LOCAL NEWS.

SUPPOSED TO BE MURCERED.—The following particulars have been furnished us by G. M. Hart, Esq., a Justice of the Peace:

On the 22d instant, (Saturday last) the body of an unknown man, supposed to have been murdered, floated ashore on the land of Captain James Young, near Rock Hall, on the Chesapeake Bay. Upon information being given to Mr. Hart he summoned a jury of inquest, and after a full examination, a verdict was rendered that the unfortunate man came to his death by having his throat cut by some sharp instrument in the hands of some person or persons to the jurors unknown, and thrown into the Chesapeake Bay.

The deceased was apparently thirty or thirty-five years of age, five feet seven and a half inches high, with dark brown hair, without beard of any kind: was dressed in a knit cotton undershirt, cotton drawers, cotton stockings, knit woolen jacket nearly new, with black buttons; check plaid cotton and yarn pants, calf-skin gaiters, the left one recently mended with half sole and heel-tap; the right shoe good.

There was nothing on him to indicate who he was or where he came from. His clothing was all good and genteel. In his pocket was found two small keys fastened together by a brass wire in the shape of an S, and one black button. His throat was cut in two places: the upper wound cutting the windpipe entirely through, and both jugular veins. The body was taken in charge by Capt. James Young, and buried on the farm.

Specimens of the clothing were sent to the Baltimore Sun office, and Mr. Caspar Bauer, of No. 31 North Chapel street, believes the body to be that of his son, John Bauer, reported to have been drowned on the 1st of November by falling overboard from the oyster pungy 'Fashion,' off North Point. The father states that his son was 22 years old, that Capt. Peters of the 'Fashion' and his son were good friends, and that his son had gone on trips before with Capt. Peters, and was to have had a share in the fruits of this voyage. Mr. Bauer was to have gone to Rock Hall to identify the body, which he is confident is that of his son.

VENDUES NEXT WEEK.—On Monday the 1st of December, Dr. E. A. Vannort, at the residence of the late Daniel Hanes near Hanesville, will sell all his farming implements and stock.

On Tuesday the 2d of December, Mr. William T. Miller, near Chesterville, will sell his entire stock and farming implements.

On Wednesday December 3d, Mr. Geo. T. Hollyday, executor of Geo. W. Beck, will sell at the late residence of said deceased, on Swan Creek, all the personal property belonging to the estate, embracing the farm stock and implements.

These sales may be found fully advertised on the second page of to-day's Transcript, and all who contemplate buying horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, provender, or farming utensils, should carefully read them. One very taking feature about them these hard times, will be found (if we are not greatly mistaken) the long credits to be given.

GOOD AND TRUE.—We are glad to see that good old family newspaper, the NEW YORK OBSERVER, has come out boldly in opposition to the foolish practice of baiting subscribers with cheap pictures. It declares the premium business demoralizing, and repudiates it altogether. It will not be long before every paper that is worth having will take the same stand. A good family newspaper at $3 a year is the cheapest luxury that can be enjoyed, and we can heartily recommend the NEW YORK OBSERVER as such a paper. S. I. Prime & Co., 37 Park Row, New York.

MASSEY'S CROSS ROADS.—When we say that the Massey's Cross Roads of to-day would not be recognized by those who have not seen the place for ten years, we do not mean to say that it has grown to the proportions of a city or even a considerable town. But Massey's has made a great stride nevertheless. The Kent county, the Queen Anne's county, the Townsend Branch, and the Bombay Hook Railroads, all meet at Massey's; and while neither of these roads are, as yet, doing a very large business, it is steadily increasing, and Massey's has already felt the influence. It looks like a new place. The hotel is an admirable and commodious new building, under the management of Mr. Ford, and its proportions and general appointments would overawe the departed denizens of the neighborhood were they suddenly resurrected. Instead of a Cross Roads with its dram-shop and forge, Massey's is now unquestionably a town in appearance, its comforts, and general business-like atmosphere. Four trains a day—two each way through the town—have startled its citizens out of that dreamy lethargy which generally seems to possess the inhabitants of your Eastern Shore village. Go to Massey's on Saturday, take a look at the place, observe the substantial business men who meet there, look around it at one of the prettiest agricultural sections in the United States, and it does not take much foresight to determine that the future of Massey's Cross Roads is onward.

While in the village a few days since, we took the opportunity to investigate the "Democratic Riot" which has been so soothingly swallowed by our Republican politicians. The account which we have heretofore published was correct. The only parties we heard of as being "demoralized" were a Democrat who did not know the way home when he started to run during the melee, and a white Republican who bolted into a friend's house and actually locked him out. Mr. Boyer, we are glad to say, has entirely recovered from the wound he received.

THANKSGIVING DAY was observed in Chestertown by the usual closing of places of business. Divine service was held in the forenoon, in the P. E. and M. P. Churches.

QUALIFIED.—D. C. Blackiston, Esq., the recently elected Clerk of the Circuit Court, qualified on Tuesday last and entered upon the duties of his office. We learn that he has appointed the following deputies: H. C. Chase, of Chestertown, chief clerk; John W. Palmer and Wm. M. Gilpin, assistants.

William Stevens, Esq., the Register of Wills, qualified and bonded on Tuesday last, and took charge of his office. T. W. Russell, Esq., acting Deputy Register.

ORPHANS' COURT.—Present, Judges Beck, Scott and Hepbron.

The Court passed a number of claims against the estates of deceased parties.

C. H, Baker, guardian to Mary V. and Zoa Baker, returned his guardian accounts for the year 1872, which were passed and ordered to be recorded.

Henry Davis, Admr. of Samel W. Roberts, late of New Castle county, Del., deceased, returned his second and final Admr., account which was passed and ordered to be recorded, and obtained an order to transfer the ballance of Estate due deceased, to the administrator in New Castle county Del.

Saml. W. Comeggs, Atty. for Mary J. Ringgold, Executrix of the last will and testaments of Thos. W. Ringgold, late of Kent county deceased, returned his first Admr. account; passed and ordered to be recorded.

R. J. Lusby, Admr. of John M. Hudson deceased, returned his second and final Admr. accounts and divided, which was passed and ordered to be recorded.

Walter J. Griffith, by his counsel, filed a petition to be allowed to pass another account for the purpose of correcting omissions in account as Executor of Jacob Caulk. Granted.

Every case of consumption commences with cough, excited from the individual having taken cold. Do not neglect the little cough or cold, but use, the sooner the better, Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

CUT THIS OUT—IT MAY SAVE YOUR LIFE.—There is no person living but what suffers more or less with Lung Diseases, Coughs, Colds or Consumption, yet some would die rather than pay 65 cents for a bottle of medicine that would cure them. Dr. A. Boschee's German Syrup has lately been introduced in this country from Germany, and its wonderous cures astonishes every one that try it. If you doubt what we say in print, cut this out and take it to your Druggist Stam & Bro., or T W Wickes, and get a sample bottle free of charge, or a regular size for 75 cts.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

MORO PHILLIPS,
vs.
J. W. F. AYARS, WILLIAM AYARS, WILLIAM AYRS, EXECUTOR OF JAMES B. AYARS, THOMAS COPE AND ELIZABETH COPE, HIS WIFE, AND OTHERS.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR KENT COUNTY. IN EQUITY.

The object of this suit is to procure a Decree for the sale of certain real estate in Kent county, Maryland, of which Jas. B. Ayars, late of Germantown, Pennsylvania, died, seized, for the purpose of paying the debts of said deceased, and of distributing any surplus to his heirs at law.

The Bill states that the complainant, Moro Phillips, on or about the twenty-seventh day of April, 1871, obtained a judgment in the District Court for the City and County of Philadelphia, against Alexander McConaughy and the said James B. Ayars, for the sum of sixteen hundred and thirty-one dollars, with lawful interest thereon, which judgment still remains unsatisfied, and that the said Alexander McConaughy is wholly insolvent: that the said James B. Ayars, about the ninth of April, 1873, departed this life, leaving a Will made and executed in the State of Pennsylvania, some time in the year 1868, by which said Will the said James B. Ayars undertook to dispose of said real estate, but that said Will was not executed in due form of law to pass real estate, according to the laws of Maryland, and that said real estate, by reason of the defect of said Will, descended to the heirs at law of the said James B. Ayars. That the said James B. Ayars left the following children and descendants, his heirs at law, namely: J. W. F. Ayars, William Ayars, Joseph Ayars, Elizabeth M. Cope, wife of Thomas Cope, all children of the said James B. Ayars, and Alexander McConaughy and Chas. McConaughy, children of Rebecca McConaughy, deceased, formerly Rebecca Ayars, daughter of James B. Ayars, and wife of Alexander McConaughy, and Mary Ayars, Morton Ayars, and Edith Ayars, children of Charles Ayars, deceased, son of James B. Ayars: that the said William Ayars and Chas. McConaughy reside in Kent county, Maryland, but that J. W. F. Ayars, Joseph Ayars, Thomas Cope and Elizabeth Cope, his wife, Alexander McConaughy, Sr., and Alexander McConaughy, Jr., and the said Mary Ayars, Morton Ayars and Edith Ayars, all reside out of the State of Maryland: the bill further states that the said Alexander McConaughy, Jr., Charles McConaughy, Mary Ayars, Morton Ayars and Edith Ayars are all minors, under the age of twenty-one years, and that the personal estate of the said James B. Ayars was insufficient to pay the debts of said deceased. It is thereupon adjudged and ordered that the complainant, by causing a copy of this Order to be published in some newspaper published at Chestertown, Maryland, once in each of four successive weeks before the sixteenth day of January next, give notice to the said absent defendants of the object and substance of this Bill, and warn them to appear in this Court, in person or by solicitor, on or before the sixteenth day of March next, to answer the premises, and show cause, if any they have, why a Decree ought not to pass as prayed.
