LOCAL ITEMS.

LOCAL MATTERS are so scarce that we are unable to give our readers anything. If parties who feel interest in the local paper would furnish the printer with facts transpiring in the neighborhood, the country publisher would be able to present a much more interesting paper. A country paper will not justify the proprietor in paying for such contributions, and yet their value can scarcely be estimated.

We earnestly solicit from the friends of the Transcript, communications of a local character. Facts may be jotted down in the rudest manner, and the editor will fashion them into shape for publication. Anything that would be interesting in a letter to a friend is fair subject matter for a local item.

THANKSGIVING passed off quietly in our town. The stores were generally closed and business suspended. Services were held in the Churches in the morning. At night the Rev. Dr. Murray delivered his lecture "Sunshine," in the Methodist Protestant Church.

The Doctor's lecture was very practical. He illustrated sunshine in the home, in business, in politics, in the Church and in the heart.

SALE OF BUILDING LOTS.—On Tuesday next E. F. Perkins, as attorney, will sell at the Vosbell House, a valuable Lot in Chestertown. This Lot is desirably situated in the centre of the town and will make several building lots for small residences. Would be admirably situated for a coal or wood yard. Terms easy. See advertisement.

MASSEY'S AND ELKTON RAILROAD.—There seems to be a fair prospect, now, for the building of the Massey's and Elkton railroad. The necessary amount, less some fourteen thousand dollars, has been subscribed, and the matter has been brought to the attention of Baltimoreans with some prospect of the balance being raised in that city.

ONE of the old buildings in our town, the shoe shop recently occupied by George H. Bennett, belonging to Mr. Stam, has been pulled down. Mr. Stam will at once build a more sightly structure upon the old spot.

COLIN F. STAM & BRO. have in store a complete assortment of Stationery, including thousands of envelopes, the best styles of paper, all qualities. Also, a very heavy stock of stereoscopic views. It will pay our citizens to examine the stock of the Messrs. Stam. They are very attentive to their customers and always pleased to show their goods. In fact, they are very clever young gentlemen.

ORPHANS' COURT.—The Court on Tuesday held a short session, and after passing a number of claims, adjourned until Friday, yesterday.

PORK.—Dressed hogs are coming in to our town quite freely, and are selling from five and-a-half to six and-a-half cts. per pound.

Hon. Charles Sumner's Views on French Politics.

Mr. Sumner, who has just returned from spending his vacation in Europe, has had the best opportunity, from association with leading men, to judge of the condition of political affairs there. It will be remembered that Gambetta, who is the representative man of the extreme left in the French Assembly, sought an interview with Mr. Sumner, in order that his policy might be enlightened by that American statesman's views on republicanism. Mr. Sumner has also had interviews with other leading men, especially of France. He says:

'I take a much more hopeful view of French politics than other people are inclined to do. He believes the cable dispatches are exaggerated on that subject for political ends. When I called on M. Thiers I asked him what word I should carry back to our people from his. 'Tell them,' he replied very simply, 'to cherish kind and brotherly feelings towards us, as we do on our part, and tell them La France est tranquille.' And that you know is much to say of France—at last. At least it must be so considered for some time to come.' I think that whatever crisis there may be in the French Assembly M. Thiers is just the man to weather it and be useful yet to his country. The party of M. Thiers is united and solid, while the opponents are decided, and that while the present republic may not be stable, that is the ultimate power of the government.

In his interview with Gambetta Mr. Sumner asked. 'Is France a republic? and his reply was. 'Mr. Sumner, France is a republic.' Gambetta added, "Mr. Sumner, I know France, every inch of it, and I know the French people'—Gambetta thinks that in a population of 36,000,000, there are 22,000,000 republicans in heart and soul.

In speaking of M. Theirs Mr Sumner says: 'I cannot but regard the conversion to the cause of republicanism of such a man, so great a scholar, so eminent a thinker, argues very strongly for the success of the republic.' Finally Mr. Sumner concluded by agreeing with Mr. Thiers that France is tranquil.' Although the people are querulous and petulent they are unquestionably patriotic and enthusiastic.

Prospectus for 1873.—Sixth Year.

The Aldine,

An Illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be the Handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

Not for Sale in Book or News Stores.

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light, and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there are the chromos, besides!

ART DEPARTMENT.

Notwithstanding the increase in the price of subscription last Fall, when THE ALDINE assumed its present noble proportions and representative character, the edition was more than doubled during the past year; proving that the American public appreciate, and will support, a sincere effort in the cause of Art. The publishers, anxious to justify the ready confidence thus demonstrated, have exerted themselves to the utmost to develop and improve the work; and the plans for the coming year, as unfolded by the monthly issues, will astonish and delight even the most sanguine friends of THE ALDINE.

The publishers are authorized to announce designs from many of the most eminent artists of America.

In addition, THE ALDINE will produce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success, and greatest general interest; avoiding such as have become familiar through photographs or copies of any kind.

The quarterly tinted plates, for 1873, will reproduce four of John S. Davis' inimitable child-sketches, appropriate to the four seasons. These plates, appearing in the issues for January, April, July, and October, would be alone worth the price of a year's subscription.

The popular feature of a copiously illustrated 'Christians' number will be continued.

To possess such a valuable epitome of the art world, at a cost so trifling, will command the subscriptions of thousands in every section of the country; but, as the usefulness and attractions of THE ALDINE can be enhanced, in proportion to the numerical increase of its supporters, the publishers propose to make 'assurance double sure,' by the following unparalleled offer of Premium Chromos for 1873.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE, who pays in advance for the year 1873, will receive, without additional charge, a pair of beautiful oil chromos, after J. J. Hill, the eminent English painter. The pictures, entitled 'The Village Belle,' and 'Crossing the Moor,' are 14 X 20 inches—are printed from 25 different plates, requiring 25 impressions and tints to perfect each picture. The same chromos are sold for $30 per pair, in the art stores. As it is the determination of its conductors to keep THE ALDINE out of the reach of competition in every department, the chromos will be found correspondingly ahead of any that receive a certificate, over the signature of the publishers, guaranteeing that the chromos delivered shall be equal to the samples furnished the agent, or the money will be refunded. The distribution of pictures of this grade, free to the subscribers to a five dollar periodical, will mark an epoch in the history of Art; and, considering the unprecedented cheapness of the price for THE ALDINE itself, the marvel falls, little short of a miracle, even to those best acquainted with the achievements of inventive genius and improved mechanical appliances. (For illustrations of these chromos, see November issue of THE ALDINE.) will continue under the care of Mr. RICHARD HENRY STODDARD, assisted by the best writers and poets of the day, who will strive to have the literature of THE ALDINE always in keeping with its artistic attractions.

The Literary Department.

Terms.

$5 PER ANNUM, IN ADVANCE, WITH OIL CHROMOS FREE.

THE ALDINE will, hereafter be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local agent, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the fac-simile signature of JAMES SUTTON & Co.

Agents wanted.
