LOCAL NEWS.

ORPHAN'S COURT.—Present, Judges Beck, Scott and Hepbron.

The court passed a number of claims against the estates of deceased parties.

Rebecca and Franklin M. Gooding, admrs. of A. L. Gooding, returned a list of sperate and desperate debts due said deceased, which were filed and ordered to be recorded.

John T. Smyth, admr. of Robert Ruth, dec'd., returned his first administration account, which was passed and ordered to be recorded.

Clement F. Jones, trustee for his children, was authorized and directed to loan certain funds on judgment.

The admrs. of John Greenwood, dec'd., were authorized to compromise a certain judgment held by John Greenwood, decd., against Sarah R. Jewell and Jas. P. Jewell, in his life time.

R. C. Johnson, executor of Jas. Stanley, obtained a final order of ratification of sale of real estate sold as executor.

☞ A letter from IDA, dated July 31, came to hand too late for publication last week.

The letter opened with a reference to the refreshing rains that had visited that section, and the shipment of a limited number of boxes of the Hale's Early peaches, bringing two fifty to three dollars per box.

The prospect of the early completion of the railroad to Gresham Hall seems to have given satisfaction to the farmers of the neighborhood.

An account is given of the excursion of the Beethoven Musical Association of Baltimore, to Rock Hall, on the steamer Zaidee. The party brought with them an organ, and after dinner in the grove, a choir of forty entertained the company with music. The party enjoyed themselves hugely, some with croquet, others with base ball, and others still, fishing.

Ida then describes a Pic Nic, attended by special invitation, held in the "Park at Rees' wharf." The day was spent in the most delightful manner, and the most tempting viands filled the tables. After a refreshing rain in the afternoon a number of the party who had provided themselves with bathing dresses, enjoyed the invigorating waters of the Chesapeake. The waves were rolling high and bathing was pronounced fine.

When the railroad is completed, our Bay Side will doubtless become a place of considerable resort.

A SAD CASE OF DROWNING occurred on Thursday afternoon in Chesapeake Bay off the mouth of Fairlee Creek. John B. Hynson, som of Mr. Thomas Hynson, residing near Chestertown, went with a younger brother and a cousin, to catch crabs off the shore at Mr. John Greenwood's. During the afternoon the party went in bathing, and in attempting to swim across the creek young Hynson, though an expert swimmer, was drowned. The deceased was a student at Washington College, and gave indications of considerable talent. He was about nineteen years of age.

☞ We regret to learn that DR. E. A. VANNORT of Worton, has been extremely ill for several weeks with inflamation of the abdominal viscera. He is, however, again convalescent.

BOAT RACE AND FISH FEAST.—There will be a boat race on Wednesday, Aug. 13th, 1873, in connection with the Grand Fish Feast that is to be held in the Grove at Rees' wharf on that day. The prizes—two silver cups—are as follows: First prize will be given to the fastest boat of the largest size; second prize to the one of the smallest size. Distance, &c., will be made known on day of race.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE.—The Board of Visitors and Governors of Washington College have reorganized the faculty of this institution and elected the following instructors: As Principal, Prof. William J. Rivers, of the University of South Carolina, from Columbia, S. C. Vice Principal, Prof. William H. Zimmerman, of Baltimore, Md., formerly of the Western Maryland College at Westminster, Md. Instructor in the Preparatory Department, Joseph Peterson, Esq., of Calvert county, Md., recently instructor in the public school of Chestertown. As has been heretofore stated, Judge Wickes has been recently elected President of the Board of Visitors, and there seems a determination on the part of the Board to build up this old institution of learning.

The gentlemen who have been elected to the several positions bring the highest testimonials as practical instructors of youth.

☞ The Rev. Mr. Roberts will preach at Still Pond next Monday night, the 11th instant.

☞ The Rt. Rev. Henry C. Lay, Bishop of the Diocese, will preach (D. V.) at St. Clements' Church, near Massey's at 10½ A. M., on Sunday the 17th of Aug., 1873.

ENTERPRISE.—The Murray Hill Publishing Company, 129 East 28th street, have just made arrangements with "The Graphic Company" for a further 15,000 of that unique chromo, "Throw Physic to the Dogs," a copy of which they present to every purchaser of Dr. Foote's most popular book, Plain Home Talk and Medical Common Sense.

Both chromo and volume seems to have touched the mirth and sympathy of the people. It is to the credit of the Doctor that he designed the picture which Bispham has so admirably painted. The Doctor is strongly "new school," and can afford to humorously illustrate on canvas the exclamation of Hamlet, "Throw Physic to the Dogs!"—New York Daily Tribune.

PENINSULA ITEMS.

CECIL COUNTY

Six horses were sold in Elkton, recently for $670.00.

QUEEN ANNE'S COUNTY.

The County Commissioners have made a levy for the payment of witnesses attending court, avoiding the necessity of poor persons selling their certificates at a discount.

A colored girl named Holliday, living in Centreville on Wednesday evening of last week set fire to her clothes in attempting to light a fire with coal oil and was burned in such a manner as to cause her death.

The stack yard of John R. Emory, jr., was partially destroyed by fire one day last week by a spark from a steam engine which was being used to drive the thresher, fourteen panels of fencing and nine shocks of wheat were destroyed with a quantiy of straw.

The scholars of the Centreville academy and High School gave a literary entertainment at the the Court House on Monday evening of last week under the direction of their teacher Professor Harley.

The Observer regrets that the placing of the new Centreville Hotel under contract has been temporarily postponed.—The difficulty seems to be that the plan selected is too expensive.

CAROLINE COUNTY.

The Denton Journal says:

Our office was visited during the present week by a gentleman of this county, residing in the 4th Election District, near Harmony, who, we ascertained, has been married eleven years the 1st of last May, though he is not yet twenty-seven years old. He was married when only 15 years old, lacking several months of being 16. The lady he married at the time was only 14 years old, and is now 25, though she has been married 11 years and more and is the mother of five children, two boys and three girls. The eldest, which is a girl, was born when the father was only sixteen and the mother fifteen years old. Was there ever in these parts an earlier marriage or younger parents? Strange to say the young bridegroom and parent above alluded to is the child of a father who was seventy-two when his last child was born, and was seventy-one when last married, and had great grand children older than his last child who is the subject of these remarks. Truly the disposition in this family to marry seems strong, if not hereditary, and the aversion to a state of celibacy very great.—This old bridegroom and father was born two years in advance of the Declaration of Independence, was a soldier in the war of 1812, and lived to be eighty-five years old. There was fifty years or more difference in the age of his oldest and youngest child. This old gentleman left a family of several children, three of them are still living, one being nearly 70 years old, and has been married fifty years. As yet but one of the family have died under sixty-five years of age. So it would seem that marriage, both early and late, promotes longevity, and that this county is hard to beat on the score of early and late marriages, as well as on account of the very advanced age that many of its citizens arrive to.

Frank Noodles' visit to Chestertown.

Frank Noodles to our town he came,
Regardless of the weather,
To pay a certain little claim
For wearing out shoe-leather.

That Frank, he is a jovial one,
And loves a glass of toddy,
So, over to a drinking-house he run,
And treated every body.

And when he had his money spent,
His little bill unpaid,
Straightway around to SHAW'S he went,
And unto him he said:

"I have no funds, and you must wait
At least another year;
This drouth has knocked me back of late,
But I'll pay it—don't you fear."

AUGUST 1st, 1873.

All indebted to Thomas H. Whaland will be good enough to settle. His professional engagements will not allow him to make individual calls. Hoping this notice will relieve him from any more unpleasant proceedings, he remains,

With much respect,
THOS. H. WHALAND.
