OUR LOCAL DEPARTMENT

ORPHANS' COURT.—Present Judges Beck, Scott and Hepbron.

The Court passed a number of claims against the estates of deceased parties.

The last will and testament of Joseph Shriver, dec'd., was admitted to probate and ordered to be recorded. Letters testamentary on the estate of deceased were granted unto Bartus Trew, the executor of the last will and testament of deceased, who gave bond with Richard Hynson and Cornelius C. Brown, as sureties, in the penalty of five hundred dollars, which was approved and ordered to be recorded. Philip E. Trew and Jesse Jerome were appointed to appraise said estate, and the usual notice to creditors ordered.

Richard Hynson, admr. of Samuel W. Canady, returned a list of sperate debts, which was filed and ordered to be recorded.

Rich'd. Hynson, administrator of same, returned his first admr. account, which was passed and ordered to be recorded.

NOT MARRIED.—The marriage of Miss ARAMINTA STANLEY and WILLIAM H. WAIBEL, announced in last Saturday's Transcript, was a mistake, though published on the basis of a license regularly issued, and common rumor to that effect. The friends of parties generally expect us to publish their marriages, and are not always prompt to furnish them: in our desire to please in this respect, we unwittingly fell into an error in this case, and hope if any of our exchanges copied the same they will also repair the damage.

CONFERENCE.—The Wilmington Conference of the M. E. Church, will assemble in Easton on Wednesday next, the 5th inst. We append the homes assigned the Ministers from Kent during its continuance: Rev. A. W. Milby at J. L. Hopkins'; Rev. E. P. Aldred at R. J. Tripp's; Rev. J. H. Caldwell at Miss L. Hambleton's; Rev. F. M. Chatham at John J. Jump's; Rev. S. S. Baker at Mrs. M. A. Stewart's.

THE 22ND IN CHESTERTOWN.—There was but little to indicate the day in our town. The public offices were closed, and the national flag displayed from the Republican pole, which is still standing. In the afternoon the Kent Cornet Band assembled on the Court Yard Green and entertained the citizens with some national airs and other popular music. Mr. William Hooper, the late candidate for President, from the Fifth District of this county, delivered a lecture, at night, on "the life and character of Washington." The audience was not very large, but was largely represented from the legal profession, the wits of the town, the politicians, and the boys. While the audience was assembling an amateur string-band discoursed most inspiring music. Mr. Jas. Coleman called the meeting to order, and the orator for the occasion took the stand. Mr. Hooper read from manuscript, and drew forth very frequent and long continued applause, during which a patient and benignant smile suffused the countenance of the venerable speaker. The bewitching strains of the music in the earlier part of the evening had so intoxicated the boys, that they were unable to restrain their impatience, and the speaker was several times compelled to give way to the vociferous calls for music. With a perseverance rivaling that of the great man whose character he was depicting, the lecturer again and again renewed his remarks, and concluded amidst the most thundering applause.

THE PROTRACTED MEETING at the M. P. Church, (which has been in progress about four weeks,) has been quite a success. Penitents are found at the altar of prayer every night: most of them have, we learn, made a profession of religion and joined the Church. The interest seems to be on the increase; and, judging from the serious attention of the large congregations nightly in attendance, a more extensive revival is in prospect.

KENT COUNTY RAIL ROAD.—There have been some changes among the officers of the road owing to the resignation of Mr. Joseph T. Richards, the Superintendent. Mr. Richards' temporary residence among us has won for him many warm friends. He goes to a more congenial field to an engineer, in the open air among the fields, laying down a new road.

Mr. Platt, the late Conductor, becomes Superintendent, and Mr. Wm. H. Aiken becomes Conductor. The good fortune of the "doctor" will be gratifying to his many friends, and those who travel the road will always find the Conductor careful and attentive.

We learn there is good hope that the road will be extended to the Bay the coming season.

THE ELKTON AND MASSEY'S RAILROAD.—We are pleased to be able to announce to our readers (says the Baltimore American of Wednesday last,) that this long-promised link of railroad, which brings Baltimore over thirty miles nearer by rail to the Eastern Shore counties, is to be forthwith constructed. The requisite amount of stock having been subscribed, the stockholders yesterday astembled at Elkton and organized under the charter, when the Hon. Jacob Tome was elected President, and a Board of Directors, comprising the most enterprising gentlemen of the county, chosen. A determination was expressed to put the road under contract immediately and push it to an early completion. The distance from Elkton to the Delaware Railroad, with which it will connect, is only eight miles, and to Massey's Cross-roads twenty-four miles, where it connects with both the Queen Anne's county and the Kent county railroads. This connection will enable Baltimore merchants to win back from Philadelphia the trade of this thriving section of the State.

PENINSULA ITEMS.

CECIL COUNTY.

Charles Sweeney, who was arrested in Elkton for picking the pocket of Lewis Boulden last September, was tried last week and acquitted.

It is said that when a preacher drives up to a farm-house in Elk Neck the chickens run to the woods and hide.

The Whig devotes considerable space to a description of the performance at Ryder's show.

QUEEN ANNE'S COUNTY.

The Observer and Citizen have commenced to agitate the question of local politics.

Mr. John R. Emory jr., while ripping a plank cut off one of his fingers between the first and second joint.

The Observer says: The 22nd of February is always a big day with the inmates of our Alms House. It is one of those greenspots in their lives to which they look with great pleasure. The 22nd is their feast day. The thoughtfulness and goodness of heart of the Trustees have induced them to set apart that day as a suitable one on which the paupers in their house shall have an annual dinner. This year the 22nd came on Saturday last. On that day a number of the Trustees and friends of the institution assembled at the house where a pleasant day was spent in social intercourse. A bountiful dinner was prepared below for the inmates by their ever watchful Superintendent, Mr. Lucas, and his excellent lady, and in the Trustee's room for those who had called to spend the day.

The Alms House was organized in 1723 as a Charity School, and was afterwards turned into an Alms House. The board of trustees for the year 1862 were; Richard T. Earle, Wm. Carmichael, Thomas B. Turpin, Pere Wilmer, James Roe, John Tilghman, Edward Tilghman, John Brown and Stephen L. Wright. Of this number only one, Mr. John Brown, is now living the others have passed into another world respected by all who knew them. The board now is: John Brown, R. B. Carmichael, Joel Thomas, Joseph K. Cook, Richard T. Earle, W. J. Gibson, Wm. McKenney, John R. Emory and Pere Wilmer. Dr. J. A. Holton is the attending Physician. The number of inmates is 31—18 white, and 13 colored.

The programme in our county is, a monthly dinner, not to the paupers, but those who "call to spend the day."

The population of Queen Anne's county is 447 less than in 1810. In that year it was 16,648, in 1870, 16,171.

Lloyd Tilghman, Esq., as Trustee, sold at Church Hill, on Saturday week, the property known as "Ben's Point," containing several acres of land and a two-story dwelling, to Dr. Washington Finley, for $2,000. Also, the farm and landing of W. E. B. Faithful, containing a landing and 111 acres of land improved by dwellings and granaries, to John H. Evans, at $33 per acre. Also a woodlot of 47 acres and some perches, to same, at $11.25 per acre.

CAROLINE COUNTY.

The small-pox has disappeared from this county.

The heavy rain storm of Sunday week last broke or injured most of the mill dams in the county.

The head waters of the Choptank and and other streams were swollen to unusual proportions.

Jake Babes, the most proficient chicken thief on the shore, and now in Denton jail, has been suffering with fits.

TALBOT COUNTY.

Daniel Rich, a colored man died in Tuckahoe Neck last week, a hundred years old.

Richard Finn while leaning against the bannister of Denton bridge was precipitated without warning into the water, the banister breaking.

The Journal thinks there is a screw loose at some post office between Denton and Washington. Money has been lost in the mail.

T. H. Kemp, the present clerk of the circuit court, declines a re-election.

On Saturday last, a man named Bennett Allen, living near Easton, attempted to commit suicide by hanging himself in an outhouse. The attempt was not successful, but at last accounts he was in a precarious condition.

Sudden Death.—Gedney Goldsborough, son of the late James N. Goldsborough, died very suddenly, on Tuesday of last week, in Indianapolis. Ind., of spinal meningitis. His body reached Easton on Saturday last, and was interred on Sunday.

WORCESTER COUNTY.

The members of the M. E. choir at Newtown Lane purchased a new Mason & Hamlin organ.

Death of an Aged Lady.—Miss Sallie Henderson died at Newtown, in this county, on the 89th year of her age, and was a member of the Baptist Church for sixty years.

DORCHESTER COUNTY.

Dwelling Burned.—Mr. Wm. Barclay's house, on Hooper's Island, was destroyed by fire on the 11th inst., leaving him nothing in his old age, as all for which he and his industrious wife had been working during 32 years was consumed. It is a heavy blow, and the general impression is it was the work of an incendiary—they having left the house at 1 o'clock P. M. to attend the marriage of their only son, and the last spark of fire was extinguished before they left.

Precocious.—It will be remembered that a great moral show was advertised, came off, and was largely patronized in our town a short time since, by both christian parents and children; and during the performance a lady was placed under chloroform and made to apparently float in the air. The same moral show was performed in Federalsburg about the same time. A day or two after some children called in the drug store at that place and purchased some chloroform.—The druggist in a few moments, fearing the children would make improper use of the poison, hastily overtook them and demanded what they were going to do with it. "We are going to have a great moral show and make little Miss —— float in the air," replied the largest child. The druggist promptly relieved them of the poison and saved a funeral.

MR. COLFAX AND THE IMPEACHMENT COMMITTEE OF THE HOUSE.—The Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives which was authorized to consider and report upon the question of the impeachment of Vice-President Colfax, through Mr. Butler, their chairman, say of Mr. Colfax "that drawing such inferences as a jury might from the evidence relating to him, it may be claimed that the stock was sold to him to influence him as a member and Speaker of the House, and that it did so influence him in favor of the Union Pacific road, and incidentally in his own favor as a stock and bondholder," but they contend that the impeachment law is remedial, and is intended to secure the removal of an improper official rather than as a punishment; that expulsion has often been harshly and wrongfully ordered on political grounds; that it is time to put a stop to such proceedings; that expulsion and impeachment are analogous cases, and that as there is no precedent for expelling Mr. Brooks, or, indeed, any of the inculpated members of the present Congress, who were bribed in a preceding one, neither is there any precedent for impeaching a Vice-President, guilty though he is declared to be, for offences committed by him whilst simply a member of Congress.

THE LOUISIANA SITUATION.—New Orleans, February 26.—The following proclamation was issued this evening by the conservative Governor McEnery:

"By virtue of the authority invested by the constitution and laws of the State, I, John McEnery, Governor of the State of Louisiana, call upon and command all citizens of the parish of Orleans between the ages of 18 and 45, subject to and capable of military duty, to report forthwith to the headquarters of Major General Eugene Haggeman, commanding the first division of Louisiana military, at 22 Gravier street, for the purpose of enrollment as militia and assignment to the several militia commands now in progress of organization in the parish of Orleans Persons having arms will have preference in said enrollment. The militia thus organized will be disbanded so soon as the present emergency and exigency in the public affairs shall cease."

The following joint resolution of the McEnery Legislature was promulgated this evening:

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana in General Assembly convened. That Gov. McEnery be, and is hereby; requested to use the civil, and if necessary, the military power of the State to reinstate the judges of the third, fourth, seventh and eighth district courts of the parish of Orleans, on their respective benches, and to sustain them in the exercise of their judicial power.
