LOCAL NEWS.

DIED, at his boarding house in Chestertown, on Saturday last, R. WILLIAMSON RINGGOLD, Esq., in the 72d year of his age. Mr. Ringgold stood pre-eminent in our county as a scholar and a high toned gentleman. He was a graduate of Princeton college, taking the highest honor of his class. After his college course was completed, he studied law and practiced his profession for a short time. His inclinations, however, seem to have been of a scholastic rather than a legal turn, and abandoning his profession, he accepted the position of Principal of Washington college, where he spent a long and useful term of service, finally abandoning it on account of ill health. Mr. Ringgold served one or more terms in the Legislature of our State and was amember of the last Constitutional Convention. He was recognized as among the first linguists of our State and was possessed of fine oratorical powers. His former students, of whom there are many scattered over the State, will ever bear testimony to his faithfulness as an instructor, and will always remember him. He was appointed superintendent of public schools for our county under the last Act of Assembly, which he was obliged to resign on account of feeble health, from which he never recovered, being confined to his room since that time.

ORPHANS' COURT.—Present, Judges Beck, Scott, and Hepbron.

The court passed a number of claims against the estates of deceased parties.

Richard C. Johnson, admr. of Ann E. Stanley, returned a list of sales of personal estate of deceased, and his first administration account, which were ordered to be recorded.

Richard C. Johnson, admr. of W. C. Pennington, dec'd., returned a list of sales of the personal estate of dec'd.; also list of debts due deceased, which were proved, filed, and ordered to be recorded.

David Clemenrs and John Nowland returned their report of the annual rental value of the real estate of Henry L. Boyd, a minor, in the hands of Henrietta Boyd, his guardian: filed and ordered to be recorded.

In the matter of the estate of Samuel W. Canady, in the Orphans' Court for Kent county, it was ordered—that

Sarah E. Warner appeals from the order of the Orphans' Court of Kent county, passed on the 22d day of July, 1873, sending certain issues specified and set forth in said order for trial to the Circuit Court of Kent county, and requires the Register of Wills of said county to file this order of appeal and docket this appeal and send record to the Court of Appeals of Maryland.

HENRY STOCKBRIDGE,
Att'y. of Sarah E. Warner, one of the distributees of the estate of Samuel W. Canady.

THOMAS S. BORDLEY, Esq., as Attorney for the heirs of Samuel W. Canady, on Tuesday last sold the real estate of deceased, in Chestertown, as follows:

Dwelling and store-room, on High st. above Kent, occupied by Capt. Thompson, to Simon Welch, for $1,000. The Restaurant property on Cross street, occupied by John Armstrong, to James W. Chaney, for $1,000. The two-story and attic frame dwelling, occupied by Henry Harris, (colored) to Simon Welch, for $505. The dwelling occupied by A. J. Willing, to same, for $390. The dwellings on Fish street, occupied by Lettina Anderson, Wm. Wilmer and Wm. Dorsey, to same, for $390, $665, and $400, respectively. Dwelling occupied by Mary Smith and M. Alcott, to same, for $465. Total amount of sales, $4,425.

THE Methodist Protestant Campmeeting in Baker's woods closed last Wednesday morning, having continued twelve days. The weather the first six days was so wet as to greatly interfere with the religious exercises, the attendance, and the general comfort of those encamped on the ground. During the last six days the weather was all that could be desired and the attendance good. Excellent order was maintained throughout; and the entire management, under the direction of Rev. R. Scott Norris, the preacher in charge, we learn gave great satisfaction to tent-holders and visitors. The ministerial attendance was large, and the sermons preached were considered generally to be able, and many of them eloquent. There were about forty conversions.

THE PEACH GLUT, we are pleased to learn is over, and the last few days fruit has sold well, bringing from two to two dollars and seventy-five cents per crate. Last Saturday it is said there were more peaches on the wharves in Baltimore than ever known before, and consequently sold for a mere trifle, say from 10 to 50 cents per crate. A great many of the city cartmen abandoning their regular business, loaded their carts and engaged in peach-peddling, and for once all who desired had the opportunity of indulging to their hearts' content, in peaches at their own prices. The occasion of this great glut was the flood of Wednesday, the 20th, which destroyed a great part of the Chesapeake and Delaware canal, and also the Delaware railroad, thus cutting off the greater part of the peninsula from the Philadelphia and New York markets. Consequently the several railroads having outlets on tributaries of the Chesapeake brought immense quanties of fruit, which at once by steamer and sailboat was hurried off to Baltimore. The Chester river steamers Friday and Saturday were unable to accommodate all the shippers, and a great deal of fruit was left to perish on the wharves. The unfortunates in many instances, were loud in their complaints, and suits for damages against the Company for not running their boats according to the advertised schedule, were talked of. But we presume the present good prices will restore all to their wonted good humor, and more especially when considering the fact that had the fruit reached market the sales would scarcely have covered expenses.

LOSS OF A HORSE.—Last Monday Mr. Samuel Gleaves drove over to Church Hill where his horse (a valuable animal) was taken sick and died shortly after his return home.

EXCURSION.—A Lodge of Knights of Pythias, of Havre-de-Grace, made an excursion on the steamer "Pentz" to this town last Saturday, arriving about three o'clock in the afternoon. The party was quite a large one.

THE BOMBAY HOOK RAILROAD.

THE MARYLAND AND DELAWARE CONNECTION—PROGRESS OF THE PIER—MR. GOULD'S LATE PURCHASE—CHANGE IN THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS, ETC.

[From the Smyrna Times, 20th.]

"Matters are progressing energetically as usual, on the Smyrna & Delawere Bay Railroad. Peremptory orders came last week from headquarters. Long Branch, to make connection at Clayton with the Maryland & Delaware Railroad by Monday of this week, and work continued right on, through rain, Sunday and all, until yesterday, when the connection was effected. Thus the first continuous line of railroad is made between the two Bays, commencing at Oxford, on the Chesapeake and terminating at Bombay Hook, on the Delaware. This may be worthy of note in a historical way. What significance there may be in the peremptory order, (if any) we do not know. A great quantity of ties and other lumber for the road are along the line of the Maryland and Delaware road, and the connection is most probably made to secure this material. Work on the pier or slip at Bombay Hook is being hurried forward with as much speed as possible. About fifty workmen are engaged upon it—all that can be furnished with accommodations. It will be five or six weeks before it is finished.

The grading is all finished between Clayton's and Massey's, and for some distance beyond Massey's. Tracklaying, from Clayton, on this graded portion will commence in a very short time."

The Times corrects a statements which has been going the rounds of the press to the effect that Jay Gould had become a real estate owner in Sussex county, locating the site of his purchase in Kent county, Md., at the Chesapeake terminus of his New York and Washington R. R. The Times then continues:

Last week a change was made in the Board of Directors, at a meeting of the Company, held in this town, Messrs. Bentley and Sneden, Vice President and Chief Engineer of the South Jersey R. R., having tendered their resignations as Directors in the Smyrna & Del. Bay Co., the vacancies were filled by the election of Dr. B. S. Gootee and N. F. Wilds,—The following gentleman now compose the Board: J. F. Bingham, President; John H. Hoffecker, H. C. Douglass, H. N. Wickersham, J. C. Stockley, and the two gentleman above named.

There are reports frequently put in circulation that Jay Gould is coming to visit us, to locate the depot site, etc., but we are assured that he will not take a trip over the road until it is completed to the Chesapeake terminus; so the quid nunes may as well stop circulating their underground telegrams.

☞ Apparently, no pubulum is so grateful to the stomachs of aspiring politicians as a term of office in the United States Senate. Every State has its phalanx of aspirants for Senatorial honors. Doubtless this general desire to serve the country in the halls of Congress, is instigated by that pure patriotism which is inherent to the hearts of the American people, yet there are not wanting men who think that the love of "green-backs" is in many cases as potential as patriotism. The large number of candidates for the Senate is not, however, so unusual as to attract special attention, but the novel feature of the present campaign is the prominent position occupied by Cabinet officers and State Governors among these "starters" for the Senitorial contest. The increased patronage of the Federal Executive during and since the war has placed in the hands of the President such vast political influence, as to create well grounded fears that the rights and liberties of the several States may be trampled under foot by the Chief Magistrate at any time. President Grant has already introduced this new influence into our National politics. The success which he met with in securing his own re-election leads him to a repetition of the same policy during the coming campaign for the benefit of Administration candidates for the U. S. Senate; and in Massachusetts and Virginia the influence of the Administration will aid its Gubernatorial candidates also. In our own State an effort will be made to secure the election of a Republican Legislature pledged to vote for Grant's Postmaster General, Creswell, for U. S. Senator. The edict has gone forth from Washington that every office in the State shall be sacrificed—every interest shall be made subservient to the one great object of sending Mr. Creswell to the Senate. So also we presume is the programme arranged in Ohio for the benefit of Mr. Delano the Secretary of the Interior, and the hero of the Modoc Indian policy. The President seems to regard the Senate as a kind of "Happy Hunting Ground" established especially for the benefit of retiring Cabinet officers. State Governors also t[ake] very prominent position as candidates in the coming election, and there are now no less than six or eight of these gentlemen in different States anxious to occupy a seat in the Senate. Some of the Governers adopt for themselves the policy which Grant uses for the benefit of his Cabinet members, and rely on the State patronage to elevate themselves to the Senate chamber, and are dealing out the offices at their disposal with reference only to the Senate, and are paying no regard whatever to the qualification of appointees. That it is useless for any one to apply for office or position who is not in favor of the Governor for the U. S. Senate, is in some States recognized as a fact too well known to be disputed. It is melancholy indeed to contemplate a state of affairs so wholly at war with the theory of our Government and the true interests of the people; and we cannot understand how men of refinement and culture—men of known purity in the private walks of life, can be thus guilty of prostituting their high offices to their own selfish ends.—Calvert Journal.

MRS. SURRATT'S EXECUTION.—Judge Holt has recently published in the Washington Chronicle a long communication, accompanied by numerous letters, in which he denies the statement that, after the sentence of Mrs. Mary E. Surratt to death on the charge of being concerned in the assassination of President Lincoln, he (Holt) when presenting the record of her trial to President Johnson, withheld from him a petition, signed by five members of the Court, recommending, in consideration of her age and sex, a commutation of her death-sentence to imprisonment for life in the penitentiary, and, also, that the President had been thus led to approve the proceedings and sentence without any knowledge whatever of the existence of this petition.

WHEN the Atlantic cable was first laid one danger was thought to menace it near shore—the dragging anchors of ships; and one in deep sea, the probable running against it of large fishes. The latter was treated by scientists as absurd. A remarkable incident that happened this summer to the Indian cable, three hundred miles long, between Kunachee and Gwadur, proves that after all very strange things happen in the depth of the sea. The cable broke, and ships were sent to repair it. They grappled it, but on winding in the cable unusual resistance was experienced, as if it were foul of rocks, but after persevering for some time the body of an immense whale, entangled in the cable, was brought to the surface, when it was found to be firmly secured by two and a half turns of the cable immediately above the tail. Sharks and other fish had partly eaten the body, which was rapidly decomposing, the jaws falling away on reaching the surface. The tail, which measured fully twelve feet across, was perfect, and covered with barnacles at the extremities. The sea being too rough at the time to make use of the boats, an attempt was made to haul the whale on board, but its own weight broke it away from the injured cable as soon as it was above the surface. Apparently, the whale was at the time of entanglement using the cable to free itself from parasites, such as barnacles, which annoy these animals in that sea very much, and the cable, hanging in a loop over a submarine precipice, he probably, with a fillip of his tail, twisted it round him, and thus came to an untimely end.

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION.—HAGERSTOWN, August 27.—The State board of education met at Hagerstown this morning at nine o'clock, the president, Prof. M. A. Newell, in chair, and Messrs' George M. Loyd, P. A. Witner, and Dr. Samuel Kepler, secretary, present.

On motion of Mr. Witner, the president was instructed to prepare a circular, addressed to the county boards of school commissioners, requesting them to enforce the law requiring teachers to hold certificates before taking charge of schools, and instructing the treasurers not to pay them any salary where this rule is not observed; and also requiring teachers to enter into a written contract with the district trustees before assuming control of schools.

On motion, it was ordered that it is the decision of this board that the power of appointing assistant teachers is in the county commissioners and not in the district trustees.

The board then adjourned to meet at the call of the president.

A RACE BETWEEN A MAN AND A HORSE.—For several days past it was understood that a race between Lipman Pike, a member of the Lord Baltimore Base Ball Club, and the trotting horse Clarence, owned by Peter Pollard, of this city, would take place yesterday afternoon at Newington Park. The novelty of the affair attracted about eight hundred persons to the park, a larger attendance being prevented by the threating character of the weather. Pike was the favorite, the odds on him being two to one. The stipulations of the race were that Pike should run one hundred yards and the horse trot the same distance Pike to start from the line at the word, and the horse to have a start of twenty-five yards in the rear of the line, the purse being $250.

At the word "go" the horse led, but before he had travelled twenty yards of the track Pike made a spurt and passed his equine adversary and bounded to the score at a lively rate, and reaching the same about twelve feet in advance of the horse. Time, ten seconds, being one second and a quarter slower than made by Pike in his late race with Ebaugh.—Pike was clad in flesh-colored tights, and was unincumbered with either cap or shoes. After the race had been decided the friends and backers of Pike were so overjoyed at the result that they wished to place him on their shoulders and parade him about the ball ground, but he modestly declined the honor.—Sun.

A CARD.

AUGUST 1st, 1873.

All indebted to Thomas H. Whaland will be good enough to settle. It would give him much pleasure to indulge for any length of time if it were possible, but he owes some money which must be paid either by collections, borrowing at a premium, or assigning paper at a discount, which he ought not to be compelled to do with the amount of money he has due, and which ought to have been collected a long time ago. His professional engagements will not allow him to make individual calls. Hoping this notice will relieve him from any more unpleasant proceedings, he remains,

With much respect,
