4th Commences with fair weather Wind East Ship steering close hauled on The Starboard tack Men employed in repairing the Mizzen Topsail bending it and repairing one old Main Topsail

5th Commences with a moderate breeze from the Eastward Ship steering close hauled on the Starboard tack Men employed in repairing an old Main Topsail

6th Commences with fair weather Wind E Ship steering close hailed on the Starboard tack Passed an Island at 6 o'clock P.M. bearing E. by N. ten miles distant Men employed in repairing an old Main Topsail

7th Commences with fair weather Wind from the Eastward Ship steering close hailed on the Starboard tack Passed a Sail at 11 o'clock A.M. So to the Ship but did not lower the Boats for them

8th Commences with a moderate breeze from the Eastward Ship steering close hailed on the Starboard tack Passed a Sail at 6 o'clock on the Starboard beam standing along on the Starboard tack Men employed in repairing a Mainsail

9th Commences with fair weather Wind E by E Ship steering close hailed on the Starboard tack Spoke the Ship Potomac of Nantucket at 11 o'clock A.M. We Ship at 10 o'clock P.M. and laide with the Main Topsail to the Mast until Daylight we then braced forward the Mainyard and stood along on the port tack Men employed in repairing an old Mainsail one Sail in sight

10th Commences with fair weather Ship steering close hailed on the port tack Passed with the Ship Potomac Men employed in repairing an old Topsail

11th Commences with a strong breeze from the Eastward Ship under double reefed Topsails steering close hailed on the Starboard tack one sail in sight off the lee beam Men employed in repairing an old Foresail and bending it

12th Commences a strong breeze from the Eastward Ship steering close hailed on the Starboard tack Our Funeral was held at 9 o'clock A.M. when his remains was fetched on deck and laid on the Hangway planks were shipped the Ensign half mast and layed with the Fore Topsail to the Mast. The Capt read the burial service from the Bible as a mark of respect for our departed Shipmate The Body was then consigned to the deep Death is a solemn occurrence at any time since especially on board of a Ship because there is one there others to bill there places but one board of a Ship you miss him there is one less on the yard when you are on the yard you miss his voice about deck you see his consigned to the deep with my friends to morne his departure [illegible] beyond the bare yard hauled down the Ensign shortned sail and stood along on the port tack Men employed in repairing an old Topsail

13th Commences with a fresh breeze from the Eastward Ship steering close hailed on the port tack shortned sail at sunset as usual put the Watch up at 8 o'clock and kept the Ship Watch

14th Commences with a fresh breeze from the Eastward Ship steering close hailed [illegible] the Starboard tack [illegible] employed in repairing [illegible] Topsail

15th Commences with fresh breeze from the Eastard Ship steering close hailed on the Starboard tack put up the