Remarks On Board Ship Hercules of New Bedford

Remarks On Wednesday July the 20

the first part of this 24 hours begins with fresh winds from the North employed in boiling saw now whales Middle and later part weather much the same employed in boiling saw now whales all the boats on board
Nothing more for remark this 24 hours

Remarks On Thursday July the 21 19

the first part of this 24 hours begins with fresh winds from the NE with moderate breezes at 4 PM saw whales lowed struck and killed at 6 PM got the whale from the ship and moored her fast at 8 finished boiling all hands employed in stowing down Middle and later part much the same weather employed in stowing down ~~the whole on board~~
Nothing more for remark this 24 hours

Remarks On Friday July the 30

the first part of this 24 hours begins with fresh winds from the South employed in cutting in the whale at 4 PM finished cutting and began boiling middle and later part weather more moderate saw fewer whales this day all hands employed in boiling down
Nothing more for remark this 24 hours

Remarks On Saturday July the 31

the first part of this 24 hours begins with fresh winds from the North employed in boiling at 10 PM finished boiling middle and later part weather much the same at 8 PM the wind veered from the South with fresh breezes employed in stowing down Nothing more for remark this 24 hours

Remarks On Sunday August the 1 1830

the first part of this 24 hours begins with fresh winds from the SW to all hands employed stowing down at 6 PM saw whales lowed struck and killed at 8 PM anchored the whale and came on board middle and latter part weather much the same at 10 PM the wind more moderate all boats employed in towing the whale from the ship saw one whale this 24 hours

Remarks On Monday August the 2

the first part of this 24 hours begins with fine weather and clear with moderate breezes from the South employed in towing at 3 PM got the whale from the ship and began cutting at 5 PM finished cutting and began boiling Middle and later part weather much the same employed in boiling and skimming on at 8 PM saw whales lowed struck and killed all boats employed in towing
Nothing more for remark this 24 hours

Remarks On Tuesday August the 3

the first part of this 24 hours begins with fine weather employed in boiling and the boats employed in towing the whale from the ship at 5 PM got the whale from the ship and moored her fast middle part much the same weather later part moderate breezes from the North all hands employed in cutting at 10 PM finished and began boiling saw one whale
Nothing more for remark this 24 hours

Remarks On Wednesday August the 4

the first part of this 24 hours begins with fresh winds from the North employed in boiling saw some whales going quick did not lower for them middle and later part down more moderate employed in stowing down and boiling
Nothing more for remark this 24 hours

Remarks On Thursday August the 5

the first part of this 24 hours begins with fine and pleasant weather employed in boiling and stowing down middle and later part calms at 1 finished boiling at 5 PM all hands employed in stowing down saw now whales
Nothing more for remark this 24 hours

Remarks On Friday August the 6 1830

the first part of this 24 hours begins with fine and pleasant weather employed in stowing down middle part much the same weather later part moderate breezes from the East saw one whale lowed about but could not get near him
Nothing more for remark this 24 hours

Remarks On Saturday August the 7

the first part of this 24 hours begins with fresh winds from the South employed in stowing down and boiling at 4 PM finished boiling middle part fresh gales from the South later part much the same with rain and rain thunder and lightning employed in stowing down nothing more for remarks this 24 hours

Remarks On Sunday August the 8

the first part of this 24 hours begins with fresh gales from the SW employed in stowing down at 6 PM finished stowing down middle part more moderate with rain and later part moderate breezes from the East saw one whale, all hands employed in skimming down
Nothing more for remark this 24 hours

Remarks On Monday August the 9 1830

the first part of this 24 hours begins with fine and pleasant weather employed in boiling and stowing down middle and later part weather much the same employed in boiling down at 10 PM saw whales lowed about but could not get near them
Nothing more for remark this 24 hours

Remarks On Tuesday August the 10

the first part of this 24 hours begins with fine and pleasant weather employed in boiling the whale for the ship at 5 PM got the whale from the ship and moored her fast all hands on board employed in opening middle and later part weather fine at 6 PM began cutting at 8 PM finished and began boiling
Nothing more for remark this 24 hours

Remarks On Wednesday August the 11

the first part of this 24 hours begins with fresh breezes from the SE employed in towing the whale for the ship at 5 PM got the whale from the ship and moored her fast all hands on board employed in opening middle and later part weather fine at 6 PM began cutting at 8 PM finished and began boiling
Nothing more for remark this 24 hours

Remarks On Thursday August the 12

the first part of this 24 hours begins with fine and pleasant weather employed in boiling and stowing down saw some whales but did not lower for them middle and later part weather much the same employed in boiling and stowing down at 10 PM saw whales lowed about but could not get near them
Nothing more for remark this 24 hours

Remarks On Friday August the 13

the first part of this 24 hours begins with fresh winds from the South employed in stowing down and boiling at 4 PM finished boiling middle part fresh gales from the South later part much the same with rain and rain thunder and lightning employed in stowing down nothing more for remarks this 24 hours

Remarks On Saturday August the 14

the first part of this 24 hours begins with fresh gales from the SW employed in stowing down at 6 PM finished stowing down middle part more moderate with rain and later part moderate breezes from the East saw one whale, all hands employed in skimming down
Nothing more for remark this 24 hours