To Advertisers and Correspondents.

Advertisements and Communications should be received at this office by Wednesday's mail. The Transcript is issued on Friday but printed on Thursday, and we go to press before Thursday's mail arrives. Any thing received by Thursday's mail, must, consequently, lie over until the next issue.

LOCAL NEWS.

Orphans' Court.

Present Judges Nicholson, Shallcross and Willson.

Wm. M. Slay, admr. of S. C. Gleaves, returned an inventory of the personal estate of said deceased, and received an order for the sale thereof.

Elizabeth Deford, admx. of James Deford, returned a list of desperate debts due said deceased.

Tilghman Shafer, admr. C. T. A. of Jacob Sutton, returned his first administration account.

Wm. J. Wilson, acting guardian to Jennie W. Wilson, returned his guardian account for the year 1875.

Wm. J. Wilson, executor of Alexander Wilson, returned a report of the sale of real estate of said deceased, and received an Order Nisi.

C. T. Westcott, admr. of Chas. A. A. Stanley, filed a petition for the sale of the real estate of said deceased—and the Register of Wills was directed to summon the parties interested to appear before the Court to answer in the said matter.

OLD KENT.

After section 98 of "Old Kent," which will appear in our next issue, will follow an elaborate and almost exhaustive History of the Tilghman Family, from the earliest records of the family down to the present generation.

This, in due time, will be followed by histories of the ancient Tylden or Tilden family, and also of the Wilmers of Kent county, Md.

Delegates to Conference.

Wm. Stevens was elected delegate and S. Burgess alternate, from Chesapeake circuit; and from Kent circuit, A. W. Melvin was elected delegate and S. Vannort alternate, to the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, to meet at Lynchburg, Va., March 8, 1876.

The Letter

In last week's issue, signed James H. Hodges, should have been JAMES HODGES without the middle H. Mistakes will occur in the best regulated families, and also in the best printing offices—but James Hodges, of Baltimore city, is so well known as not to be mistaken for James H., or any other James Hodges.

Surprise Visit.

A large number of the membership of St. James' M. P. Church, Worton, on Tuesday evening last made a surprise visit to Rev. J. B. Jones at the parsonage in this town. An elegant supper (prepared and brought along for the occasion) was partaken of by a large number of guests. Of course the parsonage larder was supplied abundantly with all sorts of provisions. The occasion, we learn, was one of much pleasure and social enjoyment.

The Protracted Meeting

At the M. P. Church in this town is now in its third week, and we presume will be continued next week. Quite a number of conversions have taken place.

Accident at the Depot.

On the arrival of the down train last Tuesday afternoon, the engine was, as usual, run on the turn-table, when some of the principal timbers composing the structure gave way and sank to the ground, leaving the engine on the wreck. Mr. F. M. Aldridge, the energetic agent, at once secured a large force and endeavored to pull the engine out, but it was found impossible to do so. He then telegraphed for another engine, which arrived in time to take the train next morning, so no derangement in operating the road has been occasioned by the accident.

THE LAW OF MURDER IN ENGLAND.

The law relating to murder being still considered unsatisfactory in England, Sir John E. Wilmot has submitted a bill to Parliament which provided as follows:

1. The crime of murder shall be divided into offenses of the first and second degrees. 2. Any person convicted of murder in the first degree shall suffer death. 3. Any person convicted of murder in the second degree shall be punished with penal servitude for life, or for any period not less than seven years, or with imprisonment with hard labor for any period not exceeding two years.—(This clause has in view certain cases of infanticide.) 4. The degree of murder shall be found by jury upon the facts submitted. 5. Marder in the first degree is the killing, with deliberate malice aforethought, a human being in the peace of King or Queen regnant. 6. It is murder in the first degree when death has been caused by the willful act of any person committing or attempting to commit a felony, or when assaulting any government officer in the execution of his duty. 7. It is murder of the second degree where a verdict of murder is found by the jury, but not in the first degree. 8. Infanticide is murder of the second degree in all cases where the death of a child is caused by the willful, unlawful and malicious act of the mother, provided such act has been committed at the time of birth or within seven days. 9. In trials for infanticide the jury may return a verdict of concealment of birth. 10. In any trial for infanticide it must be proved that the child was living.

☞The New York Tribune says that the first appearance in New York of the revivalists, Moody and Sankey, on Monday night, was before an audience larger than the metropolis ever witnessed before. Fully seven thousand persons were seated in the main hall. The overflow of those disappointed in obtaining entrance filled the small hall, which seats four thousand persons, and probably five thousand persons stood outside in the streets listening to the singing. The audience in both halls was of the most respectable character, and the order maintained was perfect. On the platform nearly every Protestant denomination was represented by one or more of its most distinguished clergymen. The various other learned professions were represented by some of the most prominent lawyers, physicians, scientists and editors in the metropolis. The sermon delivered by Mr. Moody was regarded by those interested and active in the revival movements as the most powerful one with which he has initiated revivals in any of the great cities.

GEN. BANKS NOT A CANDIDATE FOR THE VICE-PRESIDENCY.—General N. P. Banks has addressed the following card to the editor of the New York World in refutation of a recently published statement that he is a candidate for the Vice-Presidency on the ticket with Grant:

"Sir:—I desire to say through your columns that the statements heretofore made verbally and in country newspapers that I am a candidate for the Vice-Presidency are unqualifiedly false. I am not or never have been a candidate for the Vice-Presidency of the United States or any other States, and I do not desire to be. I have no hesitation, however, in saying that I believe General Grant will be the candidate for the Republican party for a third term. His election will depend upon the voice of the people, as do most Presidential elections. Yours, in amnesty, N. P. BANKS.

THERE IS NO USE
"Waiting for something to turn up,"

And we have at last decided to turn it up. The protracted warm spell has materially interfered with the CLOTHING BUSINESS of Baltimore. Hundreds of Thousands of Dollars worth, which seasonable weather would have sold, remains on Shelf and Counter. It is usual in most business houses to make reductions after the season of demand is over. We have decided to take time by the forelock and make those reductions NOW. Hence our entire stock has been marked Down, Down, DOWN to an after-holiday basis. We will positively stick at no reasonable sacrifice that will turn our great stock into speedy cash.

NURSERY STOCK.

Apple, Pear, Peach and Cherry Trees and Small Fruit Plants by the 100, 1,000 or 10,000.

I HAVE for Spring planting, the most extensive and choicest assortment of Fruit Trees and Plants I have ever before offered to planters.

APPLE TREES.

The growers of this valuable and profitable fruit in Md. generally have been sadly disappointed, in getting trees from the North, as winter varieties there, when planted here, mature their fruit too early in the fall to keep through the winter with us. For this reason, and to secure reliable winter keeping apples, I grew my Apple Nursery on my farm in Va., three hundred miles South of here. I have a choice selection which cannot fail to give satisfaction. I have largely of a variety called Smith's Horse, (not the old Horse apple). The fruit can be picked nearly as early as the Early Harvest, and being double its size, sells readily at from $5 to $7 per bbl.

PEACH TREES.

Almost all my Peach Trees were budded from bearing trees, grown on my own and two adjoining farms, the buds being taken from the trees while the fruit was on them; leaving no doubt in my mind, that my stock is true to name.

I have not a long list of varieties; have budded chiefly, of late, most approved canning sorts, including three (3) very valuable new varieties for canning, very popular in Delaware, ripening with and after Smock.

I also have a large stock of Early Beatrice. I fruited this variety last summer. Several of my friends in Kent saw the fruit, and can testify that it was fully 10 days earlier than Hale's; a high-colored, showy, firm peach. I think it well worthy extensive cultivation.

PEAR TREES.

I have secured a large stock of Standard and Dwarf Pear Trees, from a reliable source in New York; and can furnish, in quantities, of the most approved varieties. No better Pear Trees can be grown anywhere than in New York.

CHERRY TREES.

I have but few varieties of this fruit, and the planter wants but few for profit.

SMALL FRUIT PLANTS.

I have a large supply on hand. I recommend but few varieties. My extensive experience as a fruit-grower, enables me to judge of the merits of the many kinds in the market. I have rejected two thirds of them, as not worthy of cultivation.
