Log of Barque Greyhound of Westport

(Sunrise) Cont with strong winds & squalls in sight at 4 pm wind Tuesday increasing to a light gale close reefed furled fore Jan 26th course ship heading S m Min calms at daylight & sun in sight one watch repairing Spanker Se End Lat 42.42

(Sunrise) Cont with calms and light airs at 6 pm Captain Wednesday went on board Ship Precious to obtain a 27th boat returned with the boat put her overhead Mid light breeze from the North at daylight wind increasing at 7 am Made Sail Steering in for the land at 9 am Sein the land at 10 hauled off there 2 Ships in sight at 12 rainy cloudy weather

(Sunrise) Cont with strong winds from S in with rain Thursday at 8 pm clear weather 3 Ships in sight 28th Mid strong winds from S m closed reefs & sails in sight late same Se End

(Sunrise) Cont with strong S m winds with large Swell Friday at 4 pm kept off East for the land at 8 pm Jan 29th Sein the land and 6 sails near Ships set foresail Lending on S or Mid Moderate at 8 am Moore all Sail at 8 1 on sein Barque Citizen Constitution whaling Herald and Morley whalers going to leeward quick lowered in pursuit to ~~Ships~~ Ships whaling all in a heap 8 boats down

(Sunrise) Cont with chasing 8 boats down at 2½ pm Saturday Larboard Boat struck at 4½ pm Jan 30th took prim alongside get tackles and begin to cut at 6 pm commenced to cut 7 Ships in sight cutting Mid fast cutting at daylight get in body at 7 am get in Junk and hoisted on deck at 10 am finished. hauled off Decks Mary Francis Cutting

Cruising of Gauge

(Sunrise) Cont with fine weather employed in cutting Sunday up Junk at 4 pm finished and started the Jan 31st works on hand at 5 pm sein Barque Citizen and Merlin boiling the one left strong wind and thick weather with fine rain

(Sunrise) Cont with strong wind and thick weather February frequent squalls of rain and large sea first Tide boiling at 7 pm wind S m Ship heading S m Mid rain more ship S E with thick rainy weather tide boiling whole pour oil comes out strong late thick weather this End (Sunrise) Cont with thick rainy weather wind from the February North at 3 pm kept off S E at 6 pm clear Monday nothing in sight Mid thick foggy weather at 6 am broke out spare hatchway to stow down late pumping the ground to stow oil

(Sunrise) Cont with thick weather employed in stowing Wednesday down at 2 pm finished one horse off February at 6 pm sein the land dist 4 miles Made all third Sail heading off shore the heavy seas on strong wind at 8 am sein 2 Sperm whalers lowered without success whalers took to the windward came on board Made Sail beating to windward 3 Ships in sight

(Sunrise) Cont with strong wind and rugged weather Thursday sein the whalers once at 7 pm wind increasing February shortened sail at 6½ pm more ship Mid heavy 4th weather at daylight wind increasing double reefed and furled foresail 6 sails in sight wind freezing S E se End