State vs. Ezekiel C. Stanley. Presentment for an assault upon Wm. H. Shriver. Fined $1 and costs and sentenced to the county jail for two months.

The following resolutions, which were adopted at a meeting of the members of the Bar, were presented to the Court by the Hon. George Vickers, who prefaced them by some extended remarks upon the character of Mr. Slay as a lawyer and a citizen. The resolutions were seconded by Mr. Pearce, who also spoke of the high character of the deceased. Further remarks were made by Mr. Richard Hynson and Judge Robinson. The Court ordered the resolutions to be put upon the minutes of the Court, and then directed the Court to be adjourned in respect to the memory of Mr. Slay:

Whereas, since the last April Term of this Court, John O. Slay, Esq., departed this life at the residence of his father in Camden, Delaware,

We, the members of the Bar, having met to offer a tribute to the memory of our friend and brother, do therefore Resolve, That in the death of Mr. Slay this Bar has lost one of its most learned and distinguished members; one who had endeared himself to us by his high sense of honor and uniform urbanity, by a strict observance of all the rules of professional etiquette, by a practical illustration of the attributes of the lawyer, the scholar, the companion and friend, and whose private life was adorned by the virtues and graces of the Christian and the gentleman.

Resolved, That our condolence and sympathy are extended to the relatives of the deceased, for the loss of one who in all the relations of life was worthy of commendation and honor.

Resolved, That the Court be requested to enter these proceedings on their minutes, and that a copy be forwarded to the relatives of the deceased.

State vs. Mary Clara Berryman—Indictment for stealing a dress from Samuel McKane. Verdict guilty. Hynson and Perkins for defence.

State vs James Byron—Indictment for an assault with intent to commit a rape upon Mary E. Garrett. Slay for defence. Verdict guilty. Motion for a new trial.

Suicide by Drowning.—On Wednesday last as the steamer Chester was passing deep point, on her way to Baltimore, a man who had taken passage at this place was observed by the clerk, to jump overboard. The man had been walking the deck of the boat for some time, and was noticed to be very restless and pale. Suddenly he went aft of the wheelhouse, and stepping back about a dozen paces started and with a run sprang overboard, falling into the water some distance from the steamer. As soon as the man was overboard the clerk called to the engineer, who immediately stopped the forward movement of the steamer, and began to back her toward the man who was struggling in the water A row boat was lowered, but before it could reach the suicide he had gone down. The man's hat, which was floating in the water was picked up, and found to contain a discharge from the Prussian army, issued to Wilhelm Bollmer, of Bau'e county, Wittgenstein, Germany, who was born on the 15th of June, 1845. A certificate, stating that the same person had served seven years as a tailor in a German town, was also found, all in the German language. The deceased was about 5 feet 7 inches high, of light complexion, light hair, and had a slight beard. After the man was in the water it was noticed by those who saw him that he struggled as if making a desperate effort to save himself.

Democratic Meetings.—On Wednesday afternoon a small gathering of the Democracy, at Trappe Corner, was addressed by W. M. Slay, Esq.

On Thursday evening the Court room was filled to hear ex-Governor Swann on the political issues of the day. Lloyd Tilghman and John B. Brown, Esqs., of Queen Anne's county, who were attending our Court on business, were called out and made eloquent speeches. The meeting was very unthusiastic.

The Spence Meeting of Radicals, on Tuesday afternoon last was, judging from Judge Spence's speech, a failure. He seemed to have prepared his speech for dissatisfied Democrats; no such class appeared, and his remarks were not calculated to drive Republicans from the support of Mr. Greeley.

Mr. Burton, of the Republican Advocate, also addressed the meeting and is reported by those who heard him to have made much the best speech of the two.

The big guns of the campaign, on either side, have not discharged very heavy loads in Kent county.

An Amendment and Anecdotes.

Dear Transcript:—We did not intend to assert in our article in your last week's issue that in the person of the Republican party there was an avenging power to purify the evils of the Democratic and Conservative. In such a case the "remedy would be considerably worse than the disease." We used the example of Rome to illustrate a general truth and had no particular reference to parties in question, though such a construction would be very reasonable. As that powerful old fellow in ancient days turned the course of a river to purify the Augean stables, we hope the Conservative party will send a cleansing stream through every department of this, we believe, corrupt administration.

A friend of ours, acting president of a debating society at the time, relates these anecdotes: One of the speakers arose, and with a clenched fist and arm gesticulating like a blacksmith's sledge hammer, coming in dangerous proximity to the chairman's profile, meanwhile repeating in thundering tones, "Mr. President, Mr. President, I'll prove to you, I'll prove to you—I don't know anything about it." This sudden anti-climax, this tremendous downfall, in the parlance of the stage brought down the house, or rather, we should say, shook it mightily with uproarous shouts, laughter and rappings. If old Tiber didn't tremble with her yellow waves as she did when Pompey returned amidst the loud acclamations of the Romans, it is because Tiber "warn't" close by and "dar" was not enough mouths. Mr. Editor, we've known some speakers who possess less modesty and brevity than our hero, speak for an hour or so and force us to the conclusion at which our orator right speedily arrived. Orator No. 2 began his discourse "thusly:" Mr. President, I came from "Queen Anne's," from Round Top; people over "dar" don't steal, don't cheat, but are great tale-bearers. Here followed a momentous silence, broken by the chairman with the request for the gentleman to proceed, which he did—to his seat. His remarks were finished and the audience left to its reflections. A great many of us possess the gift of eloquence, but when needed, we haven't it about us, as Artemus Ward shrewdly observes.

Last, but not least, we thank you for the generous gift of your valuable paper and hope the teachers will respond through its columns in something short, sharp and sweet.

Yours, Occasional.

Voorhees on Greeley.

Hon Daniel W. Voorhees says, in a letter from Terre Haute, dated Oct. 14th: "Mr. Greeley has personally raised himself in this canvass a thousand fold in my estimation. His course has been all that could be desired, and I believe he would, if elected, be perfectly true to the purposes he has so grandly proclaimed in his unrivalled addresses to the public. I shall vote for him in November not only unhesitatingly, but with pleasure, as a man who has established his claims to my admiration, notwithstanding my strong previous prejudice."

Helmbold and the Newspapers.—Helmbold of Buchu notoriety, has just sent out an interesting document to the press, announcing his bankruptcy. Many of the leading journals are among the victims, but Baltimore escapes. The amounts due to the New York papers range from $7,500 down to $1,100, and Boston and chief Western journals from $3,600 to $1,250. If ever a little man succeeded in fooling the wise men of the earth, Helmbold is the one. In addition there are thousands of dollars owed all over the country, in sums of $10 and upward.

THE

EUREKA FANNING MILL.

The Greatest Invention

OF THE 19th CENTURY!

FARMERS, LOOK TO YOUR INTEREST.

THE attention of Farmers and Mechanics is particularly directed to the combined economy, utility and practicability of the Eureka Mill, and to the many other advantages it possesses over every other Fanning Mill which has been introduced to the public. It is the fruit of long and patient investigation by the inventor, who has made it his constant study for over twenty years. He has secured several patents for Mills, and has always been rewarded with the best of success. But not feeling satisfied with his former attainments, he determined to reach the climax, and he now believes that his new invention will warrant him in exclaiming in the joy of his heart, like the philosopher, Phythagoras, EUREKA, signifying in the Grecian language, "I have found it." This has given the name to this new Mill.

In this Mill are all the former improvements, to which have been added several more, adding still greater advantages than were at first anticipated, or even thought possible by the inventor himself. It embraces the three great essentials necessary in every invention.

It combines Utility, Economy and Practicability!

THE EUREKA MILL

Is small and lighter, and is capable of doing more and better work in a given time than any other Mill ever invented. It is the only Mill that will successfully remove from wheat such pests as Cockle, Garlic, Oats, Rye, &c.

Should an extra quality of grain for seed or gristing purposes be required, it can be so arranged as to catch in one box perfect grain, and in the other, grain fit for market or mill. Here is made a great saving usually lost sight of; for nearly one-quarter of the grain cleaned in the common Mills is lost when sown, on account of shrunken kernels and inferior grain. The Eureka Mill saves all this, and gives seed every kernel of which will grow when put into the ground, and this saving will, in a short time, pay for the Mill.

HINES & BURCHINAL,

Chestertown, Md.,

Owners of the Mill, are having them manufactured at the Sash Factory and Planing Mill of Noland & Co., Port Deposit, Md., which is a guarantee they will be put up in the very best manner.
