Remarks on board the Corn

This day commences
With a light wind from to Middle part fall well on fire back in Light later part the same.

Friday
This day commences
With a light wind [illegible] the ice 2 ships
In sight [illegible] spoke the ship
Charles General [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]
[illegible]

Prebet after by
Sunday morning
Hymn
Lattar days
Long

What evil thing is this yade
What is peculiar day profane

[illegible]

We are passing a way let us hale that glad day
Life is short and we must soon die
Must die Let us be prepared to Meet it
The stars are but the shining dust
The stars are but the shining dust
Of my divine abode
The pavements of those heavenly courts
Where I shall see my God

Mrs Mary E Starr
Uncasville
New London
Ct

Mrs Ct