Remarks On Board Bark Lancer Of New Bedford Capt James H Fisher Master

Monday May 20th 1878
Commences with light airs from the Southward Course N Wly W one Sail in Sight - Throughout these 24 hours light airs and Calms Employed a boteing out the Windlass and giveing it a thorow cleaning Capt Fisher Taking & Coating Coating the Bits to keep them tight -

Tuesday May 21st
Commences with light airs and Calms heading off N W by W one Sail in Sight Ends with fine weather Employed Painting Iron work and Windlass Lear gamed with the Lucretia
Lat 35.35 S

Wednesday May 22nd
Commences with fine weather from N.E Steering off N W by W in company with the Lucretia Ends with fresh Breezes from the Northward heading to the Westward by the wind
Lat 34.50 S
Long 79.03 W

Thursday May 23rd
Commences with Stiff Breezes from N at 7 Stiff Gale close reefed Top Sails Middle Stiff Gale from N Ends moderate and veering to S.S.W - with swell and a high Sea a running one Sail in Sight at Noon saw the Island of ~~[illegible]~~ Lundeyannales bearing E by G.E.
Lat 34.30 S
Long

Friday May 24th 1878
Commences with light airs fresh Breezes from S W to W.S.W heading to Westward by the wind at 7 weaken Ship to the Southward Ends with fine weather from N.N.W Employed Painting Iron work with various jobs
Lat 34.15 S
Long 79.09 W

Saturday May 25th
Commences with fine weather from N.N.W heading to the Westward Employed getting down the Fore Rigging Middle and latter fresh Gale from N.N.W Past to the S of Masefuera about 5 or 8 miles to the S at Meridian
No Obs

Sunday May 26th
Commences with a fresh Gale and thick raining from N.N.W heading to the Westward Short Sail Ends with thick and raining weather from the Westward No Obs

Displaced the Cook that was Shipped in Port put him forward Put in forward Hand as Cook

Monday May 27th
Commences with thick weather from W.S.W heading to the Southward Ends with Stiff Breeze and rugged from the Westward watches Employed at various jobs securing the Boat -
Lat 33.57 S
Long 81.42 W