BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.—Present, Messrs. Griffith, Roseberry and Wilson.

But little business was transacted.

FINE APPLES.—Mrs. John Gale, of Worton, presented to the Worton Agricultural Club last week, some fine specimens of Falwalder and Golden Pippin apples. The Club wisely determined to turn them over to the editors, and through the kindness of Mr. W. W. Stephens we received a portion. Three of the Pippins and seven of the Falwalder filled a half peck basket. They were in a perfect state of preservation, and were kept by wrapping in paper and packing in barrels.

The Falwalder being a Fall apple, Mrs. Gale has clearly demonstrated the practicability of this method of keeping apples.

PRESIDENT OF WASHINGTON COLLEGE.—Judge Wickes has been elected President of the board of Visitors and Governors of Washington College, in the place of Geo. B. Westcott, resigned.

THE great auction sale of store goods and personal property, belonging to the estate of Aaron L. Gooding, dec'd., will commence at Chesterville, on Saturday next, the 12th inst., at 10½ o'clock. For particulars read the advertisement, which can be found in another column on this page.

POST OFFICE RE-ESTABLISHED.—We learn, from citizens of Still Pond, that the post office at Lynch's has been re-established. The history of this affair, as related to us, is not very creditable to some of the white Radicals of Still Pond. Out of personal feeling to Mr. Geo. W. Covington, they used their influence to have this office suspended, to the inconvenience of many of their neighbors. Through the influence of William Perkins, the negro leader of the Radical party—in fact the leader of the party in Kent—who went to Washington in person, the office has been restored; and more than that, Mr. Covington, though a Democrat, has been retained as postmaster. The action of the two races don't speak well for the white Radical. We have always believed that many of the white Radicals of Maryland were actuated by impulses much below those of their negro allies.

SUICIDE.—Monday week last, Captain Darius Coleman, living in Swan Creek Neck in this county, went to the barn to feed his oxen, and Mrs. Coleman fearing that he was not warmly clad sent his son with his father's coat. The boy—not of much intelligence—returned and reported that his father was lying in the barn and would not speak to him. The family were at once alarmed and sent for some of the neighbors, who found him on the ground floor of the barn with his throat cut. An examination revealed the fact that Capt. Caleman had cut his throat with a razor, on the upper floor of the barn, where a large pool of blood was found, and had then fallen to the lower floor, where he was found in an insensible condition. He was carried to the house and medical aid soon rendered. His injuries were beyond the reach of human skill, and he lingered until Saturday last, when death relieved him. Although he recovered consciousness in a short time, and complained that his throat was very sore, he seemed to be totally ignorant that he had attempted to take his life. Capt. Coleman's mental condition for some time, has been a source of constant uneasiness to his friends.

The Baltimore Sun of last Saturday, has the following:

NEW JERSEY AND DELAWARE CENTRAL RAILROAD.—The House of Delegates of Delaware on Wednesday passed the Senate bill incorporating the New Jersey and Delaware Central Railroad Company. The Wilmington (Del.) Evening says that "the incorporators of the road will meet in Wilmington on April 16th, and effect a permanent organization. It is claimed that Jay Gould and Commodore Vanderbilt are interested in this road and will furnish a large share of the money necessary to build. It is to be part of an air-line from Boston, via. New York and Townsend, to Baltimore. The provisions of the bill are very favorable to the citizens of Delaware, and the freight charges are to be not higher than three cents per mile for passengers and eight cents per ton per mile for fruit, &c,"

PIGEON SHOOTING MATCH AT CRUMPTON.—An exciting pigeon shooting match took place at Crumpton, Queen Anne's county, on Tuesday last, (says a Hanesville correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, over the signature of 'Kent,') yesterday, between A. K. Cruser and Jesse Sheppard, for $250 a side, with twenty-five birds apiece, the usual distance, limits, etc. The match took place about 3 P. M., on the farm of Mr. Sheppard, just outside the town limits, the crowd commencing to congregate as early as 11 A. M. Cruser beat, killing 16 birds out of 25, to Mr. Sheppard's 14 out of 24. Mr. Sheppard did not fire the 25th shot, as he was already beaten. Betting was very exciting, two to one being offered on Cruser. The affair ended with a terrapin supper in the town. Many persons went over from Kent, and returned much pleased with their visit to "Old Queen Anne's."

CAROLINE COUNTY.

Arrested for Bigamy.—Jno. L. Scott, a married man, formerly a citizen of Vermont, but for the last twelve or eighteen months a resident of this county, was arrested on Monday evening last and lodged in jail in this place on a charge of bigamy. A year or more ago he purchased a small farm in the upper part of this county, removed to it and has since that time resided almost alone, doing his own work.—He is said to be a hard working and an industrious man, very economical and saving with all his affairs. Last week, being weary of his lonely condition, he took to himself another wife of more tender years and one whose charms were more captivating. But the honeymoon was of short duration, for on the next afternoon after the bridal ceremony had been performed, wife No. 1, with three small children, the oldest of which was about twelve years of age, and a lot of trunks appeared at the farm house and claimed authority over Mr. Scott's house hold. Wife No. 2, was next day returned to her former home and the faithless husband, under the escort of an officer of the law lodged within the prison walls, to await trial at the next term of Court.—Union.

A sort of Lottery exhibition under the name of Sargeant & Co. combination took place last week,—in Salisbury.

The Advertiser notices the arrival of the Rev. J. D. Kinser.

SOMERSET COUNTY.

HUDGINS, formerly of our town, is again upon the board. The Crisfield Leader thus speaks of his performance in their town:

The very act of writing the name of Hudgins excites our risibles. This gentleman, though evidently never designed to make any considerable inroads on the affections of the fair sex through the enchanting beauty of face or form, yet never failed to take the hearts of all whenever he made his entrance on the stage.—He has an actor's eye and phsiognomy which he does not fail to use very effectively, a comic smile, a ravishing frown, and is, withal, and actor true to nature which, after all, constitutes the great claim to all fine acting. His expressive personelle alone convulses an audience; his slightest movement elicits screams of laughter, and at times throws his audience into an ecstasy of paroxism only expressed in the delighted clapping of hands and stamping of feet. Indeed, altogether, Mr. Hudgins is a natural commedian, such an one we may safely say, as never before appeared on an Eastern Shore of Maryland stage in our day.

DELAWARE.

A Negro Violates the Person of a Young White Girl Near Rehoboth.—From Sussex county comes the news of the perpetration of a most horrible crime, the committal of which it seems even the inevitable infliction of death penalty cannot entirely prevent in this State. The circumstances, as we have learned them, are as follows:

About eleven o'clock, Monday morning as a young lady of about fifteen years of age, the daughter of Mr. John Lank, living near Rehoboth, about six miles from Georgetown, was returning from the residence of her uncle, where she had been on an errand, she was accosted on the road by a beastly wretch of a negro, named Joseph Burton. The girl made no reply, but attempted to pass on, when the fiend seized her, tore her clothes almost off, and throwing her to the ground, ruthlessly violated her person. After accomplishing his hellish purpose, the villain fled.

The girl then managed to drag herself to her father's residence, where she made known the facts of the horrrible outrage. The news circulated like wild fire, and soon the entire male population of the neighborhood were in arms, and instituting a vigorous search for the fiend.—Threats of lynch law were freely expressed, and the general opinion was that summary justice upon the nearest tree would be the only adequate punishment for the horrible crime.

About six o'clock in the evening, Burton was discovered in the woods, about two miles from the spot where the crime was committed. The threats of lynch law were about to be promptly executed, but more moderate counsels prevailed, and the culprit was handed to an officer, who conveyed him to the Georgetown jail. Burton is certainly a hardened villain. Instead of feeling any remorse for his crime, he made light of it and comported himself in the most careless manner. He will be tried at the approaching term of the Sussex county court, in April next when just and condign punishment will be meted out to him.

The young lady was severely injured in the struggle with the fiend, while the shock sustained by her mental system was very great. She is well known in the neighborhood in which she resides, and her family is one of great respectability. A deep feeling of indignation is expressed by the community at the horrible outrage.—Middletown Transcript.

The Maryland and Delaware Ship Canal bill passed the House of Representatives on Tuesday and is now a law. It authorizes the company called "The Maryland and Delaware Ship Canal Company," created by the General Assembly of the State of Maryland, April 1, 1872, to cut and make a canal to connect the waters of the Chesapeake and Delaware Bays, which shall be and remain a public commercial highway, open to all vessels upon terms of the most exact equality.—The bill requires that the canal shall be at least 21 feet deed, 75 feet wide upon its surface and 45 feet wide at the bottom with proper basins or turn outs at convenient points, so constructed as to enable the largest vessels to pass each other,—The route is to be located within one year and the work of construction commenced within two years from the passage of the act, or the corporation shall thereupon terminate and all its rights and privileges cease. The act authorizes the company to issue bonds to the amount of $4,000,000, upon a paid in capital of $2,000,000, but for no other purpose than for the prosecution of the work contemplated by said corporation. Three directors, in addition to those required by the Maryland charter, are to be appointed, two of whom shall be resident freeholders of the State of Delaware, upon whom all legal processes and notices may be served. The usual privileges necessary to enable the company to construct and operate a canal and restrictions to guard against abuse of the same, are embodied in the act.

We presume no one on this peninsula has a well grounded objection to the making of a ship canal across it, so as to render water communication between the two bays rapid and easy, but knowing that the undertaking is one of great magnitude, requiring a vast expenditure of capital, many persons feeling a deep interest in the success of the enterprise, and believing that it is one which in course of time will be prosecuted to completion if there are no insurmountable natural obstacles in the way, have been desirous that when an act of incorporation should be passed it should be asked for and sustained by capitalists able as well as anxious to undertake the work.—Whether the bill just passed has fallen into such hands remains to be seen. A majority of the members of the Legislature are apparently satisfied with the responsibility of the parties who applied for and have obtained the charter, while there is still an impression among the opponents of the bill inside as well as outside the lawmaking body that the act was obtained and will be held for mere speculative purposes. We hope the latter are mistaken, and that the charter was obtained in good faith, as is claimed, by parties desirous of investing their capital in this canal stock. Admitting this to be so, it now becomes a matter of interest to know what route will be selected, of the several mentioned between Appoquinimink Creek and Cape Henlopen.—The shortest route is that by way of Sassafrass River to some point on the bay north of the mouth of Duck Creek, the longest the one opening into the Choptank at Cabin Creek and into the Delaware Bay at or near the Breakwater. A direct route from Baltimore to Cape May would be that from the Chester River to the mouth of Mispillion Creek. There is no possibility, in any event, of the canal being of any immediate use to Dover—The only natural obstacle to be apprehended, should a tidewater canal be determined upon, is the bed of quicksand which, it is said, underlies this whole peninsula, and is found at the bottom of nearly every well. Any other kind of a canal, it is believed, would be impracticable for want of streams of sufficient capacity to supply the necessary quantity of water to keep it full. We will not accustom ourselves to look upon the construction of this canal as the work of a few months, for under the most favorable circumstances it will require a long time to complete the work after it is begun. Obtaining a charter and making a canal are widely different undertakings,—Delawarean.

The Thorough-bred STALLION, LEGATEE,

Has commenced his Spring season. All breeders agree in the superiority of thorough-bred males over those which are not.

Legatee is a blood bay, six years old, very compactly built, gentle and kind everywhere, having been driven in various ways, powerfully strong, healthy and sound and as pretty as a picture: very much resembling his sire the renowned LEXINGTON, whose character and form none dared to criticize, and whose performances are without a parallel in the annals of the Turf.

Legatee was got by LEXINGTON, he by Boston out of ALICE CARNEAL, by IMPORTED SARPEDON.

Legatee's dam was LEVITY (Ruric's dam) by Imported Trustee. The rest of his pedigree is traced in an unbroken line through the most notables of the country, to CULLEN'S ARABIAN, imported by General Spottswood.

He has one of the richest pedigrees in the country. To say nothing of Legatee's ancestry on his sire's side, such world renowned horses as LEXINGTON, BOSTON, and SARPEDON, his dam's family is one of the most prized in the U. S., having produced such celebrated horses as RURIC, VANDAL, his brother Alaric, and the present famous horses owned by Mr. Sanford of New York, MONARCHIST and SALINA, BOTH OF WHOM ARE BY LAGATEE'S SIRE OUT OF HALF SISTERS TO LEGATEE, WHO WERE BY IMPORTED GLENCO OUT OF LEGATEE'S DAM!!

Legatee has run and won several four mile heats and repeat, among which was the CELEBRATED RESTORATION STAKES, (purse $5,000.00) at Long Branch, easily beating TWENTY ENTRIES and among them several celebrated and frequent winners upon other occasions.

The Turf, Field and Farm, in its issue of Jan. 1872, spoke of Legatee in the highest terms of praise, and regarded him as one of the VERY BEST HORSES IN AMERICA.

He has proved himself to be a SURE FOAL GETTER, and has attracted attention and admiration wherever he has gone.

Ex-Governor Oden Bowie and Gen'l. Howard of the Western Shore, have bred their best mares to Legatee, and in our own county, Drs. Whaland and Price, Richard Hynson, John Brice, Col. Spencer, Capt. Skirven, and other acknowledged horsemen and OWNERS OF GOOD STALLIONS have been and are breeding to him.

Number of mares limited.
