The Democrat learns that engineers who have been making surveys of routes across the Peninsula for a ship canal, have expressed the opinion that the Sassafras River Route is the most available thence to Black Creek near the Delaware Bay.

QUEEN ANNE'S COUNTY.

[From the Citizen.]

Consolidation of Revenue Divisions.—The Fifth and Seventh divisions of the First Collection District of Maryland have been consolidated. The Division now embraces Harford, Cecil, Kent, and Queen Anne's counties, and is under the supervision of L. A. C. Gerry, Esq., Assistant Assessor of the Seventh Division. We take no especial pleasure in making this announcement as agentleman named HAND, for whom we have a great friendship, is relieved from further service to his country, and for his sake we would have been glad had this consolidation have been deferred indefinitely.

The Love Point Light House.—The Light House at this place does not appear to have been very securely constructed.—During a high wind on Friday morning of last week a body of ice from the bay drifted against the house, breaking away three of the fender piles, and rushing under the house broke the Northwest ice breaker of the building and bent another, thus rendering the house unsafe. The keeper Mr. Wm. B. Reed was absent at the time, and the house was in charge of the Assistant, Mr. Charles H. Erdman, who, with Capt. Jos. C. Smith, an employee, regarding themselves in a perilous place took their boat and started ashore. As they approached the shore, however, the drift ice came upon them and kept them off, and they were thus compelled to beat about from point to point in order to effect a landing until next morning, when they found ice hard enough to bear them and they walked ashore. Both of Mr. Erdman's hands were terrible frozen and one of Capt. Smith's ears and one heel were also badly frosted. The physicians are not yet entirely certain whether Mr. Erdman will not lose both of his hands. The light house was still standing at last accounts.

[From the Centreville Observer.]

Outrage.—A revolting case of rape occurred on Wednesday week, on Piney Point, in this county. The victim was a little daughter of Mr. Thomas C. Anthony, residing with her parents on the Edward Bryan farm, in Piney Neck, and aged about ten years. The perpetrator of the horrible deed is a youth named Millard Pearson, aged about 16 years. It seems that Pearson caught the child in the stable, and locking her up, forcibly committed the crime. The child, as soon as released from her prison, made the fact known to her parents, who at once started in pursuit of Pearson. He was arrested by Constable McConnor, of Queenstown, and taken before Justice Pippin who committed him to jail to await the action of the grand jury. The little girl is said to have been considerably injured, though not seriously.

THE PEACH CROP OF 1872.—The P. W. & B. Railroad, through its Master of Transportation, Mr. Ide, has made a report of the number of baskets of peaches sent over the road and its connections for 1872. The following figures exhibit the number shipped over the Kent county and the Queen Ann's and Kent Roads.

KENT COUNTY R. R.

Vandyke's,	18,013
Massey's	49,165
Lambson's	39,821
Black,	35,419
Kennydyville,	57,485
Still Pond,	8,594
Lynche's	15,377
Worton,	12,836
Chestertown,	9,750
Total,	246,460

QUEEN ANNE'S & KENT R. R.

Massey's,	3,757
Millington,	22,118
Sudlersville,	15,101
Coxe's,	9,98
Price's,	7,827
Carville's,	146
Centreville,	18,233
Total,	68,180

From this it will be seen that the Kent Road carried 178,280 baskets more than the Queen Anne's Road, or leaving Vandyke's out of the count, 150,267 more than our road, which makes a gratifying return for the Kent Road.

WICOMICO COUNTY.

Johnnie, son of Levin M. Dashiel, visiting near the Toney Tauk Mills, whilst out gunning struck the hammer of his gun and discharged the whole load in his watch, in the left lower pocket. He sustained no serious injury. The watch was riddled.

DORCHESTER COUNTY.

Mr. James Wallace jr. was recently robbed while on a visit to Philadelphia.—The deepest snow for many years fell on Christmas day. The clerk of the court issued 192 marriage licenses for 1872.

DOVER DEL.—The Delewarean says: We are to have two State Conventions in Dover on the 16th of January. One will be held by a stock company to start a new Democratic daily paper in Wilmington, and the other, under the auspices of the Sage of Appoquinimink, it is understood, to organize a White Man's party of surpassing excellence.

According to the Crisfield Leader, there were over two hundred vessels lying in the stream and at the wharves at Crisfield on saturday last. They came from every point of the compass, and one of these had a case of small-pox on board.

SIX YEARS' GROWTH OF PHILADELPHIA.—An exhibit of the results of the "building season" in Philadelphia for the last year and the preceding five years is contained in a local article published this morning. By these figures, it appears that there were 5,330 houses of all kinds erected in Philadelphia in 1872, and that among tpese there were 4,533 dwellings. This mass of buildings, would set up a city nearly as large as Mobile, the important seaport of Alabama; it would more than furnish a thriving city like Nashville, Tennessee, and overflow the ancient city of Savannah, Georgia. These new buildings erected in Philadelphia, in one year, would provide amply for the population and business of a city of twenty-seven to thirty thousand inhabitants; for, in addition to the 4,633 dwelling houses, there were 224 stores, workshops and warehouses, 88 factories, 15 churches, 8 foundries and four banks, besides numerous other auxiliary buildings. The same article shows that twenty-five thousand eight hundred and five dwelling houses have been erected in Philadelphia since 1867. Thus we have provided in six years a sufficient number of additional houses for a city of one hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants, with all the depots, warehouses, factories stores offices, workshops, churches, schools, &c., for that number of additional inhabitants. There are but eight other cities in the Union that have an aggregate population equal to this six years' accretion to Philadelphia. Beginning with the great city of San Francisco, we find it falls below the mark, as also do such important places as Buffalo, N. Y.; Washington D. C.; Louisvill Ky., and Memphis, Tenn,, some of which are far below. The figures we refer to will make good studies for our readers.
