TRUTH AND COURAGE.—There is one editor in Tennessee who has shown rare pluck and common sense—Mr. William Rule, of the Knoxville Chronicle. He was recently challenged by Major Moses J. Wicks, late president of the Memphis Savings Bank, for mentioning some financial transactions not creditable to Mr. Wicks, but which Mr. Rule believed to be true. In reply to the challenge, Mr. Rule stated that he recognized no such code as the "heathenish so-called code of honor;" that he should avoid personal difficulties, but if attacked, should not hesitate to defend himself promptly and effectually. In conclusion, Mr. Rule says: "Words cannot express my contempt for such folly. It is not proof of courage, but of cowardice! It is not evidence of manliness, but of a weak concession to a heathenish and brutal custom. It is not the way to defend a gentleman's honor, but a practical confession of his inability to defend it in the manner prescribed by an enlightened Christian public sentiment and the laws of civilized people." In view of such a courageous utterance as this in the South, the editor of the Knoxville Chronicle is an excellent Rule to follow.—Balt. Sun.

THE PRESIDENT AND MR. COLFAX.—President Grant has authorized the publication of the following letter:

Executive Mansion, Washington, March 4, 1873. My Dear Mr. Colfax: Allow me to say that I sympathize with you in the recent congressional investigations; that I have watched them closely, and I am satisfied now, as I have ever been, of your integrity, patriotism, and freedom from the charges imputed as if I knew of my own knowledge of your innocence. Our official relations have been so pleasant that I would like to keep up the personal relations through life.

Affectionately yours, U. S. GRANT.

THE CENSUS shows that about twelve and a half millions of persons in the United States were, in 1870, engaged in "gainful and reputable" pursuits, and that of these 5,922,471, or forty-seven per cent., are employed in agriculture, and 2,707,421, or about twenty-two per cent., in mechanical and mining industries.

MARYLAND IN CONGRESS.—In the last Congress Maryland had the next to the oldest representative, Hon. George Vickers, (Senate,) aged 71. The only senior Senator was Mr. Cameron, aged 73. In the new Congress Maryland will have the youngest member in either house, Hon. Lloyd Lowndes, of the sixth district, who is not yet 30 years old.—Del. Commercial.

☞ Captain Jack and his Modocs, who were going to surrender the first of this week, did not meet the commissioners at the rendezvous, and it is suspected that they have outgeneralled the military and the commissioners by treachery and delay, and escaped from the lava beds into a part of Oregon where cattle are plentiful and cavalry cannot pursue.

PENINSULA ITEMS.

CECIL COUNTY.

Elkton and Vicinity.— The contract for building the Hall for the Knights of Pythias at Cherry Hill, has been awarded to John W. Miller and William H. Spratt, at $4,995.

J. B. Ramsay formerly the very efficient Cashier of the Cecil National Bank, has been elected Cashier of the People's Bank of Baltimore.

The contract for rebuilding St. Stephens Church, in Sassafras Neck, has been awarded to Messrs. West & Carroll of Port Deposit. They will begin to work about the first of April.

Robt. Jones, stationed on the railroad as night watch, in the employ of Supervisor Mahoney, was killed on Thursday night of last week, about 1-4 of a mile below that fatal Elk Neck crossing, by one of the night trains. His mangled remains were found on the track on Friday morning by the Supervisor. It is supposed that he fell asleep on the track and was killed by a passing train without being noticed by the engineer. Coroner Litzenburg held an inquest on the body. He resided on the Elk Neck road, about two miles from town.

The Masonic order of Elkton meet twice a month, the first and last Wednesday nights. The Knights of Pythias meet in their Hall, on Main street, every Thursday night. The Odd Fellows meet on Tuesday night. The American Mechanics on Friday night. The Good Templars on Monday night.

A calf raised by Hiram Clement, of the Fourth district, Cecil county, Md., was purchased and slaughtered by Wm. Gyles of Oxford on Monday, which dressed 775 pounds. Its live weight was 1260 pounds and its age fifteen months and three days.

QUEEN ANNE'S COUNTY.

Dr. Richard T. Carter, a prominent physician of Kent Island died suddenly on Wednesday night. He retired at night in his usual health, and before morning was dead. He had been suffering with heart disease for several years.

The Citizen says: We learn that a sad event occurred at the house of Mr. Barcus, residing in this county, near Hillsborough, one day this week. Mr. Barcus had three Germans in his employ—a man and his wife and an unmarried man. On the day of the accident, the single man was handling a pistol, not knowing it was loaded, when it went off, the ball striking the woman in the breast, inflicting a mortal wound, of which she lingered until Wednesday when she died. Her husband was so grieved at the death of his wife that he went out into the barn and committed suicide by hanging himself. It is said that on the voyage from Europe, a few months ago, this unfortunate couple lost five children. The death of this man's wife, added to the grief for his children, doubtlessly dethroned his reason, and led to the commission of self-destruction. A more sad affair has never happened in our county.

TALBOT COUNTY.

A Good Shot.—Mr. Eugene Denny killed eight swan at two shots on Saturday last. The birds were sold in Easton.

William aged 10 years, son of Mr. B. F. Harrison, of Tilghman's Island, had his leg crushed by a piece of timber falling upon it while a school house was being moved yesterday week. Dr. Seth dressed the wound.

CAROLINE COUNTY.

Mr. J. F. Rowland of this county, has purchased the Vienna Clipper and intends removing the office to Cambridge, and will hereafter publish a Republican newspaper.

Mr. J. W. Bryant, Trustee sold in Denton on Tuesday last, the farm belonging to Mr. R. R. H. Lockerman, about three miles from town, containing 165 acres for $2500. Mr. F. A. Porter purchaser.

The strawberry basket manufactory, at Upper Hunting Creek, is now in full operation and is turning out about 7,000 baskets a week. This manufactory was started by two or three farmers of the neighbordood, to supply the local trade, and is operated by horse power.

John Embert of Greesborough was severely cut a few days since, by a Mr. Tinley of the same place. We understand that Mr. Satterfield had bought a lot of spoiled fish for manure, and that Mr. Tinley was engaged in opening the barrels that contained them, with a hatchet, when Mr. Embert approached, and took a fish in his hand, that was in a state of decomposition and threatened to put it to Tinley's nose. Tinley warned him that if he did, that he would cut him with the hatchet, but Embert believing that he would not carry into execution a threat of such a character, for such a provocation, proceeded to place in close proximity to his nasal organ, the hated and disgusting herring, whereupon.—Tinley proceeded to use his hatchet without reserve upon Embert, and cut him in such a manner that for awhile it was feared that he could not survive his injuries.

WICOMICO COUNTY.

Mr. Lemuel Malone has purchased one half of the Advertiser and assumed editorial duties.

Unprecedented.—The Wicomico river was frozen last week from its source to its mouth. The oldest inhabitants say the like circumstance has not occurred in the month of March from a time "whereof the memory of man runneth not to the contrary."

T. W. Eliason, Jr.,

HAS a full assortment of BOOTS which he has made to order, and which have given entire satisfaction for the last fifteen years.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

BY Virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court for Kent County, as a Court of Equity, passed on the 10th day of October, 1872, the undersigned, as Trustee, will offer at Public Sale, on

TUESDAY,

The First day of April, 1873, belonging to Emily A. Massey and B. H. C. Massey, of Kent county, and where the said B. H. C. Massey now resides, Containing 405 ACRES, more or less. This Farm is situated on the public road leading from Sassafras to Millington, and adjoins the lands of R. B. M. Massey, John Benson, and others, and is about one mile from Massey's Station on the Kent County Rail Road. The land is all of the best quality, is highly improved, and in a good state of cultivation. It is divided into six fields, of convenient size, and the Fencing is in good order. There is a fine Hedge on that part of the farm bordering on the public road, and also upon the line of R. B. M. Massey's lands.

THERE ARE

on this farm, nearly all of which are in bearing, and five thousand of which are now three years old.

The improvements are a two-story BRICK DWELLING, well finished and in good repair, with roomy chambers, ample for a large family; good Barn, Corn Cribs and Stables, with extensive Shedding for cattle.

This Farm is situated in the centre of the Peach growing interest of the county; and fruit can be shipped twice a day by the Kent County Rail Road and the Queen Anne's road. It is also within four miles of Wilson's Point, on the Sassafras river, where communication with Baltimore and Philadelphia is easy and cheap.

The Elkton and Massey's Rail Road, now about to be constructed, will pass very near the farm, and will open another avenue of communication with the cities.

This estate, either as a residence or an investment, offers unusual attractions to purchasers, and an examination is invited.

THE TERMS OF SALE as prescribed by the decree, are as follows:

The sum of five thousand five hundred dollars to be paid in cash on the day of sale, and the balance in two equal instalments in twelve and eighteen months from the day of sale; the deferred payments to bear interest from the day of sale, and to be secured by the bond of the purchaser with a surety or sureties to be approved by the Trustee.
