And when you lay you down

And as night spreads her dewy mantle der earth
I know you think of the household hearth

And when night spreads her dewy mantle der earth
And when night - der the earth her dewy mantle spreads
And you take the cold ground for your Soldiers bed
Your thoughts are carried back into the distant past -
And a smile lights up your features but it does not long last
For - a drum - breaks the reverie into which you are fallen
It calls the long roll which says to the soldiers fall in
And as you close Equipments, he must - the coming for Thoughts of all dear dear your Country like wise come and
