Ship Montpelier on the North Pacific

May 4th 1845.

Spoke Barque Milton & Vocium New Bedford 17 Months out 17.00 bbls in Whole Lat by Obs 38.00 N. Long by Chro 175.56 East

May 14th 1845

saw several ri Whales, to rugged to lower Lat by Obs 44.13 N. Long by Chro 170.40 East

May 18th

saw Whales lowered with out success Lat 44.13.

May 19th.

saw several Whales working to the N W At 11 pastured to one Whale got two Boats stove. lost the Whale 5 [illegible] lances lance and 6 Irons. Lat by Obs 46.04 N. Long by Chro 169.32
East

May 20th and 21st a gale up wind saw Nothing

May 22.

saw several Whales lowered to no purpose

May 23 to 31st

variable winds and weather most of the time a gale of wind saw quite a number of Whales got Nothing Lat 44 to 45.00 N Long by Chro 167 to 168.00 East

May 31st

Picked up a dead Whale

June 1 to 21st variable winds and weather with thick fog most of the time saw quite a number of Whales but got Nothing Lat by Obs 45 to 48.30 North Lat by Chro 169 to 166.30 East

June 22nd commences with Calms saw several Whales got one Lat 48.32 North

Ship Montpelier on the North Pacific 1845

June 23 to July 7th

All sorts of weather but thick foggy most of the time saw many for Whales Lat by Obs 48.30 to 52.00 North Long 165.00 East

July 7th

saw several Whales got one and 5 bbls in sight

July 8 to 12th saw quite a number of Whales but a great Number of Ships. got Nothing Lat 54.30 North No longitude for 10 days

July 13th

Picked up a Dead Whale in the fog Nothing more in sight

July 14th to 19th

saw Nothing but Ships and thick fog

July 20th

saw one ri Whale killed and sunk from the last Whale we saw on Kamchatka Lat 53.35 North Long 165.30

July 22 to August 10th saw Nothing but thick fog and Ships and on this day we left the ground for the Sandwich Islands.

Sept 5th

Came to Anchor in Rogerves Bay Owhyhee we remained at this place untill the 17 of Sept on that day we left for New Zealand

Oct 20th

Arrived to Kiratanga bay of and in for recruits
On the 22 we left