Mizen top S.s and let out reefs out of Fore and Main and at 8 A.M. G.s Latter Watch moderate winds and some hazy ships on the North tack all hands anxiously looking out for Whales Oh the misery of a Whaling voyage where there is no whales to be seen. I am now on the twenty first month since I left my Dear wife and Children since which I have not heard a syll. from them have in my care as well a thier but that God who has guided and protected thus far in our lives is still able to protect us and bring us to gether in his own good time our journey no doubt is for some wise purpose the which is beyond our limited comprehension I hope it will teach us not to put our trust in things of this world which my own experience teaches me is as false as they are fair. But to put our trust in God who is able and willing to save all who come unto him through our Crucified Redeemer. God in his great mercy grant that we may be found amongst that happy number who sing praises unto God and the Lamb for ever. Latd Obs. 32.56 N thermometer at 80°.
