AN ANCIENT MARRIAGE CERTIFICATE.—The certificate of marriage, a copy of which follows, will doubtless be interesting to many now living in the county. It bears date the 8th day of July, 1767, is written upon parchment, in the bold clerkly style of public documents in those days, and accidentally fell into the hands of a gentleman living near Still Pond Cross Roads in this county:

WHEREAS, Isaac Whitelock, of the Borough of Lancaster in the Province of Pennsylvania, and Sarah Rasin (widow of George Rasin, deceased,) of Kent county and Province of Maryland, having declared their intentions of marriage with each other before several Monthly Meetings of the people called Quakers, at Cecil Meeting House in the Province aforesaid, according to the good order used amongst them, their said proposals of marriage were allowed by said meeting: now these are to certify whom it may concern that for the full accomplishment of their said intentions, this eighth day of the seventh month, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and sixty-seven, they the said Isaac Whitelock and Sarah Rasin appeared at a Public Meeting of the aforesaid people in Kent county and Province aforesaid. And the said Isaac Whitelock taking the said Sarah Rasin by the hand, did in a solemn manner openly declare that he took her, the said Sarah Rasin, to be his wife, promising with the Lord's assistance to be unto her a loving and faithfull husband until death should seperate them, or words to that effect: and then and there in the same assembly the said Sarah Rasin did in like manner openly declare that she took the said Isaac Whitelock to be her husband, promising with the Lord's assistance, to be unto him a loving and faithfull wife until death should seperate them, or words to that effect: and moreover, they the said Isaac Whitelock and Sarah Rasin (she according to the custom of marriage assuming the name of her husband,) as a further confirmation thereof did then and there to these presents set their hands.

ISAAC WHITELOCK,
SARAH WHITELOCK.

We whose names are also subscribed being present at the solemnization of the said marriage and subscription, have as witnesses thereto set our hands the day and year above written: Mary Pearce, Jno. A SEVEN MILLION MORTGAGE.—On Wednesday last a consolidated mortgage from the New Jersey Southern Rail Road Company to John R. Garland and Walter B. Palmer, Trustees, for $7,000,000, was filed in the Clerk's Office for this county.

The New Jersey Southern intends to consolidate with the Long Branch and Sea Shore Railroad, the New Egypt and Farmingdale Railroad, the Tom's River and Waretown Railroad, the Pemberton and New York Railroad, the Vineland Railway, the Smyrna and Delaware Bay Railroad, the Kent County Railroad, the Maryland and Delaware, and such other roads as shall or may be requisite to make a continuous line to Baltimore, and to Norfolk.

The object of the mortgage is to secure Bonds to the amount of seven millions of dollars, and conveys to the trustees above named the aforesaid railroads.

NEWSPAPER POSTAGE.—In order that no misapprehension may exist in regard to the manner in which newspaper postage is to be paid after the 30th of the present month, Mr. Collins, our postmaster, wrote to the Department in regard to the matter, and received the following reply:

POSTOFFICE DEPARTMENT, APPOINTMENT OFFICE, Washington, D. C., June 4, 1873. Sir:—In reply to your letter of May 7th, I have to say, that, in the opinion of the Postmaster General, under the clause of the post office appropriation act "that all laws and parts of laws permitting the transmission by mail of any free matter whatsoever, be, and the same are hereby repealed after June 30th, 1873," postmasters cannot deliver any matter from their offices unless the postage is paid thereon; therefore newspapers placed in a post office for distribution to parties living within its delivery, either through the boxes or general delivery, must be treated the same as though they came in the mail and not delivered until quarterly rates are paid thereon; unless the party addressed prefers to pay transient rates as received.

Very respectfully,
JAS. H. MARR,
Acting First Ass't. Pm. Gen'l.
Postmaster, Chestertown, Md.

QUEEN ANNE'S COUNTY

The Observer gives the following account of a shooting affray at Centreville on Sunday last:

On Sunday last the steamer Kent brought from Baltimore a large number of negroes to hold a meeting at the Bethel Church. For the most part they were sober and well-behaved. One of the party, however became drunk, and being provided with a pistol, he got himself into trouble. His name was Wm. Kell, and as he was passing down Water street he met a negro man named Wm. Ross, who having a carbuncle on his person, was walking slowly and by aid of a cane. Kell approached Ross in a rough manner and asked where he was going to, to which Ross replied that it was none of his business. Kell then struck Ross with his fist. Ross raised his cane to defend himself with, when Kell backed off a few paces, and drawing a Sharp's pistol fired at Ross two shots, both of which took effect, one just above the groin and the other in the thigh. Kell ran, but was soon overtaken and lodged in jail to await the action of the Grand Jury.—Drs. Earle and Holton probed Ross's wounds but failed to extract the balls.—Ross is supposed to be dangerously wounded.

The Baltimore papers gives a different version of the matter with different parties.

TALBOT COUNTY.

Chas. E. Hayward, Esq., State's Attorney for Dorchester county, has published a card, giving as a reason why he did not sign the petition of E. Law Rogers, Esq., for the pardon of John R. Plater, that he might be called on by the Governor to argue the application for pardon on the part of the State. It is reported that the Judges who tried the case, and all the jurors that convicted Plater, have signed the petition for his pardon, on the additional proof furnished by Mr. Rogers that Mrs. Plater committed suicide.

THE VIENNA EXPOSITION.

Under the date of May 26th, Bayard Taylor writes that within the exhibition building the work still goes on, but in many departments there are signs of its approaching end. He says:

In the United States all is activity; spaces are allotted, boxes distributed, and the skeleton form of the display can at last be traced. I think the work for the most part will be finished within a fortnight, so that we shall not be much behind England and France. [The United States department was opened June 5.] We shall have the best exhibition we have ever made, except in art. We shall occupy twice as much space as in Paris, and show a much greater variety of objects. Switzerland is still the only country in complete order. England and France, by hard work, have nearly finished their portions of the main aisles, but their transepts are cumbered with unopened boxes. The same may be said of Italy, Holland and Germany. In the eastern wing Austria and Hungary take the lead; in both but little more is necessary to be done. The gorgeous jewelry and Bohemian crystal of Austria balance in bright effect the incomparable porcelain and pottery of England at the other end. Pausing before a display of Bohemian crystal, I happened to notice a large printed card, headed "U. S. A. Customers." The first name on the list was "Sir Hamilton Fish!" Of the Eastern nations, counting Russia as one, Greece and Tunis are just finishing their work, while Turkey, Persia, Japan and Egypt will each require about eight or ten days more.

VASTNESS OF THE SHOW.

The first characteristic which strikes a visitor is the vast scale upon which the show has been arranged. Yet, although the main building is nearly double the length of that in Hyde Park, it produces nothing like the effect. Owing to the comparative lowness of the wings and the great height of the show-frames and temples and pyramids which fill them the eye finds no vista. Your aching feet tell you the distances you traverse, but your vision is constantly checked, bewildered and deceived. Even the rotunda, which gains by its vast span nearly all which it loses by its squatty character, is deformed by the strange, irregular, inharmonious piles of productions cumbering its floor. Scarcely one of the transepts is visible from its junction with the wing to its extremity. On the other hand the space between the cases is so ample that 50,000 persons might circulate within the building without much jostling. Machinery having its own hall, agriculture its dozen special pavilions, and art its detached temple the internal arrangement is greatly simplified, and will be found sufficiently practical. While America and Western Europe are at least as well represented as on former occasions, all Europe east of a line drawn from the Rhine to the Mediterranean, with Egypt, the Orient and Asia, make their best and most varied display. This will be the main point of distinction between the present and all the former "world's fairs."

THE POLARIS INVESTIGATION.—Secretary Robeson was at the navy yard, Washington, D. C., Saturday morning, with Commodore Reynolds, to hear the statement of Esquimaux Joe and others from the Polaris. Prof. Baird, of the Smithsonian Institute, also takes part in the investigation, the result of which will be made known by the Secretary of Navy next week. The Washington Star says:

"The investigation thus far has developed the fact to the satisfaction of Secretary Robeson and those acting with him that Captain Hall died a natural death, and that the separation of the Polaris from Captain Tyson and his party was purely accidental. This fact is established by some very strong circumstantial evidence, not the least important point being this: that the party with Captain Tyson had all the remaining boats of the Polaris, and if it had been the intention of those on the vessel to forsake Tyson's party, the boats would not have been left with them, thus depriving the vessel of its greatest necessity. Captain Tyson and Esquimaux Joe both testified to the fact that Captain Hall was sick two weeks before his death, and was unconcious most of the time. After the death of Captain Hall the discipline of the Polaris was not so good, but nothing that might be considered a mutiny occurred. After his death all ideas of the expedition were abandoned, and the vessel was headed homeward.

"The Forlic, with the Polaris part on board, is still lying off the Navy yard, and, under orders from the Secretary of the Navy, no one is allowed to communicate with the officers or crew of the vessel, nor sel, nor are the latter permitted to hold communication with any one on shore. The testimony before the informal court of inquiry, of which Secretary Robeson is the head, is taken down in short-hand by a stenographer."

A dispatch from Washington to the New York Herald says: "It was true that Captain Hall did complain, and did accuse those under him of attempting to take his life. He made a confidant of every one who watched by his bedside during the two weeks of sickness preceding his death. But all this time he was delirious. Joe, the Esquimaux, was one of the last who attended Captain Hall. To him he said he believed he had been poisoned. He had said the same thing to others, and complained at length to each one who watched with him of his suspicion generally until he died.

THERE is a proposition to construct a "million dollar telescope." It is to be built under government auspices, and, of course, is to have by far the largest lens in the world. The telescopes now in use bring us but eighty miles from the moon. The new glass would reduce the distance to four or five miles. The Scientific American endorses the project, and Mr. Alvan Clark, one of the best living authorities on the subject, does not think the manufacture of an object glass for such an instrument impracticable.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

Eben F. Perkins, new administrator of the goods and chattels of Ezekiel C. Jones, late of Bonham, Fannin county, Texas, deceased, vs.
Clement F. Jones and Geo. W. T. Perkins, Co-Trustees under the last Will and Testament of E. F. Chambers, late of Kent county, dec'd., for the heirs of Elizabeth A. Jones, Geo. W. T. Perkins, Executor and Trustee, under the last Will and Testament of said E. F. Chambers, Clement F. Jones, Jr., Milnor Jones, Benj. C. Jones, Marshall Jones, and Elizabeth A. Jones.

In Equity. April Term, 1873.

THE OBJECT OF THIS SUIT is to procure a Decree requiring the said Clement F. Jones and George W. T. Perkins, Trustees and Executor, to set forth an account of the personal estate of the said Ezekiel C. Jones, late of Bonham, Texas, now in their hands, the amount and particulars thereof, and that the same may be paid or passed over to the complainant to be administered according to law.

The Bill states that the Orphans' Court for Kent county, in the State of Maryland, has granted Letters of Administration on the personal estate in Kent county, Maryland, of the said deceased, as by a certificate thereof, given by the Register of Wills and filed with the Bill, will fully appear. That the complainant is unable to possess himself of the estate of the said Ezekiel C. Jones, but that the same is held and possessed by two of the defendants, the said Clement F. Jones and Geo. W. T. Perkins, Trustees and Executor, as aforesaid, under and by virtue of the last Will and Testament of Ezekiel F. Chambers, late of Kent county, deceased, which is particularly set forth in the Bill, and a copy of which said will, marked Exhibit "A," is filed therewith. The Bill further shows by accompanying Exhibits that the Rev. Clement F. Jones, Trustee, under and by virtue of the authority in the will of the said Ezekiel F. Chambers in him vested, decided that Ezekiel C. Jones, one of the devisees, the child of Elizabeth A. Jones, was fit and competent to receive the estate devised to him by his Grandfather, the said Ezekiel F. Chambers, and allowed him to receive his rateable portion of the estate so devised, and ordered his Co-Trustee, the said George W. T. Perkins, to pay over the same to the said Ezekiel C. Jones. That the said Ezekiel C. Jones since, and before he had received any part of the money or estate so devised and so directed to be paid over, died intestate in the State of Texas, leaving as his heirs-at-law, his father, the Rev. Clement F. Jones, and Clement F. Jones, Jr., Milnor Jones, Benjamin C. Jones, Marshall Jones, and Elizabeth A. Jones, his brothers and sister: that the Orphans' Court for Kent county, Maryland, granted Letters of Administration as aforesaid: that the said Clement F. Jones and George W. T. Perkins, Trustees and Executor; refused to pay over any part of the said deceased's estate, or to render any account of the aforesaid personal estate in their hands: and that the said defendants, with the exception of the said George W. T. Perkins, reside out of the State of Maryland.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the complainant, by causing a copy of this Order to be inserted in some newspaper published at Chestertown, Kent county, Maryland, once in each of four successive weeks before the 30th day of June next, give notice to the said absent defendants of the object and substance of this Bill, warning them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 30th day of September next, to answer the premises and show cause, if any they have, why a Decree ought not to pass as prayed.
