Sunday the 10th

First part a Pretty gale from N N West and a mere Breeze and employed getting up water Ship heading West at 6 P M close reefed the Main top Sail and hauled Ship to the N East Middle part blowing hard Lat 44.38 latter part More moderate Set the Main top Sail and fore Course at noon and light Set double reefs

Monday the 11th

First part of this 24 hours a light breze from the N N West Steering by the N East under double reefs at 4 P M a gentle breze from the N N West more Ship heading West Middle part a brisk breze made all Sail latter part thick weather at noon more Ship heading the E blowing on Set double reefs

Tuesday the 12th

First part of this 24 hours blowing a gale from the N West under a close reef Main top Sail heading N East Middle part the Same at daylight heading up N East Lat 44.0 48 both moderating Set double reefs at noon blowing are again took in the fore top Sail and Main Course

Wednesday the 13

Commences with a gale from N West heading Northward Middle part the Same at daylight more moderate Made Sail at 7 A M bore Ship to the Eastward employed Stowing down Oil in the After Hold at noon blowing an gale from the Same and course N N East Lat 44.24 as Early as time Pass and as a fair wind that we may be able to find our Passenger on Some part of Chatham and So Shape our Course homeward

Thursday the 14th

Commences with a Strong breze from N N West and a high Swell took in light Sails at 4 P M double reefed at 6 P M bored Ship to the N East and took in the Fore and Main Course Middle part much the Same at Midnight wind hauled to S S West heading West latter part a brisk breze at 10 A M Saw 6th degree Island bearing West

Friday the 15th

Commences with a brisk breze from South South West by South at 5 P M Shift up with the above Island black fish leaved and Caught one Middle part fine took off an Shoe at daylight Saw Chatham Island Stood in for the N E Point a Missionary Station and landed our Missionary Passenger employed bringing off and any 3 boats Saw Shore getting Vegetation S E Ends

March. 1850. Saturday the 16th

First part of these 24 hours a gentle breze from the South Ship lying off and on at the N East Point of Chatham Island at 4 P M the boats returned to the Ship laden with Vegetation and likewise 4 Sheep the Missionaries also came off with the boats and at 7 P M bid us adieu and Started for Shore bored Ship Stowing East N East round S S East Middle part wind hauled heading N East Sheep by latter part a brisk breze all appearance of a blow employed washing Anchors and other Jobs cleaning and Mending black fish Clinton at noon wind inclining more to the South Course E N East took in the Main boat and put her over head So Ends these 24 hours with a brisk breze and the Sea arising fast

Sunday the 17th

First part of these 24 hours a Strong breze from the South Course East N East at 4 P M double reefed fore and aft Sail 6 took in the Mizzen top Sail Middle part the Sea increasing took in the Sails at daylight moderating Set up again the Mizzen top Sail the wind inclining to the Eastward heading N East by East latter part light airs from the East heading Northward

Monday the 18

First part of these 24 hours a baffling wind from the East heading Northward Middle part calm at daylight light airs from the Eastward heading Northward employed bailing out black fish Clinton and various other duty such as getting ready for bad weather Be at noon finished bailing 2 P M

Tuesday the 19th

First part of these 24 hours a moderate breze from the Eastward heading Southward at 6 P M more Ship to the N East all appearance of rain and a Strong of blow Middle part thick air wind and light baffling winds heading Southward at daylight more Ship to the N East latter part light airs employed fitting the Ship for Cape Horn So Ends

Wednesday the 20th

First part light airs from the East all Sail out Steering by to the Northward at 8 P M more Ship to the South East Middle part up East S East latter part thick fogg and a drizzling rain and Calmly Wind Good Lord as a fair wind and Thus a an an of breze homeward