Brig Kate Cary Cruising

Remarks on board Thursday February the 13th 1862

Commenced with light breezes from the eastward and fair weather the watch employed working up the weighing of sundown - light airs had light breezes throughout the night at daylight made sail found work setting up rigging and a French Brig steering to the Southward latter had light breezes inclined to the northward Lat 25.46 S

Remarks on board Friday February the 14th 1862

Commenced with light breezes from east north east and good weather the watch employed setting up rigging at sundown took in steering sail and saw a bark latter bearing to the southward part of the night nine at the first and middle strong and light had strong breezes nothing in sight Lat 24.56 S Long 86.40 W

Remarks on board Saturday February the 15th 1862

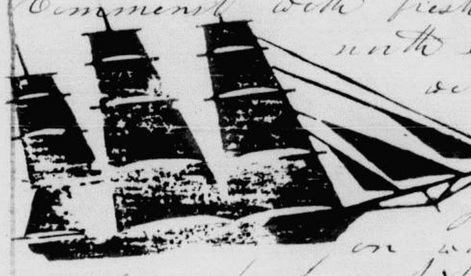
Commenced with strong breezes from north east and fair weather nothing going on with remarkable at five o'clock P.M. hailed ship to the northward and eastward at sundown took in the jib had fresh breezes throughout the night at daylight made sail saw an English ship steering to the northward and an American ship steering to the southward latter part fresh breezes nothing in sight heading south east by the compass

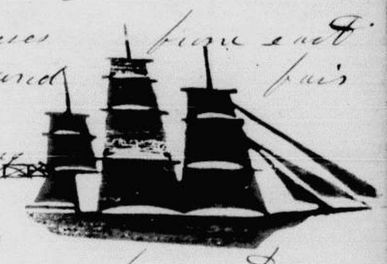
Lat 25.25 S
Long 83.34 W

Brig Kate Cary Cruising

Remarks on board Sunday February the 16th 1862

Commenced with fresh breezes from east north east and fair weather





going on with remarkable at sundown hailed ship to the northward and took in the jib had light breezes throughout the night at daylight turned the ropes end of the topsail and at the first light part light breezes hailed ship to the southward Lat 24.56 S Long 85.22

Remarks on board Monday February the 17th 1862

Commenced with light breezes from the eastward and fair weather at five o'clock P.M. were overhauled by the northward at sundown took in sail heading north by fine weather throughout the night at daylight set up sail made ready for action and separated latter part fine breezes steering to the northward Lat 24.34 S Long 86.00 W

Remarks on board Tuesday February the 18th 1862

Commenced with fine breezes from east north east and fair weather the watch at work rigging the weighing at seven o'clock P.M. had a heavy had fresh breezes throughout the night at daylight took in the foreto'gansail breezes strong latter part strong breezes steering to the northward by the wind nothing in sight Lat 24.38 S Long 86.17 W