OUR LOCAL DEPARTMENT

ORPHANS' COURT.—Present, Judges Beck, Scott and Hepbron.

Geo. W. Howard, administrator of Isabella Briscoe, returned a list of debts due deceased: filed and ordered to be recorded.

The last will and testament of Charles King, dec'd., having been admitted to probate by the Register of Wills during the recess of Court, was ordered to be recorded.

On application of John T. Dodd, it was ordered that the indentures of Jas. Elton, his apprentice, be cancelled.

R. C. Johnson, executor of the last will and testament of James Stanly, deceased, returned his report of the sales of the real estate, and obtained a conditional order of ratification.

Letters of administration on the estate of Ann E. Stanley, dec'd., were granted to Richard C. Johnson, (the parties entitled having first filed their renunciation) who gave bond with Wm. B. Wilmer and Wm. Welch as sureties in the penalty of two thousand dollars. Richard H. Corbaley and William Casey were appointed to appraise said estate, and the usual notice to creditors ordered.

CO. COMMISSIONERS.—Present Messrs. Roseberry, Griffith and Willson.

An order was passed to send Mrs. Debbie McKenzie to the Maryland Hospital, and to levy for her support there for the remainder of the year 1873.

KILLED.—Thursday afternoon last Jo. Smith (col'd), living just above Washington College, sent his son about twelve years of age into the field to graze a colt, the boy tied the rope or chain to his wrist and after a short time the horse became frightened at something, ran off and dragged the boy to a fence, which the colt jumped but was unable to pull the boy over. When found the lad was dead, and almost entirely stripped of clothing. He had received a severe kick on the head.

The Protestant Episcopal convention of the Diocese of Easton, Bishop Lay presiding, has been in session during the week in our town. The accompanying services have been well attended the church being filled during the day and at evening. We are unable to attempt anything like a report of the proceedings.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE AT PUBLIC SALE.—James A. Pearce, Esq., Attorney for the Mortgagee, will sell at public sale, at 3 o'clock P. M., next Tuesday, at the Voshell House in Chestertown, the well known "Rees' Corner" property, and a large amount of valuable improved land, &c. Read the advertisement, which may be found on the fourth page of to-day's paper.

THE newly elected Board of Commissioners have organized by electing Justice C. A. A. Stanley, President; T. Burton, of the Advocate, Clerk; and re-electing George C. Adkinson Bailiff, Supervisor, Market Master and Weigher.

We see it stated that the restrictions placed upon excursions to our town were also removed. The prohibition against excursions, enacted last summer by the late Board, were only enforced a few weeks during the prevalence of small pox in Baltimore city, and the revocation of the order was published in the Baltimore Sun at the time.

THE AMERICAN FARMER FOR JUNE is at hand with its usual freight of good things for the farm and garden. This old journal does not seem to lose its vigor with age, and those of our readers who are not subscribers should send for specimen numbers which will be furnished free.

THE PEACH CROP.

ESTIMATE BY THE NEW YORK TIMES CORRESPONDENT—A VERY LARGE YIELD.

The very intelligent correspondent of the New York Times, after visiting all parts of the Peninsula, gives the following estimate of the quantity of peaches to be forwarded to market, this season, by rail:

	Baskets.
From the Delaware railroad, in New Castle county, Dela.,	150,000
From the Delaware railroad, in Kent county, Dela.,	1,200,000
From the Delaware railroad, in Sussex county, Dela.,	45,0000
From the Kent county railroad, and Queen Anne and Kent,	1,000 000
Maryland and Delaware railroad	400,000
Junction and Breakwater R. R.	200,000
Delaware and Dorchester R. R.	75,000
Wicomico and P. railroad,	50,000
From Delaware railroad extension in Maryland,	50,000
Total,	3,570,000

This is a higher figure than has been given by any other well-informed person this season, and we are inclined to think it too high. Observe, it refers only to the shipments by rail, which, last year, reached only about two million baskets. The whole marketed crop of 1872, including all the heavy shipments by water, to Philadelphia and Baltimore, was very little over the estimate how given by the Times correspondent of the shipments by rail. The tabular statement, prepared and published by the Commercial, last Fall, showed an aggregate crop, sold, consumed, and canned, of about 3,600,000 baskets.

The Times estimate, however, being made after a visit to all sections of the peach-growing district, still further confirm the statement repeatedly made in these columns that, from present prospects, the crop will be fully up to, and probably something over, that of last year.—Wilmington Commercial.

Movement for Plater's Pardon.—The Cambridge (Md.) Herald and News announces that John R. Plater, convicted of manslaughter in January last, for killing his wife, and sentenced to the penitentiary for five years, will doubtless be speedily pardoned by the Governor. The Herald and News says:

"Mr. Edmund Law Rogers, brother-in-law of Plater, after hunting up some new testimony, visited Cambridge recently, and succeeded in securing the signing of the petition for Plater's pardon by all the jurors, and called at Annapolis, Friday to secure Chief Judge James A. Stewart's name to the petition. If he succeeds in securing the judge's name, there is little doubt but what Governor Whyte will shortly pardon Plater."

A Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says:

Major Elias Griswold, of Baltimore, who has received an appointment as special agent in the Post-office Department, was the Confederate provost marshal at Richmond during the war under General Winder. His appointment was made on May 7, and his compensation is $1,600 per annum and in addition $3 per day. He has been assigned to duty for the present in the office of the solicitor of the department. Mr. Griswold is originally from Dorchester county, which is the home of Judge Spence, the law officer of the Post-office Department. Mr. Griswold was elected on the democratic ticket to the Legislature from one of the Baltimore districts in 1871, and his term does not expire until next November. The Postmaster General was asked this afternoon whether Mr. Griswold had given assurances of his unison with the republican party. He replied that Mr. Griswold would have to be applied to personally for information on that point. The interrogation was, no doubt, superfluous, for when Mr. Griswold last fall could not vote for Horace Greeley, and ran against Hon. Thomas Swann for Congress as a better democrat than any who voted for Greeley, republicans who voted for him stated openly that they had assurances of his entire sympathy with their party.

The New York World says:

The Legislature of 1873 of that State has definitely settled one question, and that is the qualifications requisite to become a member of a Republican reform Legislature. The necessary qualifications are: sufficient wind to blow a tin horn, strength to shake a wooden rattle, and ability to throw a paper ball. The settlement of this important question of qualification will be of great assistance to all Republican nominating conventions called to select representatives for the Legislature.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

Eben F. Perkins, new administrator of the goods and chattels of Ezekiel C. Jones, late of Bonham, Fannin county, Texas, deceased, vs.

Clement F. Jones and Geo. W. T. Perkins, Co-Trustees under the last Will and Testament of E. F. Chambers, late of Kent county, dec'd., for the heirs of Elizabeth A. Jones, Geo. W. T. Perkins, Executor and Trustee, under the last Will and Testament of said E. F. Chambers, Clement F. Jones, Jr., Milnor Jones, Benj. C. Jones, Marshall Jones, and Elizabeth A. Jones.

In Equity. April Term, 1873.

THE OBJECT OF THIS SUIT is to procure a Decree requiring the said Clement F. Jones and George W. T. Perkins, Trustees and Executor, to set forth an account of the personal estate of the said Ezekiel C. Jones, late of Bonham, Texas, now in their hands, the amount and particulars thereof, and that the same may be paid or passed over to the complainant to be administered according to law.

The Bill states that the Orphans' Court for Kent county, in the State of Maryland, has granted Letters of Administration on the personal estate in Kent county, Maryland, of the said deceased, as by a certificate thereof, given by the Register of Wills and filed with the Bill, will fully appear. That the complainant is unable to possess himself of the estate of the said Ezekiel C. Jones, but that the same is held and possessed by two of the defendants, the said Clement F. Jones and Geo. W. T. Perkins, Trustees and Executor, as aforesaid, under and by virtue of the last Will and Testament of Ezekiel F. Chambers, late of Kent county, deceased, which is particularly set forth in the Bill, and a copy of which said will, marked Exhibit "A," is filed therewith. The Bill further shows by accompanying Exhibits that the Rev. Clement F. Jones, Trustee, under and by virtue of the authority in the will of the said Ezekiel F. Chambers in him vested, decided that Ezekiel C. Jones, one of the devisees, the child of Elizabeth A. Jones, was fit and competent to receive the estate devised to him by his Grandfather, the said Ezekiel F. Chambers, and allowed him to receive his rateable portion of the estate so devised, and ordered his Co-Trustee, the said George W. T. Perkins, to pay over the same to the said Ezekiel C. Jones. That the said Ezekiel C. Jones since, and before he had received any part of the money or estate so devised and so directed to be paid over, died intestate in the State of Texas, leaving as his heirs-at-law, his father, the Rev. Clement F. Jones, and Clement F. Jones, Jr., Milnor Jones, Benjamin C. Jones, Marshall Jones, and Elizabeth A. Jones, his brothers and sister: that the Orphans' Court for Kent county, Maryland, granted Letters of Administration as aforesaid: that the said Clement F. Jones and George W. T. Perkins, Trustees and Executor; refused to pay over any part of the said deceased's estate, or to render any account of the aforesaid personal estate in their hands: and that the said defendants, with the exception of the said George W. T. Perkins, reside out of the State of Maryland.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the complainant, by causing a copy of this Order to be inserted in some newspaper published at Chestertown, Kent county, Maryland, once in each of four successive weeks before the 30th day of June next, give notice to the said absent defendants of the object and substance of this Bill, warning them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 30th day of September next, to answer the premises and show cause, if any they have, why a Decree ought not to pass as prayed.
