Ship Nimrod From the Sandwich Islands Towards the Ochotsk Sea Commanded By Wanton W. Sherman 1849

H.	H.	H.H.	Courses	Winds	L.W.	Remarks on board Wednesday May 23d 1849
2			N by E	W.N.W.		Commence with light airs & calm the weather
4						fine the Coopers Employed in setting up Oil Casks
6						Wind Part Calm Latter Part to moderate
8						breeze Ship Steering a Course Studding sails set
10						this Day saw a number of fin backs
12
2						Lat by Obs. 32° 42' N
4			N.W. by W.	S by E		Long " " 171° 13' East
6
8
10
12			"	"

H.	H.	H.H.	Courses	Winds	L.W.	Remarks on board Thursday May 24th
2	5		N.W. by W.	S by E		Commence with a fine breeze and fair weather
4	5					Ship all Sail set Steering a Course Employed
6	5					in setting up Oil Casks
8	7					Wind Part & Latter
10	7					a fresh breeze & thick fog with rain
12	7		"	South		Bring the Ship by the wind Studding sails in
2	7					the weather more moderate N.W. by W. this Day
4	7
6	7					Lat by Account 34° 52' N
8	7					Long " " 169° 00 East
10	7
12	7		"	S.W.		Variation 12° Easterly

H.	H.	H.H.	Courses	Winds	L.W.	Remarks on board Friday May 25th
2	3	½	N.W.	Variable		Commence with light breezes and thick
4	3	½				Fog with frequent Rain at 8 P.M. tacked Ship
6	3	½	N.W.	N.E. by E.		Wind Part as above Ship Steering a Course
8	3	½				Latter Part a fresh breeze Lat 6 A.M.
10	3	"				set the Studding Sails End a thick fog
12	3	"	N.W.	East		All Day
2	5					Lat by Account 35° 07' N
4	5					Long " " 168° 17 E
6	5
8	5
10	5					Variation 1 Point E
12	5		N.W.	S.E.

H.	H.	H.H.	Courses	Winds	L.W.	Remarks on board Saturday May 26th
2	5	½	N.W.	S.S.E.		Commence with a fresh breeze & thick weather
4	5	"				Ship Steering a Course Shifted over the Studding sails
6	8		N.W. by W.	S		at Dark the wind increasing with frequent
8	8					Rain at 9 P.M. took in the Studding Sails
10	8					it having the appearance of a Gale Wind Part
12	6	"	"	S.W.		more moderate & thick Fog Latter Part
2	6	"				much the same at 3 A.M. set the Studding sails again
4	6	"				at 8 took them in again brace up the Yards the
6	6	"				wind a hauling Bring Ship by the wind N.W. by
8	6	"				Lat by Account 38° 22' N
10	3		N by E	W.N.W.		Long " " 167° 19 East
12	3		"	"		Variation one point East

H.	H.	H.H.	Courses	Winds	L.W.	Remarks on board Sunday May 27th
2			N	W by N		Commence with light airs and baffling and fair
4						weather light Main occasionally Ship by the wind
6						Wind Part a light air the weather hazy
8						Latter Part a fresh breeze and Squally Ship
10						in the wind Force & Sheer main Topgallant Sails
12			N.N.W.	W by W	½	in then Bring got a hundred Obs
2					"	Lat by Obs 39° 55' N
4					"	Long " Chron 167° 28 E
6					"	Long by Lunar 167° 33 E
8					1
10					1
12			N by W	N	1

H.	H.	H.H.	Courses	Winds	L.W.	Remarks on board Monday May 28th
2			N by W	N	1	Commences with a fresh breeze and fair
4					"	Weather Ship by the wind Force & Sheer main Top Gallant
6					"	Sails in at 5 A.M. took in Main Topgallantsail
8					"	at 7 Double Reefed the Topsails the weather having
10					"	a wild appearance Wind Part as above
12			N.N.W.	W by S	"	Latter To little more moderate Let one reef out
2					"	the Topsails Stress End
4					"
6					"	Lat by Obs 42° 00' N
8					"	Long by Account 167° 40 East
10					"
12			N.W.	S.W. by W.	"	Variation 13 E