1865 Sunday Feb 26th

Barometer This day begins with light winds from S.E. thick morning 18° Weather Mid and latter part strong breezes Noon 19° from S.E. cloudy the mate and Hand mate Night 20° Weather Black Lead and returned latter part the mate ashore

Barometer Monday Feb 27th
Morning 28° This day begins with light airs and calms fine clear
Noon 26° Weather Capt. Allen went up to Big Pioneer Night Mid and latter part weather much the Same

Barometer Tuesday Feb 28th
Morning 19° This day begins with Strong breeze from N.W.
Noon 20° With thick snow Storm Mid and latter part
Night much the same

Barometer Wednesday March 1st
Morning 19° This day begins with Strong gales from N.W.
Noon 23° With thick weather Mid and latter part
Night much the Same

Barometer Thursday March 2nd
Morning 25° This day begins with Strong from N.W. clear Noon 22° Weather broke out Molasses sugar and Pork mid Night Part much the same few natives come from Black Head Island latter part coming in thick
Bad snowing up

Barometer Friday March 3rd
Morning 23° This day begins with light airs from the Westward
Noon 26° Clear weather hauled two loads of ice from ashore
Night Capt Allen and Morgan came on board the day
The mate went over to the Schooner Leader mid and latter part much the Same broke out Carpenters

1865 Sunday March 4th

Barometer This day begins with light airs and calms clear Morning 28° Weather Capt Morgan and Davidson were on board
Noon 26° Mid and latter part much the Same Capt Spicer Night And Kenny came on board from across the bay Where the vessels lay the Big Georgianna and Schooner J B Howes

Barometer Sunday March 5th
Morning 28° This day begins with light airs and calms clear weather
Noon 18° A boat came on board from the Schooner J B Howes Night With a team of dogs Capt Morgan Lieutenant Spicer and Kenny all went up to the Big Pioneer Mid and latter part much the same that returned mid and latter part much the Same

Barometer Monday March the 6th
Morning 28. This day begins with light airs calm clear
Noon 12. weather a team went over to the Georgianna Night with some coal and Captain Spicer and Kenny went to the Southward with a nother team about she went to the Schooner Leader mid and latter part much the same.

Barometer Tuesday March 7th
Morning 12° This day begins with light airs from S.E. clear
Noon 6° Weather The crew employed in hauling two casks
Night Of tea and one half a box of tobacco on A Sled
From the Big Pioneer the mate and Fourth mate
Went up to Niantilick one boat Ver came down
From Big Pioneer mid and latter part calm
Clear weather our boat she returned from Schooner Leader.