LOCAL NEWS.

THIRD ANNUAL FAIR OF THE KENT COUNTY AGRICULTURAL ASSOCIATION.—There seems no good reason why the approaching exhibition of this organization should not prove a great success. The location last year, did not offer the same facilities for reaching the grounds as will be presented this time.

The Fair commences on the thirtieth of this month and will continue three days. The grounds will be at Worton Station on the Kent County Railroad, three miles from Chestertown, having direct communication with Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, daily. Visitors from the cities can reach the Fair Grounds at noon each day. Ample arrangements have been made for the accommodation of visitors and exhibitors. Stock, machinery, &c., can be landed directly on the grounds of the Association, from the cars.

The grounds will be open for the reception of animals and articles designed for exhibition, on Monday the 29th, after 9 o'clock, A. M. All animals and articles must be entered and ticketed at the business office, before being carried within the Society's enclosure. Unless by special permission, no animal or articles can be entered after 12, M., on Tuesday, September 30th. Persons living abroad can make their entries by letter: if of live stock, the name and age of the animal, the name of sire, and name and residence of the owner must be given.

There will be trials of speed each day. Hon. James T. Earle, of Queen Anne's county, will deliver the Annual Oration.

A list of premiums are offered, which can be obtained by addressing the Secretary of the board, at Hanesville, Kent county; as also the rules and regulations and all necessary information regarding location, transportation, &c., &c.

It is to be hoped that the citizens of this county will set their minds seriously to work to make this, their County Fair, second to none of the county fairs of the State. As an agricultural community, Kent, certainly, is not behind any of her sister counties, and if our people will only arouse to the importance of the occasion, the question is already solved. The Fair last year was successful, but it is expected this time to assume much more extended proportions.

SALES OF TOWN PROPERTY.—During the present week Hon. William Welch, (who next year is going back to his farm near Kennedyville to reside) determined to dispose of his elegant residence and desirably located premises adjoining, and for the purpose of readily effecting a sale laid off some ten fine building lots, which were immediately purchased by the following named parties: The dwelling, by Wm. B. Usilton, of the News, for $2,400; lot fronting 157 feet on Mill street, having on it a fine new stable and carriage house, fruit of various kinds, and a magnificent horse-chestnut tree, by Luther A. Kendall, for $1,500; also, the following lots fronting on Cannon street, running back (with one exception) 240 feet, purchased at $8 per front foot, as follows: John C. Usilton, 40 feet; Milton Baker, 40 feet; T. W. Russell, 40 feet; Samuel L. Rawleigh, 30 feet; S. W. Raleigh, 25 feet; R. S. Usilton, 30 feet; J. N. Usilton, 58 feet: total amount, $6,004. Mr. Welch has two lots, of 30 feet each, bargained for at the same rate, but sale not yet closed, which would run the total amount of sales up to $8,484. This property about one year ago, was purchased for $6,000; and would, no doubt, have been very hard to sell, had not Mr. Welch adopted this plan. By so doing, and giving good time on the payments, a class of our citizens have been enabled to secure choice lots on which to erect homes; and Mr. Welch has not only made a fair speculation, but at the same time become a public benefactor.

Mr. S. L. Rawleigh, fully imbued with the spirit of improvement, at once commenced to build on his lot, and already has his frame up and weather-boarded. It is two story front, with back building one story.

MORE RAILROADS.—The Annapolis correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says:

In accordance with chapter 416, Acts of Assembly, 1870, the charter of two new railroad companies in Maryland have been forwarded the Executive Chamber for record.

The second is the Baltimore, Chesapeake and Delaware Bay Railroad Company. The termini of this road are a point on the dividing line of the States of Delaware and Maryland, where the Baltimore and Chesapeake Bay railroad (a company incorporated by the General Assembly of Delaware, January session, 1873,) terminates, there to connect and consolidate with said railroad and Baltimore city. The route of the road is through the counties of Caroline and Queen Anne's, and terminates at a point near the northern portion of Kent Island, thence to connect by steamboats or barges with Baltimore city. The capital stock is $600,000; the par value of shares is not given. The incorporators are Griffin W. Goldsborough, John P. Manlove, Sydney C. Long, and Emory S. Turpin, of Maryland, and John B. Pennington, of Delaware.

ORPHANS' COURT.—Present, Judges Beck, Scott, and Hepbron.

The court passed a number of claims against the estates of deceased parties.

On application, ordered that James Yates, admr. of Jas. Yates, late of Kent county, dec'd., give notice to creditors that a dividend on the personal estate will be made.

On application, letters of administration on the estate of Curtis Cordray, late of Kent county, were granted and committed unto Charles T. Westcott and Isaac R. Leverton, (the party entitled having renounced) who executed a bond in the penalty of twenty thousand dollars, with Richard Hynson and Isaac Cordray as sureties. Thomrs Baker and James H. Baker were appointed to appraise said estate, and the usual notice to creditors ordered.

Geo. B. Westcott, ex. of the last will and testament of Samuel W. Spencer, returned an additional administration account and dividend, which was passed and ordered to be recorded.

Henrietta E. Howard, ex. of Joseph J. Howard, returned her first and final administration account, which was passed and ordered to be recorded.

JAS. T. CARLILE, ESQ., recently Vice-Principal of Washington College, has been elected principal of Cambridge College, Dorchester county. Mr. Carlile was elected by a very flattering vote.

DANGEROUS.—The cellar door of the old rookery below Mr. Bacchus' on High street, is again in a dangerous condition, some of the planks being off. A young lady living in the neighborhood, stepped into it some week ago, at night, but fortunately escaped falling entirely through. Why a dangerous pitfall of this character is suffered to remain on one of the public thoroughfares of our town is beyond explanation. The entire premises are a nuisance, and have been for some time.

Correspondence of the Balt. Sun.

CENTREVILLE, Sept. 2, 1873.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS IN QUEEN ANNE'S COUNTY.—The Democratic conservative nominating convention met here to-day, with Edward Bryan, of Queenstown district in the chair, and Wm. Dever, of Centreville district, secretary. After balloting for the clerk of the circuit court for a considerable time, W. A. G. Hobbs, of Queenstown district, received the requisite number of votes to elect. The contest was chiefly between James Wooters, (the present incumbent,) Dr. Washington Finley, and Mr. Hobbs. The convention then proceeded to ballot for the remaining officers, the result of which is as follows: For Register of Wills, Jas. T. Dudley; for sheriff, Thos. C. Bailey; for the House of Delegates, Thomas H. Kenny and J. West Thompson, Jr.; for county commissioners, William Tanner, Mordecai Price and John C. Hackett; for county surveyor, B. S. Elliott. The convention, having no further business before them, adjourned sine die.

REHOBOTH BEACH.

A correspondent of the Wilmington Commercial says:

The first season at this new place of resort is about closing, and the time is therefore appropriate to remark the fact that it has been, on the whole, successful in itself, and very encouraging for the future. Those who have been here, either transiently or for some length of time, have gone away well pleased, and will not only desire to return next season, but will warmly advertise the merits of the place.

There are here, as the result of the first year's improvement, one large boarding-house—the "Surf House"—accommodating, under pressure, two hundred guests, seven private cottages, a drug store, and a few other smaller buildings of various descriptions. The cottages may be named, as follows: Commencing at the Surf House, the nearest is the residence of Mrs. Riley, of Wilmington, on Ocean Avenue; next is that of Rev. R. W. Todd, the Superintendent of the Camp Meeting Association, on Olive Avenue; next South of that, the cottage of Dr. C. R. Jeffries, of Wilmington, on Surf Avenue, fronting the ocean; and also on Surf Avenue that of Rev. Joseph Mason, of Philadelphia; on Rehoboth Avenue, still going south, the handsome residence of Jethro J. McCullough, of Wilmington; farthest down the beach, on Wilmington Avenue, the cottage of Mr. Finley, of Philadelphia. These are all tasteful and handsome residences, whose cost may be stated, in round numbers at from $750 to $2500., the latter figure being that of Mr. McCullough's house.

The Surf House has been quite successful, and during July and the first week of August, it could not nearly accommodate all who wished to become guests. A house twice as large might have been easily filled. The excessive rains came, however, and somewhat damped the season, and following that the break in the railroad kept away quite a number who had arranged to come. There are now here, however, some thirty or forty guests, and the house is far from emptiness.

Altogether, the number of guests in the house, during the season, may be estimated at a thousand—so Mrs. Keene and Mr. Todd think. Looking over the register, I find they were from the States of Delaware, Maryland, New York, Ohio, West Virginia, Virginia, New Jersey, Georgia, Missouri and District of Columbia. Among the towns and cities represented are Wilmington, Baltimore, Chester, Philadelphia, Washington, Annpolis, Lancaster, Savannah and St. Louis. The house and furniture belong to the Camp-Meeting Association, and cost some $12-000.

CHESAPEAKE AND DELAWARE CANAL.—The Philadelphia Ledger says that the damage to the Chesapeake and Delaware canal is not so serious as was feared, and that navigation of the canal, it is expected, will be resumed by the 20th or 21st of the present month, a very large force being at work to accomplish this purpose.

A story is current that Wm. M. Tweed offered to bet $10,000 to $5,000, recently, that he would be acquitted, in the end, of all the charges brought against him, and that nobody would take the bet.

PENINSULA ITEMS.

QUEEN ANNE'S COUNTY.

Injured.—As Mr. Wm. S. Bishop was driving home from Church Hill one day last week his horse took fright and ran away, throwing Mr. Bishop out of his carriage and breaking his shoulder blade. A physician was summoned, who dressed Bishop's wounds and he is now doing well.

Attempted Rape.—Solomon Fletcher, a plasterer, was lodged in jail last Friday in default of $500 bail to answer the charge of attempting to violate the person of Mrs. Anna E. Cahall, a widow lady residing in Queenstown. Fletcher we learn, was under the influence of liquor at the time.—Observer.

CAROLINE COUNTY.

Appointment for Washington College.—The Orphans' Court for this county, on Tuesday last, filled the vacant scholarship from this county in the College, at Chestertown, by the appointment of S. J. Smith, residing in the 4th district, to that position. Several other applicants presented their claims to the Court but young Smith carried off the prize. He is said to be a young man of bright intellect, very unassuming in his manner and worthy to fill the position conferred upon him by the Court.—Union.

Sold.—Mr. P. W. Downes sold one day last week his hotel property in this town, directly opposite the Court House, Capt. Thos. E. Heither for $35,000.—Capt. H. has also purchased of Mr. Ernest Downes his stock of store goods and will engage in the mercantile business in a few days.—Ib.

TALBOT COUNTY.

The Journal says: Katie, daughter of Judge Goldsborough, aged about 2 years fell from the second story window to the brick pavement below, on Friday. Drs. Chamberlaine and Wilson were called in and found that no bones were broken, a few bruises only being the result of the fall. She is now running about, apparently none the worse for the accident.

The Oyster Trade.—This trade has opened, and several pungy loads have already been taken to the Baltitimore market. The oysters are said to be in very good condition, for so early in the season being quite fat. The prospect for the fall trade in these bivalves is very promising. Oysters on board, are now worth about 30 cents per bushel for ordinary size, large oysters, selects bring better prices. The oyster shucking establishments will soon commence operations, and we understand all will have largely increased orders for shucked oysters this fall, which will make business brisk in the oyster line.—Comet.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says: "The Democracy have fully accepted the results that have grown out of the war. Their organization is of to-day and for to-day and for the future. The Republicans exist only and fight for the shadow of past measures. We advise the Democratic speakers and the Democratic press to pay no attention to any attempt to revive old issues that are not now connected with the Government. Such talk is the merest bosh, and is only worthy of being treated with silent contempt. It can hardly be possible that any man who believes the Republican party of to-day is unfit to be trusted with power will vote to continue it because it may have been so ten or a dozen years ago. What we propose to do is to exhibit the corruption and unworthiness of the men now in office. From this we should not be pushed into discussions of questions that have no more to do with to-day than the question of whether there ever was any such thing as the siege of Troy."

All indebted to Thomas H. Whaland will be good enough to settle. It would give him much pleasure to indulge for any length of time if it were possible, but he owes some money which must be paid either by collections, borrowing at a premium, or assigning paper at a discount, which he ought not to be compelled to do with the amount of money he has due, and which ought to have been collected a long time ago. His professional engagements will not allow him to make individual calls. Hoping this notice will relieve him from any more unpleasant proceedings, he remains,
