CHESTERTOWN, MD.

Saturday Morning, Dec. 13, 1873.

TAKING TIME BY THE FORELOCK.

The selection of candidates for the various offices has always been a troublesome and delicate matter with parties, especially with that party which predominates in a particular locality. The conflict for nomination has of late years been so fierce that it has materially impaired, at times, the strength of the Democratic Conservative party at the polls.

Some plan by which all this strife and divisions within the party could be avoided would, we believe, be joyfully hailed by all, and as we have always contended that no time was so propitious to determine upon a fair plan as immediately after an election, we propose to make a suggestion.

We believe that the history of nominations for the past ten years proves that the nearer the nominations are brought to a selection by a ballot at large, the greater the contention and bitterness, and the more difficult to produce harmony. We suggest the following plan: Some time in January next, let the voters of the party meet in their respective districts and select by ballot, or as the meeting may determine, twenty or twenty-five of the discreet and practical members of the party in the district. The names of these to be kept by the President of the meeting, attested by the secretary. When the time arrives for the nominating convention to assemble under the call of the central committe and the day is appointed, the presidents of the district meetings held in January to call the primary together on the day preceding the meeting of the county convention and present to the meeting the twenty or twenty-five names which have been in his keeping; from these to be selected by lot, five who shall represent the district in the county nominating convention, with full power to make such nominations as may be deemed best for all interests.

We believe such a plan as this would completely break up the necessity or value of seeking nominations as has been the practice, and prevent collusion on the part of aspirants for office. The harmony of the party is of the utmost consequence, and any thing that may conduce thereto is worth examination.

ORPHANS' COURT.—Present, Judges Beck, Scott, and Hepbron.

The Court passed a number of claims against the estates of deceased parties.

Hyland P. Smith, admr. of George W. Thomas, returned a list of debts due deceased; filed and ordered to be recorded.

Susan Roeder and Columbus A. Leary, admrs. of Abraham Roeder, returned an inventory of the personal estate of deceased and obtained an order for the sale thereof.

Susan A. Roeder, admr'x. with C. A. Leary, admr. of Abraham Roeder, filed her renunciation.

Letters of administration on the estate of Wm. H. Jones, late of Kent county, deceased, were granted and committed unto Marietta Jones and A. L. Corey, who gave bond with John N. Usilton and J. W. Corey, as sureties, in the penalty of three thousand dollars. Robt. Nicholson and Geo. D. S. Handy were appointed to appraise said estate, and the usual notice to creditors ordered.

On application, Charles Clark, admr. of John Clark, was ordered to be cited to appear and show cause why a dividend has not been paid.

Walter J. Griffith, ex. of W. J. Griffith, dec'd., returned a further admr. account for his testator as executor of Jacob Caulk, dec'd.

Benjamin F. H. Caulk, admr. D. B. N. C. T. A. of Jacob Caulk, returned an additional admr. account: passed and ordered to be recorded,

The release of B. F. H. Caulk, aforesaid, to Walter J. Griffith, ex. &c., was filed and ordered to be recorded.

A LAUNDRY COMPANY.—The Salisbury Eastern Shoreman gives an account of the projected Laundry Company in that town, and truly says, "any new business in a town is an advantage in proportion to the amount of capital invested and the employment furnished laborers." Three thousand dollars seems to be the required amount to carry out the Salisbury plan. The intention is to make a first-class steam laundry and to connect with it a bath house and Gymnasium.

Would not a similar enterprise in our town, besides being a public convenience and giving employment to a number of laborers, be a paying investment to the stockholders?

MOTHERS do not let your darlings suffer with the whooping cough, if you have a remedy so near at hand. Use Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup and the little sufferers will soon find relief.

CUT THIS OUT—IT MAY SAVE YOUR LIFE.—There is no person living but what suffers more or less with Lung Diseases, Coughs, Colds or Consumption, yet some would die rather than pay 75 cents for a bottle of medicine that would cure them. Dr. A. Boschee's German Syrup has lately been introduced in this country from Germany, and its wonderous cures astonishes every one that try it. If you doubt what we say in print, cut this out and take it to your Druggist Stam & Bro., or T W Wickes, and get a sample bottle free of charge, or a regular size for 75 cts.

1874. THE WORLD. 1874.

The great Democratic victories in New York, Ohio, Maryland and Virginia, the startling Republican defeats in Wisconsin, Iowa, Kansas and Illinois, foreshadow the election of a Democratic Congress in 1874, and the election of a Democratic President in 1876.

The secret of the triumph already won has been steadfast adherence to the organization, unflinching fidelity to the principles of the Democratic party. The World has been faithful to its trust. When faint hearts talked of a spoiled party, a dead party, a new party, it bore aloft the flag of the historic, indomitable Democratic party. That flag, inscribed with the legends of Free Trade and Farmers' Rights, Hard Money, and no Monopolies,—the Democrats of Ohio and New York carried to a glorious victory, subverting Grant majorities of 37,000 and 51,000.

A new career now opens before the Democracy—more beneficent than its past career, identified though that be with the founding of the republic, its expansion across the continent, its half century of prosperity and peace.

The open secret of its future, as of its past and present triumphs, is still a steadfast adherence to the organization, an unflinching fidelity to the principles of the Democratic party—principles never so needful as now to be applied throughout our National, State and Municipal life to heal the wounds and demoralization of war, to stop corrupt and profligate expenditure, to limit and localize powers entrusted to the people's servants, to liberate our industries from the fetters of a barbarous Taliff, our trade from the fluctuations of an irredeemable paper Currency, and our agriculture from the double plundering of both, as well as to repair the wide-spread financial ruin wrought by the fiscal policy of the Republican party. The duty of The World in this onward march of the Democratic hosts to victory, is the dissemination of political truth. Our work will be fruitful in proportion as The World is widely read.

We ask Democrats everywhere to aid us in scattering the good seed broadcast over the whole land during the period so important to the coming harvests.—Where or how can any Democrat work so efficiently for the diffusion of the principles of his party, and their triumph at the ballot-box in '74 and '76, as by procuring new readers for The World, now?

As a vehicle of news, The World will spare no expense, no energy, to maintain and advance its place in the first rank of metropolitan journals. Its fresh, abundant, various and accurate news, comprising the whole circle of current intelligence, will be discussed as becomes Trustworthy Organs of Opinion, with candor, with steady devotion to sound public and private morals, with special knowledge for special themes, and with various and wide-reaching apprehension of the manifold interests of men and women in their homes, their market-places, their workshops and their farms.
