Sunday June 14th 1868

N 33 Commences fresh gales from S.W. heading to the northward under lyasails and g.s. Fresh more moderate and cloudy. Ends calm

Monday June 15th

Commences calm 6-4th light airs from S.W. and 33-10 very light airs from N.W.B. Ends calm. Packed up a 56-13 barrel of Kerosene oil.

Tuesday June 16th

Commences calm 10 4th packed up barrel of 38-26 Petroleum. Fresh light airs and variable. Hoisted in sail 56-43 saw Sirhunes. Ends calm and clear.

Wednesday June 17th

38-02 Commences calm. Middle light airs and variable. Spoke 56-59 spoke Barque Edward Everett. Celia of New Bedford 20 days out 863 Sperm
Ends calm

Thursday June 18th

38-17 Commences calm until light airs from the westward
56-59 Hoisted in sail heading to the westward and light breeze from the Southward.

Friday June 19th

Commences light breeze from the Southward 5 miles 38-03 sail & saw fin backs. Dull fresh breeze furled topsails saw Brig steering 57-45 E.S.E. 2-Bs in company and flying jib and all topsail. Wind to the Eastward. Ends fresh Southerly.

Saturday June 20th

38-13 Commences fresh Southerly & reef out of foresail 56 & saw whaling Bark cruising. Dull fresh breeze from N.N.W. and squally & saw squall but could not make tops out. Fired the gun in them. Underfired N. heading to the Southward.

Sunday June 21st 1868

35-55 Commences fresh gales from S.W. and squally. Bried the sail 56-41 S.B.S. C.B.B. was to the westward. Bried fresh breeze from N.

Monday June 22d

Commences fresh westerly winds and cloudy. S.B.S.
39-55 made sail. S.B.S. tacked and steered South. Dull squally 52-42 3 P.M. saw Finbacks & took in sail. Ends light breeze from S.
and cloudy steering S under easy sail

Tuesday June 23d

38-41 Dull and mist light S.W. winds and cloudy. S.B.S.
54-20 saw Blackfish and Porpoises. Took in sail. Dull squally and hazy steering S under easy sail.

Wednesday June 24th

35-01 Commences moderate westerly 5 miles all sail steering South
52-43 Dull and hazy fresh seas

Thursday June 25th

33-33 Light westerly winds and fine weather saw 52-31 Porpoises. saw Whaling Bark cruising

Friday June 26th

32-41 Light westerly winds and fine weather through 52-02 the 24 hours

32-06 Saturday June 27th
51-24 Light westerly winds and fine weather

Sunday June 28th

Commences with fine weather. saw whaling Bark cruising 31-30 East light airs and variable. Heavy swell fine
51-18 weather. Hoisted sail