Log of Bark Cleone John E. Simmons Master bound from Gallapagos to Sandwich Islands 1856.

Hours	Days out	Winds	Courses	Remarks on board Monday Feb 11th
	181	S.E.	N.E.½N.	First part fresh breezes and fine weather, somewhat smoaky.
	"		"	Long^t by Obs 113.23 W.
	"		"	Middle part lying aback,
	"		"	at daylight braces forward to the S.
	"		N.W.	Latter part moderate and more
	"		by W.	pleasant running under easy sail
	"		"	employed in cleaning ironwork outside
	"		"	and painting the same.
	"		"	Large quantities of albacore and
	"		"	bonito around the ship.
	"		"	Latt by Meridian Alt 4.17 S.

Hours	Days out	Winds	Courses	Remarks on board Sunday Feb 12th
	182	E.S.E.	E.N.E.	First part moderate breeze and
			E.	light squalls. It is strange that
	"		"	we see no whales.
4 P.M.	"		by the wind	Long^t by Obs 114.34 W.
	"		"	Middle part lying aback under
	"		"	short sail.
	"		E.	Latter part by the wind to
	"		"	the S.S.E. employed in painting
	"		"	iron work and bunting sails
	"		"	Latt by Meridian Alt 4.44 S.

Hours	Days out	Winds	Courses	Remarks on board Wednesday Feb 13th
	183	E.	by the wind	First part moderate and heavy
4 P.M.	"		"	passing clouds, but otherwise pleasant
	"		"	Long^t by Obs 115.43 W.
	"		"	Middle part lying aback under
	"		"	short sail at daylight main sail
	"		N.E.½N.	kept off N.E.½N.
	"		"	Latter part the weather the same
	"		"	still employed in painting irons
	"		"	Latt by Obs. 5.00 S.

Days out	Winds	Courses	Remarks on board Tuesday Feb 26th
193	S.E.	S.E.½E.	First part moderate and pleasant,
	"		saw nothing of the whale kind.
	"		Long^t by Obs. 126.31 W.
	"		Middle part the same lying aback
	"		under short sail, on the larboard tacks
	"	E.½N.	Latter part under all sail,
	"		the hours somewhat smoaky
	"		variously employed.
	"		Latt by Meridian Alt 0.12 S.

Days out	Winds	Courses	Remarks on board Wednesday Feb 27th
194	S.E.	S.E.½E.	First part light pleasant breezes
	"		and the atmosphere smoaky but the
	"		sky clear of clouds.
	"		Long^t by Obs 127.13 W.
	"		Middle part lying aback under
	"		short sail.
	"	by the wind	Latter part light breezes and fine
	"		weather by the wind employed mending sails
	"		Latt by Meridian Alt 0.24 S.

Days out	Winds	Courses	Remarks on board Thursday Feb 28th
195	S.E.	by the wind	First part light breezes and very
	"		pleasant weather the sky allmost
	"		entirely clear of clouds.
	"		employed in mending sails.
	"		Long^t by Obs. 128.07 W.
	"		Middle part lying aback on the
	"		starboard tacks under short sail.
	"	N.	Latter part light and very pleasant
	"		saw nothing of the whale kind.
	"		employed in mending sails.
	"		Latt by Meridian Alt 1.42 N.