CLOUDS WITH SILVER LININGS.

BY MARY B. COLBY.

There's never a day so sunny
But a little cloud appears;
There's never a life so happy
But has had its time of tears;
Yet the sun shines out the brighter
When the stormy tempest clears.

There's never a garden growing
With roses in every plot;
There's never a heart so burdened
But it has one tender spot;
We have only to prune the border
To find the forget-me-not.

There's never a cup so pleasant
But has bitter with the sweet;
There's never a path so rugged
That bears not the print of feet;
And we have a Helper promised
For the trials we may meet.

There's never a sun that rises
But we know 'twill set at night;
The tints that gleam in the morning
At evening are just as bright;
And the hour that is the sweetest
Is between the dark and light.

There's never a dream that's happy
But the waking makes us sad;
There's never a dream of sorrow
But the waking makes us glad;
We shall look some day with wonder
At the troubles we have had.

There's never a way so narrow
But the entrance is made straight;
There's always a guide to point us
To the little "wicket gate;"
And the angels will be nearer
To a soul that is desolate.

There's never a heart so haughty
But will some day bow and kneel;
There's never a heart so haughty
But will some day sorrow feel;
There's never a heart so wounded
That the Saviour cannot heal;
There is many a lowly forehead
That is bearing the hidden seal.

There's never a day so sunny
But a little cloud appears;
There's never a life so happy
But has had its time of tears;
Yet the sun shines out the brighter
When the stormy tempest clears.

TOO LATE FOR EXPLANATION.

Lord Mark Kerr, who distinguished himself at the battle of Fontenoy, was a good but eccentric officer, and a terrible duelist. His debut was remarkable. He was a lad of slight, effeminate appearance, apparently void of spirit. His father the Marquis of Lothian, when he brought him to London to join his regiment—the Coldstream Guards—requested the Colonel, his particular friend, to watch over him, and see that he submitted to no improper liberties, and to instruct him in the way he should go, in case he had the misfortune to be insulted.

Those were the days of hard drinking, "prodigious swearing," and brutal manners. This pacific young scion of nobility soon became a butt at mess, a stop-peg to hang practical jokes on, until at last a captain of a year's standing threw a glass of wine in his face. He still said nothing, but wiped his face with his handkerchief, and took no further notice of the insult he had received.

The Colonel thought it was high time to interfere, and invited him to breakfast tete-a-tete, on the following morning at 9 o'clock. Lord Mark arrived punctually, ate his breakfast with composure, and spoke but little. At length the commanding officer broke ground.

"Lord Mark," said he, "I must speak to you on rather a delicate subject, but, as the friend of your father, I am compelled to waive ceremony. Captain L—, yesterday morning, publicly passed an effront on you, which both your honor and the credit of the regiment require you to notice."

"What do you think sir, I ought to do?" inquired Lord Mark.

"Call on him for an explanation," rejoined the Colonel.

"It is, I fear, too late for that," replied the young ensign, "I shot him at eight this morning, and if you take the trouble to look out the front window, you will see him on a shutter."

CHEER HIM.—A fireman was once striving to save a person in danger of perishing in a burning house, but the flames leaped out of the windows and beat him back. "He'll never do it," cried one. "He'll have to come down!" "Cheer him!" shouted another, and in a moment three stirring hurrahs went up from the crowd. It nerved the man's arm and strengthened his spirit. It quickened his movements, and in another minute, he bore the child down in safety to its mother's arms.

What a power is in that cheering! So it often is with those who are ready to give out by the way. They would have perished but for some stirring word of cheer. God put it in the heart of some one to speak to them. Have you ever cheered a desponding heart thus? Or have you let the opportunity slip by with the feeling: "Am I my brother's keeper?" We are all, in a sense, our brother's keepers. Is there a poor, down-hearted man in your community whom sickness and misfortune have reduced? Don't give him the cold shoulder, as is the world's custom when a person is unfortunate. Cheer him, and see if it will not infuse new life into his heart. Do more. Lend a helping hand.

What would you have done that day your wheel got stuck in a rut, if a neighbor had not happened along who could lend you a helping hand for five minutes? It was very little for him to do, but it was worth a great deal to you. A little after, you were rolling along prosperously, as if nothing had happened. Just so a little cheer and a little help puts a poor neighbor on the road again. Surely it were worse than churlish to refuse to give what costs you such a little effort, yet it is worth so much,

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

Eben F. Perkins, new administrator of the goods and chattels of Ezekiel C. Jones, late of Bonham, Fannin county, Texas, deceased, vs.
Clement F. Jones and Geo. W. T. Perkins, Co-Trustees under the last Will and Testament of E. F. Chambers, late of Kent county, dec'd., for the heirs of Elizabeth A. Jones, Geo. W. T. Perkins, Executor and Trustee, under the last Will and Testament of said E. F. Chambers, Clement F. Jones, Jr., Milnor Jones, Benj. C. Jones, Marshall Jones, and Elizabeth A. Jones.

In Equity. April Term, 1873.

THE OBJECT OF THIS SUIT is to procure a Decree requiring the said Clement F. Jones and George W. T. Perkins, Trustees and Executor, to set forth an account of the personal estate of the said Ezekiel C. Jones, late of Bonham, Texas, now in their hands, the amount and particulars thereof, and that the same may be paid or passed over to the complainant to be administered according to law.

The Bill states that the Orphans' Court for Kent county, in the State of Maryland, has granted Letters of Administration on the personal estate in Kent county, Maryland, of the said deceased, as by a certificate thereof, given by the Register of Wills and filed with the Bill, will fully appear. That the complainant is unable to possess himself of the estate of the said Ezekiel C. Jones, but that the same is held and possessed by two of the defendants, the said Clement F. Jones and Geo. W. T. Perkins, Trustees and Executor, as aforesaid, under and by virtue of the last Will and Testament of Ezekiel F. Chambers, late of Kent county, deceased, which is particularly set forth in the Bill, and a copy of which said will, marked Exhibit "A," is filed therewith. The Bill further shows by accompanying Exhibits that the Rev. Clement F. Jones, Trustee, under and by virtue of the authority in the will of the said Ezekiel F. Chambers in him vested, decided that Ezekiel C. Jones, one of the devisees, the child of Elizabeth A. Jones, was fit and competent to receive the estate devised to him by his Grandfather, the said Ezekiel F. Chambers, and allowed him to receive his rateable portion of the estate so devised, and ordered his Co-Trustee, the said George W. T. Perkins, to pay over the same to the said Ezekiel C. Jones. That the said Ezekiel C. Jones since, and before he had received any part of the money or estate so devised and so directed to be paid over, died intestate in the State of Texas, leaving as his heirs-at-law, his father, the Rev. Clement F. Jones, and Clement F. Jones, Jr., Milnor Jones, Benjamin C. Jones, Marshall Jones, and Elizabeth A. Jones, his brothers and sister: that the Orphans' Court for Kent county, Maryland, granted Letters of Administration as aforesaid: that the said Clement F. Jones and George W. T. Perkins, Trustees and Executor; refused to pay over any part of the said deceased's estate, or to render any account of the aforesaid personal estate in their hands: and that the said defendants, with the exception of the said George W. T. Perkins, reside out of the State of Maryland.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the complainant, by causing a copy of this Order to be inserted in some newspaper published at Chestertown, Kent county, Maryland, once in each of four successive weeks before the 30th day of June next, give notice to the said absent defendants of the object and substance of this Bill, warning them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 30th day of September next, to answer the premises and show cause, if any they have, why a Decree ought not to pass as prayed.

Iron in the Blood

PERUVIAN SYRUP — AN IRON TONIC

MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.

The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protoxide of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "a thousand ills," simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damages and waste, searching out morbid secretions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.

This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing* Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.

Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.

See that each bottle has* PERUVIAN SYRUP *blown in the glass.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

For restoring to Gray Hair its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. It soon restores faded or gray hair to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, fallen hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed; but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning grey or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. The restoration of vitality it gives to the scalp arrests and prevents the formation of dandruff, which is often so uncleanly and offensive. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre, and a grateful perfume.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Among the great discoveries of modern science, few are of more real value to mankind than this effectual remedy for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. A vast trial of its virtues, throughout this and other countries, has shown that it does surely and effectually control them. The testimony of our best citizens, of all classes, establishes the fact, that CHERRY PECTORAL will and does relieve and cure the afflicting disorders of the Throat and Lungs beyond any other medicine. The most dangerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs yield to its power; and cases of Consumption, cured by this preparation, are publicly known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed, were they not proven beyond dispute. As a remedy it is adequate, on which the public may rely for full protection. By curing Coughs, the forerunners of more serious disease, it saves unnumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attack of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Tender lungs need this defence; and it is unwise to be without it. As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of Childhood, CHERRY PECTORAL is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on them. It acts speedily and surely against ordinary colds, securing sound and health-restoring sleep. No one will suffer troublesome Influenza and painful Bronchitis, when they know how easily they can be cured.

Originally the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, no cost or toil is spared in making every bottle in the utmost possible perfection. It may be confidently relied upon as possessing all the virtues it has ever exhibited, and capable of producing cures as memorable as the greatest it has ever effected.

THE EUREKA FANNING MILL.

The Greatest Invention OF THE 19th CENTURY!

FARMERS, LOOK TO YOUR INTEREST.

THE attention of Farmers and Mechanics is particularly directed to the combined economy, utility and practicability of the Eureka Mill, and to the many other advantages it possesses over every othhr Fanning Mill which has been introduced to the public. It is the fruit of long and patient investigation by the inventor, who has made it his constant study for over twenty years. He has secured several patents for Mills, and has always been rewarded with the best of success. But not feeling satisfied with his former attainments, he determined to reach the climax, and now he now believes that his new invention will warrant him in exclaiming in the joy of his heart, like the philosopher, Phythagoras, EUREKA, signifying in the Grecian language, "I have found it." This has given the name to this new Mill.

In this Mill are all the former improvements, to which have been added several more, adding still greater advantages than were at first anticipated, or even thought possible by the inventor himself. It embraces the three great essentials necessary in every invention.

It combines Utility, Economy and Practicability!

THE EUREKA MILL

Is small and lighter, and is capable of doing more and better work in a given time than any other Mill ever invented. It is the only Mill that will successfully remove from wheat such pests as Cockle, Garlic, Oats, Rye, &c.

Should an extra quality of grain for seed or gristing purposes be required, it can be so arranged as to catch in one box perfect grain, and in the other, grain fit for market or mill. Here is made a great saving usually lost sight of; for nearly one-quarter of the grain cleaned in the common Mills is lost when sown, on account of shrunken kernels and inferior grain. The Eureka Mill saves all this, and gives seed every kernel of which will grow when put into the ground, and this saving will, in a short time, pay for the Mill.

HINES & BURCHINAL,
Chestertown, Md.,

Owners of the Mill, are having them manufactured at the Sash Factory and Planing Mill of NOLAND & Co., Port Deposit, Md., which is a guarantee they will be put up in the very best manner.
