Remarks on Wednesday April 17th

P.M. Wind moderate, with squalls & rain, Ship heading N.E. by the wind. Port watch on deck employed 5 h, Clear & pleasant, Midnight by the wind. A.M. thick and squal wit. rain, - 4 h Port watch on deck employed in observations.

Remarks on Thursday April 18th

P.M. Commences with strong winds and squals with rain Ship heading N.E. by E by the wind. Starboard watch on deck employed. Midnight squaly & rainy took in main topsail & fly jib. A.M. Moderate and pleasant 4 h Starboard watch on deck employed, set m. topsail and fly jib.

Lat 1-43 South Long 135-41

Remarks on Friday April 19th

P.M. Having a moderate & pleasant Ship by the wind, heading N.E. Port watch on deck employed sew a school of Skinjacks & jumpers. Midnight pleasant and smooth. A.M. Employed fitting & straping the cutting blocks, 4 h, Port watch employed - fine beautiful weather.

Lat 00-25 South Long 134-26

Remarks on Saturday April 20th

P.M. Having nice weather light winds and smooth Ship heading N.N.E by the wind. Starboard watch on deck employed, - 2 h, saw a beach off weather beam 6 miles dist long dist off never I know what it is. 11 h, tacked headed S.E. A.M. pleasant, 4 h, Starboard watch on deck employed.

Lat 00-43 South Long 134-55

Remarks on Sunday April 21st

P.M. Light trade and smooth, - Ship by the wind at 1 h, tacked headed N.E. Port watch on deck employed light airs and calms through the night.
A.M. Pleasant and clear with light trades 4 h, Port watch on deck tacked headed S.S.E by the wind 8 h we now on the line cruising hopping to see Whales soon having fine weather.

Lat 00-33 South Long 134-35

Remarks on Monday April 22nd

P.M. Commences with gentle trade and smooth and clear - good sein fine weather for Whaling if we could see them, - I think we will soon. Ship tacked headed N.E by the wind. Midnight pleasant and moderate, - A.M. Clear, good sein, 4 h Port watch on deck, took out aft hold for sail cask got out new Spanker, got out meat, coffee, tea & sugar stowed down, watch employed on the new Spanker adding on cloth to it.

Lat 00-14 South Long 133-29

Remarks on Tuesday April 23d

P.M. Gently trade and smooth, Clear, extraordinary good weather, Ship heading N.E. by the wind. Port watch on deck employed on the Spanker & attending to other duties 4 h washed the decks then got supped. Midnight a gentle wind. A.M. day breaks pleasant and clear, fine weather, commenced on the Spanker 4 h, Port watch on deck employed, at 8 h, tacked headed S.E by the wind so ends with pleasant weather

Lat 00-13 North Long 132-39

Remarks on Wednesday April 24th

P.M. Commence again with beautiful weather a nice breeze smooth and clear Ship heading S.E by the wind at sail out. Starboard watch on deck employed on the Spanker, - 1 h saw a large school of Blackfish & Porpoises going to windward quick "didn't stop for them" 3 h, sent down the old Spanker send the new one up in its place, - "full & by" through the night. A.M. 6 h tacked headed N.E. by the wind. Having a strong current setting S.E. makes it quite rugged with a light wind.

Lat 00-51 South Long 132-08