from all parts of the track. The arrangements for stock, and exhibition of fruits, flowers and domestic articles, was complete. On the first day the number of persons present were estimated at one thousand. We observed the following among other specimens on exhibition the first day: The Ladies' Friend washing machine, exhibited by Owen and T. E. Hayes, of Kennedyville. A very fine specimen of Excelsior Oats, grown by Stephen Lecates, weighing 37½ lbs. A specimen of corn, by George R. Stephens, planted the 19th day of June, fine large ears and well made. Among the fruits we noticed a splendid specimen of White Heath, grown by Col. Wilkins. Mr. R. S. Emory exhibited fine specimens of pears of the Duchess De Angouleme and Vicar of Winkfield varieties; one of the Duchess weighed 1¼ lbs., another 18 ounces. Mr. Emory raised 200 boxes of this variety. Among fancy articles were a handsome cross and vase of flowers, in wax, by Mrs. Sallie J. White; also vase of flowers, of the same, by Mrs. J. N. Dodd; and two elaborate picture-frames of shells, grain and burrs, by Mrs. Thos. A. Hulme. Mr. John F. Howard, of Chestertown, had a handsome set of harness. J. K. Aldridge, the Stove, Tin and Hardware man of our county, had on exhibition specimens of stoves, a case of cutlery, and household articles. Among canned fruits, &c., Mrs. Thos. A. Hulme had a number of specimens, crab, quince, cucumber, salad, apple, corn. Mrs. James Shuster exhibited a fine specimen of canned peaches. A chief object of attraction was a splendid parti-colored Afghan, worked and exhibited by Mrs. George Stephens, the material of which cost one hundred dollars. It was valued at $300, and was on raffle for the benefit of I. U. Church. A coop of four months old white Leghorn chickens, exhibited by Mrs. Wm. H. Stewart, attracted some attention; and a cage of Maltese kittens, by Minnie Corey, seemed to attract Young America.

Mr. W. F. Massey, florist, had a fair display of plants and flowers, among them a tea plant in bloom.

The display of stock on the first day was very limited. Mr. Wm. Ford exhibited a herd of native cattle, consisting of a bull and four white heifers, three years old. Mr. L. C. Justis some short-horns. Mr. Lecates a large chester white hog.

The display of horses was better. Dr. E. A. Vannort exhibited "Legatee." Mr. Cosden, of Queen Anne's, had a very fine mare and her three colts, one of them a "Roan Chief." Mr. William Morris a pair of very fine four year old colts, well broken to harness.

The trials of speed was the exciting feature of the day, commencing with three years old colts, to go as they please. Mr. C. C. Wallis entered brown gelding, and Mr. J. W. Sterrett entered sorrel gelding: mile heats, two best in three. Won by C. C. Wallis' horse. Prize $30.

Second race—four years old—best two in three, in harness. Mr. John N. Dodd entered bay mare "Bertie Sherman"—Mr. Wm. A. Kennedy entered bay horse. Won by Mr. Dodd's mare. Prize $30.

Third race—for horses that had never trotted for money—best three in five. Mr. W. W. Stephens entered "Townhead," and Mr. W. H. Scotten entered "Starlight." "Townhead" won the three first heats. Prize $60.

The second day brought considerable additions to the Stock, Fruits, Plants, &c.

The exhibition of "Roan Chief" colts for the prize of a silver cup of the value of one hundred dollars, to the best three year old, was an interesting feature. Awarded to Mr. Joseph Catlin, of Queen Anne's county.

The trials of speed, first race, for stallions, best three in five, Wm. A. Kennedy entered "Keystone Patchen"—Thos. Whaland, Jr., entered "Young Napoleon"—Thomas Gale entered "Gideon." "Patchen" won in three straight heats. "Gideon" was distanced the first heat.

The Citizens' Purse was not filled.

The list of premiums was announced at the close of the day, and so ended the first Annual Fair of the Worton Agricultural Club, which was very creditable to the enterprize of the Worton farmers.

The Georgia Election.

Reports from Georgia, so far as heard at the time we go to press, give the State to Smith, Democrat, for Governor, by a majority ranging from 30,000 to 50,000. The Grant party expected to reduce the Democratic majority in this State.

The Newspaper.

Dear Transcript:—"You know how it is yourself" that the editor brings into a small compass the varied items of news as a convex lens draws to a focus the scattered rays of light. The reward which an old voluptuary offered for the discovery of a new pleasure, we think should be bestowed upon an editor, if the aforesaid personage were to appear on the earth and was willing to exchange a sensual for an intellectual pleasure. The newspaper is not so much a nice, delicate tidbit as a delicious compound of varied ingredients. It is to other species of literature what minced pie is to the family of pastries. The articles that appear in its columns are often as checkered as the nationalities that crowd Broadway. Who can measure its importance! The illustrious historian of the Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire, says a tear should be dropped over the destruction of the Alexandrian Library, but if any power should stop our newspapers for a day, how much greater would be the loss. We speak of the bold, free, independent Journal, one not blind in its partizan zeal, nor subsidized to party uses. This country owes a debt of gratitude to Stephen Decatur for the patriotism he exhibited in our naval warfare; it has a high appreciation of his intrepid gallantry, but we do not think the toast he drank on a festive occasion is worthy of commendation: "My country, may she be ever in the right, but my country right or wrong." Too many are ready to endorse the above sentiment when applied to their party. The organ that displays this spirit is of a very doubtful good. We know not if Archimedes could have moved the material world from its sphere had he a place to "rest his lever," as he asserted, but the Press is mightiest engine to move the moral world. We have not the ability to deal with the subject as its importance demands, and can say with the accomplished author of "Beyond the Mississippi," as he gazed upon the grandeur of the Yosemite Valley and felt a reluctance to describe as the "subject was too vast and his capacity too small." Of the editor we may say in the words of a doubtful bard:

"No pent-up Utica is his prison,
The boundless range of the Universe is his'n."

Yours, OCCASIONAL.

IN WILMINGTON, DELAWARE, there is a gentleman ninety-eight years of age, who has to be closely watched to prevent him from getting married. He has made about fifty attempts, and always finds women to share them. Last week his friends rushed in and forbid the banns, just in time to prevent a magistrate from uniting the did gentlemen to a spinister of thirty. He is said to be a 'monomaniac' on the subject of marriage.

Order of Publication.

John A. Benson,
vs.
Annie E Benson.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County. In Equity.

The object of this Bill is to procure a Divorce a Vinculo Matrimonii of the complainant from the defendant.

The Bill alleges that the complainant and defendant were married on or about the fifteenth day of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, and from that date until the twenty-fourth day of December, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, complainant and defendant lived as man and wife: that on the twenty-eighth of December, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, the defendant abandoned the complainant's home and protection, and removed to her father's home in the city of Wilmington, and State of Delaware, where she has ever since continued to reside; and that the abandonment aforesaid has continued uninterruptedly since the twenty-fourth of December, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight; that it is deliberate and final and beyond any reasonable hope of reconciliation. The Bill further charges that the complainant and defendant have three children by said marriage, namely: Edwin, aged seven years; Temperance, aged five years; and Lena, aged three: all of whom are now living with the said Annie E. Benson, at Wilmington, Delaware. The Bill further charges that the defendant is a non-resident of the State of Maryland, and prays the usual Order of Publication.

It is thereupon ordered by the Court, this 12th day of September, 1872, that the complainant cause a copy of this Order, together with the object and substance of the Bill, to be inserted in some newspaper published in Chestertown, once a week for four successive weeks before the 9th day of November next, giving notice to the defendant in said Bill, and warning her to appear in this Court in person or by Solicitor, on or before the 4th day of January next, to show cause, if any she has, why a Decree shall not pass as prayed.
