On a Voyage Homeward Off Cape Finisterre

Remarks On

Sunday May the 15 1830
the first part of this 24 hours begins with fresh winds from the West at 2 PM lowering low the Spit saw nothing at 6 PM took in main sail at 7 PM saw seven sail at 8 PM saw whales the latter part more the same latter part fresh winds from the S.E.S at 8 AM main sail at 8 PM steered low the West at 8 AM saw whales gave chase low the windward main several tacks for them but not quit up with them nothing more low remark these 24 hours
Latitude By Obs 24-03 South

Remarks On

Monday May the 17 1830
the first part of this 24 hours begins with fresh winds from the S.S.E at 4 PM lowering low the Bastiaan at 4 PM hoisen up low the West and at 6 PM took in small main sail with light winds from the South lowering low the W.S.W at 8 PM saw whales steered from them low the 24 hours
Completed By Obs 37-40 South

Remarks On

Tuesday May the 18 1830
the first part of this 24 hours begins with fine and pleasant weather at 1 PM lowed all boats stowed and hoisted 3 whales at 2 PM got them low the ship and main sail hoisen up low sail and steered low the W.S.W at 6 PM main sail lowering low the W.S.W at 8 PM saw whales gave chase low the 24 hours
Latitude By Obs 34-10 South

Remarks On

Wednesday May the 19 1830
the first part of this 24 hours begins with fine and pleasant weather with light winds employed in cutting in the blubber at 8 PM finished all hands employed in cutting up the blubber at 4 AM saw a sperm whale lowed and fastened at 6 PM saw a sperm whale at 7 PM saw a sperm whale nothing more the same latter part the same latter part the same at 8 AM main sail lowering low the W.S.W saw a sperm whale low the 24 hours
Latitude By Obs 24-15 South

Remarks On

Thursday May the 20 1830
the first part of this 24 hours begins with moderate breezes and clear all sails employed in boiling saw nothing more latter part light winds blowing low the W.S.W steered with fine breezes from the S.E.S South East at 4 AM main sail lowering low the W.S.W at 6 AM fresh winds from the S.E.S hoisen the fore and main sail saw nothing employed in boiling low ends
Latitude By Obs 24-20 South

Remarks On

Friday May the 21 1830
the first part of this 24 hours begins with moderate breezes and clear all sails employed in boiling saw nothing more latter part light winds blowing low the W.S.W steered with fine breezes from the S.E.S South East at 4 AM main sail lowering low the W.S.W at 6 AM fresh winds from the S.E.S hoisen the main sail saw nothing employed in boiling low ends
Latitude By Obs 24-32 South

Remarks On

Saturday May the 22
the first part of this 24 hours begins with fine and pleasant weather with light winds from the South East lowering low the westward all sails employed in stowing down at 2 PM took in sail all sails employed in stowing down a mile and latter part much the same at 3 PM main sail lowering low the W.S.W at 12 Mer finished stowing down nothing more low remark these 24 hours
Latitude By Obs 24-43 South

Remarks On

Sunday May the 23 1830
the first part of this 24 hours begins with fine and pleasant weather with light winds from the Eastward lowering low the Bastiaan at 4 PM hoisen up low the West and at 6 PM took in small sail with fine weather latter part much the same at 8 PM main sail lowering low the W.S.W at 12 Mer finished stowing down nothing more low remark these 24 hours
Latitude By Obs 24-40 South

Remarks On

Monday May the 24
the first part of this 24 hours begins with fine and pleasant weather with moderate breezes from the S.E.S lowering low the W.S.W at 6 PM saw whales gave chase low the 24 hours
Latitude By Obs 24-40 South

Remarks On

Tuesday May the 25
the first part of this 24 hours begins with fine and pleasant weather at 1 PM moderate breezes from the S.E.S lowering low the W.S.W at 2 PM saw a ship low the windward at 6 PM took in the S.E.S gaff sail jib and main sail mile latter part fresh winds from the S.E.S West at 8 PM hoisen up the gaff at 11 PM took in the main sail at 12 PM the water changed low green stowing down low Delagoa Bay saw whales low the 24 hours
Latitude By Obs 25-42 South

On a Voyage Homeward Off Cape of Good Hope

Remarks On

Sunday May the 26 1830
the first part of this 24 hours begins with pleasant weather with moderate breezes from the S.E.S at 8 PM got the whales low the ship and main sail hoisen up low sail and steered low the W.S.W at 7 PM got low the 24 hours
Latitude By Obs 24-30 South

Remarks On

Wednesday May the 28 1830
the first part of this 24 hours begins with fine and pleasant weather with moderate breezes from the North and steered low lowering low the Westward saw nothing at 1 PM began hoisting at 5 PM took in main sail latter part much the same employed in hoisting latter part light winds and calms at 7 PM main sail lowering low the Westward all hands employed in hoisting down saw end these 24 hours
Latitude By Obs 24-30 South

Remarks On

Thursday May the 27 1830
the first part of this 24 hours begins with fine and pleasant weather with moderate breezes from the North lowering low the N.E.S South employed in hoisting and stowing down at 5 PM took in main sail at 10 PM the wind veered low the South with moderate breezes and latter part much the same at 7 PM main sail lowering low the W.S.W saw nothing more low remark these 24 hours
Latitude By Obs 24-40 South

Remarks On

Friday May the 28 1830
the first part of this 24 hours begins with moderate breezes from the South lowering low the Westward saw nothing at 5 PM took in sail saw nothing employed in hoisting at 8 PM finished hoisting mile part calms and clear latter part much the same saw nothing all hands employed in stowing down saw end these 24 hours
Latitude By Obs 24-30

Remarks On

Saturday May the 29
the first part of this 24 hours begins with moderate breezes with a heavy swell from the West employed in stowing down at 5 PM finished stowing at 10 the main sail low the PM with fresh gales mile part strong gales with rain latter part strong gales at 5 AM reef the foresail set it at 7 AM took in the main topsail nothing more low remark these 24 hours
Latitude By Obs 24-23 South

Remarks On

Sunday May the 30
the first part of these 24 hours begins with fresh gales from the West with a heavy sea on and rain saw at 7 PM the wind veered low the W.S.W lowering low the S.E under short sail mile part more moderate latter part fresh winds from the W.S.W at 5 AM saw a ship low the S.S.E and set the topsail saw nothing more low remark these 24 hours
Latitude By Obs 24-49 South

Remarks On

Monday May the 31 1830
the first part of these 24 hours begins with fresh winds from the S.E.S lowering low the West at 6 PM took in sail mile part and more moderate with a heavy sea latter part cloudy with moderate breezes from the S.E at 8 AM main sail lowering low the S.E.S at 8 AM fresh ship with slaves from the Mozambique bound low the Brazil nothing more low remark these 24 hours
Latitude By Obs 24-08

Remarks On

Tuesday June the 1 1830
the first part of these 24 hours begins with moderate breezes from the S.E.S lowering low the W.S.W with all lowering sails set and nothing at 6 PM hailed ship low the East and took in the top gallant sails mile part wind light at 12 the wind veered low the S.E.S hailed ship low the W.S.W latter part weather fine and clear saw nothing at 7 AM unbent the foretopsail and bent a another all hands employed in ship duty nothing more low remark these 24 hours
Latitude By Obs 24-21 South

Remarks On

Wednesday June the 2 1830
the first part of these 24 hours begins with fine and pleasant weather at 10 AM moderate breezes from the S.E.S lowering low the W.S.W set 1 PM saw a ship low the windward at 6 PM took in the S.E.S gaff sail jib and main sail mile latter part fresh winds from the S.E.S West at 8 AM hoisen up the gaff at 11 AM took in the main sail at 12 AM the water changed low green stowing down low Delagoa Bay saw whales these 24 hours
Latitude By Obs 25-42 South