Wednesday April 29th 1863
Fresh breezes. Lying at St Vincent
Landed 130 gallons of Oil for Port Stanley

Thursday April 30th
Fresh breezes. Lying at St Vincent

Friday April 1st 1863
Commences fresh breezes & PM got underway went under the lee of the Island, sent Boat Gig and dubbed two men. 10-30 hoist off for the Cape 3-PM saw Cow and Calf lowered stuck the Calf and drained. 5-30 anchored at Union Island. Ends same

Saturday May 2nd
Wind blows. Lying at Union employed fishing 2 lee cask rolling off. Rigging &c.

Sunday May 3rd
Fine weather. Lying at Union

Monday May 4th
6 AM got underway 7-PM anchored at St Vincent 8 clear 5-PM got underway and stood North. Ends this same

Tuesday May 5th
Fine breeze and pleasant Stowing & PM under all sail

Wednesday May 6th
Commences pleasant 8 PM anchored at St Eustatius. End anchorage

Thursday May 7th
Fresh winds and fine weather.

Friday May 8th
Pleasant. Took on board guns and battery

Saturday May 9th
Pleasant. Took 4 men ashore to put them in the Artillery. Ends fresh breeze and Cloudy.

Sunday May 10th
Strong wind and fine weather throughout 24 hours

Monday May 11th
Commences strong breeze 6 AM got underway and stood S by E. At first breeze 8 PM anchored at Sombrero in company with Lt Cols Wood, Porter, Remington and Clarence. Ends first and clear

Tuesday May 12th
Commences fresh breeze. At some 1 PM got underway and stood N E by E. unbent chains and stowed them below. 4 PM lost sight of Sombrero. Fresh gale & squalls. End fresh breeze during by the wind under four sails.

Wednesday May 13th
Commences fresh breeze 0-20 to 20-26 main topsail reefed at first very fresh with light 00-06 squalls 8-PM passed Brig Chesapeake steering N & W.

Thursday May 14th
22-23 Fresh breeze from E N E through the 00-00 the 24 hours steering by the wind to the N & W
under all sail